Professio et Fabrica: Ancient Roman professions and trades

Enduring Understandings

---

Learning a different language/culture leads to greater understanding of one's own language and culture.

By understanding the structural patterns of a language, we discover the rules and principles of that language to respond to new or unanticipated situations and settings.

Classical and modern languages provide a connection to the ancient world and other eras throughout history, linking the past to the present.

Essential Questions

How are languages other than English used to communicate?

How does the language I am studying help me to become a more effective reader, writer, speaker, and listener in English?

Why do we need to connect various eras in world history?

How do cultural differences enrich one's worldview?

How can the study of ancient institutions/arts better our understanding of their modern counterparts?
