Enduring Understandings

- Listening for familiar words and watching the speaker for clues may help me figure out what the speaker is saying.
- Even though I don't know all the words that are written, I can figure out the main idea by paying attention to titles, pictures, and familiar expressions.
- I can only talk about things that I have practiced saying.
- Using pictures, movement, and acting words out can help my classmates, my teacher, and others understand me.

Essential Questions

- How can I better understand when I do not know everything I read and hear?
- How can I talk to someone in another language when I am just starting to learn it?
- What will help my classmates, my teacher, and others understand me better?
