

Unit 1: Bienvenue à la Francophonie!

Content Area: World Language
Course(s): French I
Time Period: September
Length: 4 weeks
Status: Published

Unit Overview:

Students will receive an introduction to the French speaking world including: countries in which French is spoken, how using learning about and using the French language can aid students in their future endeavors, and connections between the French language and English language using cognates, pronunciation, and spelling strategies. Students will learn how to spell their name, greet, introduce, and take leave of one another.

Essential Questions:

- Why should a person learn another language?
- What strategies can I use to communicate more effectively?
- How can I better understand what I hear and read when I have just begun learning a new language?
- Why don't you use the same words, expressions, etc. with everyone and/or in every situation?

Enduring Understandings:

- Language is a multi-faceted, multi-layered system of communication.
- Speaking, listening, reading and writing skills are developed by using the interpersonal, interpretative and presentational modes of communication.
- Bilingualism is a necessary component of communication in a global economy.
- It's necessary to use appropriate vocabulary, correct language structure, and patterns to communicate effectively in another language.

Standards/Indicators/Student Learning Objectives (SLOs):

- Identify cultural products of France and la Francophonie.
- Identify the continents on which French is spoken.
- Recognize and use French/English and/or French/Spanish/Italian cognates.
- Recognize and practice specific phoneme and morpheme pronunciations in French.
- Compare specific phonemes in French and English.
- Spell one's first and last name using the French phonemes for letters.
- Use appropriate greetings and leave taking from the target culture in a variety of scenarios.
- Skim and scan target language culturally authentic audio, video, or written text from electronic information sources and other sources to identify greetings, introductions, leave taking, and names.
