Skills

Color and Value:

Understand the use of a color wheel in art.

Experiment with different primary colors to create secondary colors.

Combine primary and secondary colors to create tertiary colors.

Remember that a hue is the pure form of a color.

Create values by adding white to a hue makes a tint, adding black to a hue makes a shade, and adding gray to a hue makes a tone.

Utilize colors and values to create lines, shapes, and forms.

Discover that the arrangement of color and value can create balance of space.

Utilize color perspective which conjures depth by adjusting the saturation and hue of colors as space regresses.

Understand that different colors in a series of patterns can create texture.

Judge in other pieces of art the emphasis on the use of color and value.

Identify different kinds of color schemes including complimentary, monochromatic, and triads.

Work with a variety of materials and processes.

Comprehend that people have different views about art.
