Unit 7: Poetry is Fun

Content Area: Language Arts Literacy Course(s): Creative Writing 1 Time Period: December Length: 5 blocks Status: Published Enduring Understandings Social writing, especially of poetry, is a joyous experience. Descriptive detail is the strength of poetry as well as prose writing. Working with rigorous structural constraints pushes the writer to new poetic heights (or, more is more when it comes to poetry forms). Presenting your work to your classmates in a coffee house environment is rewarding and fun. Essential Questions How is writing poetry a uniquely joyous experience for the writer? Why is descriptive detail so important to writing enjoyable poetry? How does increasing the rigor of poetic structure result in more meaningful work? Content Student created poetry.

Skills

Employing descriptive, sensory detail leads to more rewarding, enjoyable poetry.

Stretching your vocabulary and diction is required to meet the demands of certain poetry forms.
