Unit 01: So you want to know how computers work

Content Area: Technology

Course(s): Computer Technologies

Time Period: September
Length: 12 Blocks
Status: Published

Enduring Understandings

- 1. Analog uses data that can have many possible values; digital uses data with fixed values.
- 2. Computers are based on binary code.
- 3. Computers can work on many types of data, they can do millions of operations per second, and they can store information in a permanent form so it can be accessed over and over