Enduring Understandings

Learning a different language/culture leads to greater understanding of one's own language and culture.

Language learning involves acquiring strategies to fill communication gaps.

Cultural perspectives are gained by using the language and through experience with its products and practices.

There are similarities and differences among high school students around the world.

Daily routine can positively or negatively affect one's health.

Essential Questions

How can I become a more effective reader, writer, speaker and listener in languages other than English?

How does the language I'm studying help me to better understand my native language?

What can I already communicate in my new language?

How does the clothing people wear reflect the society in which the people live?

How is the clothing I wear different from the clothing an adolescent in another country wears?

How is my typical day similar/different to other adolescents?
