Course Pacing Guide

---

This pacing guide should include the vision and mission of the course. It will be the same for all units in your course.

The simpler, the better. Pacing guide flaws come when they are too constricting, so big ideas is best (Cobb, McClain, de Silva Lamberg, & Dean, 2003; Wiggins, Wiggins, & McTighe, 2005)

Unit Overview

The Bill of Rights

This unit focuses on the 1st 10 amendments to the US Constitution that outline the basic individual rights of all persons in the United States of America and the interpretations when rights come into conflict with each other.

Enduring Understandings

---

To develop an understanding of the American Constitution and its application to social and political movements in American democratic history.

To understand one's role as a citizen.

To try and answer the question: What does it mean to be a citizen in American Democracy?

To understand the development of the ideas of the US Constitution.

Essential Questions

---

What is a right?

Who does the Bill of Rights protect? How are rights protected?

What happens when rights come into conflict with each other? individual rights v. group rights? Minority rights v. Majority rights?

How do rights shape individuals? Groups?

How do the courts interpret laws to protect rights?

Instructional Strategies & Learning Activities

---

- Writing and using scripts (Curriculum Based Readers Theatre)
- Kinesthetic role play
- Journal writing
- Think-pair-share
- One Pager
- Group research/presentation of political philosophies
- Lipsynch--lyric creation & performance
- Tableaux

Skills:

- Analyze how events are related over time.
- Use critical thinking skills to interpret events, recognize bias, point of view, and context
- Assess the credibility of primary and secondary sources.
- Analyze data in order to see persons and events in context.
- Examine current issues, events, or themes and relate them to past events.
- Formulate questions based on information needs.
- Use effective strategies for locating information.
- Compare and contrast competing interpretations of current and historical events.
- Interpret events considering continuity and change, the role of chance, oversight and error, and changing interpretations by historians.
- Summarize information in written, graphic, and oral formats.

Differentiated Instruction

---

Examples may include:

- Learning preferences integration (visual, auditory, kinesthetic)
- Sentence & Discussion Stems
- Self-Directed Learning
- Choice Boards
- Debate
- The Hot Seat/Role-Play
- Student Data Inventories
- Mastery Learning (feedback toward goal)
- Goal-Setting & Learning Contracts

- Game-Based Learning
- Grouping
- Socratic Seminar
- Rubrics
- Jigsaws
- Learning Through Workstations
- Concept Attainment
- Flipped Classroom
- Mentoring
- Assessment Design & Backwards Planning
- Student Interest & Inventory Data

*Add or remove any of these as you see fit.

Formative Assessments

---

- Observation
- Notetaking--using Cornell style notes
- Questioning for information and critical thinking
- Weekly homework assignments (readings, reading checks, notes, and textbook questions) that align with class material.
- Outside primary and secondary sources will be assigned for further understanding and mastery of the historical period being studied, as either homework or in class.
- In class writing assignments and prompts (charts, maps, and presentations)
- Daily warm ups to activate prior knowledge using various techniques (i.e. draw a picture, write a poem, ask a question, explain to a 1st grader, etc.)
- In-class review games
- Low-stakes quizzes, i.e. Kahoot!
- Sequence It: create timelines of major events discussed
- Gallery Walk and reflection
- Think-Pair-Share
- Linking terms
- Exit tickets

Summative Assessment

---

Each chapter will be assessed in a variety of ways, from traditional test formats to argumentative-based essays and textual citation (DRP).

Traditional test formats include multiple choice questions, matching, true and false questions, and short answer questions essays.

Content not tested in the traditional format will be assessed through research projects, presentations, art projects and other alternative assessments.

Oral Presentation/Debate on Constitutional Issues

- Gilder Lehrman Institute
- The History Channel
- PBS
- America: the Story of Us
- Library of Congress
- iCivics
- Facing History and Ourselves
- Howard Zinn Education Project
- NJState Bar Association
- CSPAN
- National Constitution Center
- NewsELA

Technology:

- Promethean Board
- Chromebooks (1:1)
- Google Classroom
- Genesis

BOE Approved Texts

---

Closure

---

Such as:

- Snowstorm - Students write down what they learned on a piece of scratch paper and wad it up. Given a signal, they throw their paper snowballs in the air. Then each learner picks up a nearby response and reads it aloud.
- DJ Summary - Learners write what they learned in the form of a favorite song. Offer to let one or two sing thier summary.
- Gallery Walk - On chart paper, small groups of students write and draw what they learned. After the completed works are attached to the classroom walls, others students affix post-its to the posters to extend on the ideas, add questions.
- Sequence It - create timelines of major events discussed
- Low-Stakes Quizzes - Give a short quiz using technologies like Kahoot or a Google form.
- Have students write down three quiz questions (to ask at the beginning of the next class).
- Question Stems - Have students write questions about the lesson on cards, using question stems framed around Bloom's Taxonomy. Have students exchange cards and answer the question they have acquired.
- Kids answer the following prompts: "What takeaways from the lesson will be important to know three years from now? Why?"
- Have students dramatize a real-life application of a skill.
- Ask a question. Give students ten seconds to confer with peers before you call on a random student to answer. Repeat.
- Have kids orally describe a concept, procedure, or skill in terms so simple that a child in first grade would get it.
- Kids write notes to peers describing what they learned from them during class discussions.
- Ask students to summarize the main idea in under 60 seconds to another student acting as a well-known personality who works in your discipline. After summarizing, students should identify why the famous person might find the idea significant.
- Have students complete the following sentence: "The [concept, skill, word] is like _____ because _____."
- Ask students to write what they learned, and any lingering questions on an "exit ticket". Before they leave class, have them put their exit tickets in a folder or bin labeled either "Got It," "More Practice, Please," or "I Need Some Help!"
- After writing down the learning outcome, ask students to take a card, circle one of the following options, and return the card to you before they leave: "Stop (I'm totally confused. Go (I'm ready to move on.)" or "Proceed with caution (I could use some clarification on . . .)"

Such as:

- Alternate Responses
- Advance Notes
- Extended Time
- Teacher Modeling
- Simplified Written and Verbal Instructions
- Frequent Breaks
- E-Dictionaries
- Google Translate

*Add to or remove any of these as you see fit.

Special Education

---

List is not inclusive but may include examples such as:

- Shorten assignments to focus on mastery of key concepts.
- Shorten spelling tests to focus on mastering the most functional words.
- Substitute alternatives for written assignments (clay models, posters, panoramas, collections, etc.)
- Specify and list exactly what the student will need to learn to pass.
- Evaluate the classroom structure against the student's needs (flexible structure, firm limits, etc.).
- Keep workspaces clear of unrelated materials.
- Keep the classroom quiet during intense learning times.
- Reduce visual distractions in the classroom (mobiles, etc.).
- Provide a computer for written work.
- Seat the student close to the teacher or a positive role model.
- Use a study carrel. (Provide extras so that the student is not singled out.)
- Provide an unobstructed view of the chalkboard, teacher, movie screen, etc.
- Keep extra supplies of classroom materials (pencils, books) on hand.
- Maintain adequate space between desks.
- Give directions in small steps and in as few words as possible.
- Number and sequence the steps in a task.
- Have student repeat the directions for a task.
- Provide visual aids.
- Go over directions orally.
- Provide a vocabulary list with definitions.
- Permit as much time as needed to finish tests.
- Allow tests to be taken in a room with few distractions (e.g., the library).
- Have test materials read to the student, and allow oral responses.
- Divide tests into small sections of similar questions or problems.
- Allow the student to complete an independent project as an alternative test.
- Give progress reports instead of grades.
- Grade spelling separately from content.
- Allow take-home or open-book tests.
- Show a model of the end product of directions (e.g., a completed math problem or finished quiz).

- Stand near the student when giving directions or presenting a lesson.
- Mark the correct answers rather than the incorrect ones.
- Permit a student to rework missed problems for a better grade.
- Average grades out when assignments are reworked, or grade on corrected work.
- Use a pass-fail or an alternative grading system when the student is assessed on his or her own growth.

*Add to or remove any of these as you see fit.

504

Examples of accommodations in 504 plans include but are not limited to:

- preferential seating
- extended time on tests and assignments
- reduced homework or classwork
- verbal, visual, or technology aids
- modified textbooks or audio-video materials
- behavior management support
- adjusted class schedules or grading
- verbal testing
- excused lateness, absence, or missed classwork
- pre-approved nurse's office visits and accompaniment to visits
- occupational or physical therapy

*Add to or remove any of these as you see fit.

At Risk

---

Examples may include:

- Use of mnemonics
- Have student restate information
- Provision of notes or outlines
- Concrete examples
- Use of a study carrel
- Assistance in maintaining uncluttered space
- Weekly home-school communication tools (notebook, daily log, phone calls or email messages)
- Peer or scribe note-taking
- Lab and math sheets with highlighted instructions
- Graph paper to assist in organizing or lining up math problems
- Use of manipulatives
- No penalty for spelling errors or sloppy handwriting
- Follow a routine/schedule
- Teach time management skills

- Verbal and visual cues regarding directions and staying on task
- Adjusted assignment timelines
- Visual daily schedule
- Immediate feedback
- Work-in-progress check
- Pace long-term projects
- Preview test procedures
- Film or video supplements in place of reading text
- Pass/no pass option
- Cue/model expected behavior
- Use de-escalating strategies
- Use peer supports and mentoring
- Have parent sign homework/behavior chart
- Chart progress and maintain data

*Add to or remove any of these as you see fit.

Gifted and Talented

---

Focus on effort and practice

Offer the Most Difficult First

Offer choice

Speak to Student Interests

Allow G/T students to work together
