

Unit 4: Shopping

Content Area: World Language
Course(s): Spanish 2 & the Latino Culture
Time Period: December
Length: 15 days
Status: Published

Unit Overview

Learning to communicate in a foreign language is a necessary skill for intermediate learners and involves learning how to shop for food and clothing. Students will ask for sizes and quantities as well as ask for prices. Students will talk about shopping practices in Spanish speaking countries. Students will also be able to differentiate between the use of the preterite and the imperfect.

Essential Questions

- How do I develop communicative competence?
- How do I know that I am getting better in using language in real-world situations?
- What strategies do I need to communicate in linguistically and culturally appropriate ways?
- When does accuracy matter?
- How does the content of the world languages classroom help me understand who I am and the world in which I live?
- How does content help me respond to important questions that extend my learning beyond the classroom?
- Why do people from different cultures sometimes say, write and do things differently from the way I do them?
- How is language a product of culture?
- How are cultural perspectives (attitudes, values and beliefs) reflected in a culture's products and social practices?
- What role does stereotyping play in forming and sustaining prejudices about other cultures?

Enduring Understandings

- Successful communication is knowing how, when and why to convey a message to different audiences.
- Language learning involves acquiring strategies to fill communication gaps
- The content of the world languages classroom encompasses the entire learning experience
- Learning a different language/culture leads to greater understanding of one's own and other languages/cultures and why people think and act in different ways.
- Cultural perspectives are gained by using the language and through experience with its products and practices and members of one culture may make assumptions about other cultures based on their own attitudes, values and beliefs

Standards/Indicators/Student Learning Objectives (SLOs):

- Identify words/phrases, key points, and main idea(s) in target language age- and level-appropriate culturally authentic materials as found in electronic information sources and other texts.
- Ask and respond to questions about target culture by recombining words/phrases using digital tools and face-to-face communication in the target language.
- Ask and respond to questions using digital tools and face-to-face communication in the target language.
- Produce written texts and oral presentations
- Skim and scan target language culturally authentic audio, video, or written text from electronic information sources
- Ask and respond to memorized questions
- Imitate and incorporate appropriate intonation for asking different types of questions
- Read brief written messages, listen to short conversations, or view information found about community events to determine which ones would be appropriate for them and others based on personal interests and cultural contexts.
- Use physical response to identify which written and oral directions based on an authentic online map are accurate for going from one place to another in the target culture(s).
- Recombine previously studied material to create a multimedia-rich presentation about community events and community service opportunities.
