Content Area: CTE
Course(s): Sports Management & Marketing
Time Period: December
Length: 40 days
Status: Published

Unit Overview:

Professional sport is not just games, it is business. It is where athletes receive payment for their performance. The overall logic of professional sport is grounded in the principles of buying and selling goods, services, and labor. This unit will introduce students to an understanding of the organization, structure, and marketing of professional sports. Students will apply tools and information acquired during this unit to problem-solving situations for which they must employ academic and critical thinking skills.

Essential Questions:

- Do ethics count in professional sports?
- How is financing obtained for professional sports?
- What is the "big" in big league sports?

Equity Considerations

Culturally Responsive Teaching recognizes and celebrates that our students come from a variety of backgrounds and experiences and traditions, including (dis)ability cultures. It is the intent to connect activities, assignments, readings, and projects to students' home cultures and experiences. The classroom is a community where knowledge is created within the context of students' cultural, traditional, and social experiences. The instruction shall enable students to identify and analyze applicable theories concerning inequalities in human nature and behavior, and further emphasize the responsibility of each human to have an awareness of equity considerations and take appropriate measures to practice them in our society.
