Enduring Understandings

Learning a different language/culture leads to greater understanding of one's own language and culture.

Language learning involves acquiring strategies to fill communication gaps.

Each culture has unique characteristics and values and can be seen through familial relationships.

One can learn about another culture and language and understand its beliefs and customs through art and theater.

Essential Questions

How can I become a more effective reader, writer, speaker and listener in languages other than English?

How does the language I'm studying help me to better understand my native language?

What can I already communicate in my new language?

How is the role of family members similar/different in my country and in the Spanish-speaking world?

How are leisure time activities similar and different in the cities of the target language in comparison with cities in my country? What leisure activities are universal?

How do leisure activities/cultural diversions reflect the beliefs and customs of a culture?
