Enduring Understandings

Food choices are essential in maintaining healthy lifestyles.

USDA's, My Food Plate, provides the recommended daily amount of nutrients that is needed to maintain a balanced diet.

USDA's, My Pyramid, provides healthy choices for each food group.

Breakfast is the most important meal of the day.

Nutritious foods can sometimes be unhealthy such as fried chicken, fried zucchini, or fruit based sugar snacks.

Essential Questions

What makes a meal healthy?

How does my breakfast impact my daily activities?

Can nutritious foods be unhealthy?

Which program should I follow, MyPlate, FoodPyramid, or both?
