Enduring Understandings

Learning a different language/culture leads to greater understanding of one's own language and culture.

Language learning involves acquiring strategies to fill communication gaps.

Cultural perspectives are gained by using the language and through experience with its products and practices.

Family relationships, traditions and celebrations are affected by geography and vary throughout the regions of the world.

People around the world live differently depending on factors such as culture, geography and tradition.

Essential Questions

How can I become a more effective reader, writer, speaker and listener in languages other than English?

How does the language I'm studying help me to better understand my native language?

What can I already communicate in my new language?

How do cultural beliefs influence celebrations?

How do celebrations vary from culture to culture?
