Unit #2- Un amigo o una amiga

Content Area: World Language

Course(s): Spanish 1
Time Period: October
Length: 4 weeks
Status: Published

Unit Overview:

Students will learn to ask, identify and respond about who, what, where from, and what someone is like. Students will also learn how to describe and identify famous Spanish and some later American heroes.

Essential Questions:

- What strategies can I use to communicate more effectively and appropriately?
- How can I better understand what I hear and read when I have just begun learning a new language?
- How do I know that I am getting better in using language in real-world situation?
- How do I start, carry on, and end a conversation more effectively?

Enduring Understandings:

- Language is a multi-faceted, multi-layered system of communication.
- Speaking, listening, reading and writing skills are developed by using the interpersonal, interpretative and presentational modes of communication.
- Learning a different language/culture leads to greater understanding of one's own and other languages/cultures and why people think and act in different ways.
- Speak with others about topics previously practiced helps to keep the conversation going.
- Bilingualism is a necessary component of communication in a global economy.
- It's necessary to use appropriate vocabulary, correct language structure, and patterns to communicate effectively in another language.

Standards/Indicators/Student Learning Objectives (SLOs):

- Participate in an online and face-to-face discussion with classmates to exchange information in a culturally appropriate way regarding community events and community service opportunities.
- Use physical response to identify which written and oral directions based on an authentic online map are accurate for going from one place to another in the target culture(s).
- Read brief written messages, listen to short conversations, or view information found about community events to determine which ones would be appropriate for them and others based on personal interests and cultural contexts
- Recombine previously studied material to create a multimedia-rich presentation about community
