Unit 04: Working with multimedia and databases

Content Area: Technology
Course(s): Computer Technologies
Time Period: December
Length: 15 Blocks
Status: Published

Essential Questions

What makes information valuable?

How does assigning a data type for each new field help with data input?

How do database queries our work load?

What type of database can I make and how will it improve my work load?

What is the role of data structure in designing a database?

What special effects might you create for a multimedia presentation if you use a stylus and a digital camera?