Unit 01: So you want to know how computers work

Content Area: Technology
Course(s): Computer Technologies
Time Period: September
Length: 12 Blocks
Status: Published

Enduring Understandings

1. Analog uses data that can have many possible values; digital uses data with fixed values.

2. Computers are based on binary code.

3. Computers can work on many types of data, they can do millions of operations per second, and they can store information in a permanent form so it can be accessed over and over