LGBTQ & Persons With Disabilities

LGBTQ

Virginia Woolf

The iconic feminist writer was married to Leonard Woolf while having an affair with fellow writer Vita Sackville-West, who was openly bisexual. When writing about her affair and marriage, Woolf said in her journal, "The truth is one has room for a good many relationships." Her novel, Orlando, is thought to be a love letter to her relationship with Sackville-West. Sackville-West's son described the novel as "the longest and most charming love letter in literature."
