Unit Overview:

---

This unit explores how complex issues and phenomena affect people's lives in French speaking communities. Students will read, discuss, listen to and write about the themes of human rights, respect, and tolerance.

Essential Questions:

- How do aspects of everyday life influence and relate to the quality of life?
- How does where one live impact the quality of life?
- What influences one's interpretation and perceptions of the quality of life?
- In the modern era, how does one fight for human rights?
- What qualifies as tolerance in regard to others, and what are the limits of tolerance?

Enduring Understandings:

- The influence of social status affects the quality of life.
- French cultural perspectives and traditions vary and affect the quality of life.
- Education, health care, justice, food, and water impact the quality of life.
- Geography influences the quality of life by forcing people to adapt to their surroundings or changing their surroundings to suit their needs.

Standards/Indicators/Student Learning Objectives (SLOs):

- Recognize previously learned words and phrases and determine the meaning of unknown words related to the community in the home and target culture as found in highly contextualized, age and level-appropriate culturally authentic texts.
- Identify characteristics of the home and target culture communities as found in culturally authentic materials.
- Identify the main idea and other significant ideas associated with how people live in a community as found in age- and level- appropriate culturally authentic material from the target culture.
- Use digital tools and face-to-face communication to ask and answer questions regarding how people from linguistically and culturally diverse communities live, work, and socialize.
- Describe the target culture in writing.
