Enduring Understandings

Effective comprehension of Latin is dependent on students' skill in identifying definitions and metrical devices in order to readily interpret summations and literal translations of Latin words.

Mastery of reading and comprehension should stem from student's ability to appropriately identify and explain Latin phrases and grammar in order to interpret the writings in a historical and stylistic environment.

Expansion of understanding beyond the text is reached through contextualization of Roman politics, cultural ideals, and the backgrounds of the authors themselves

Essential Questions

Theme 1: Literary Genre and Style Essential Questions:

- What should we expect from a Latin epic or commentarii in terms of form and content? How do the authors confirm or challenge our expectations?
- What are the purposes and effects of Vergil's and Caesar's style?
- What points of view do Vergil and Caesar take when describing events? How do they represent themselves and for what purposes?
- What means do the authors use to develop characters in the works? How do the authors portray female characters?
- How do the authors use characterization to develop key themes?

Theme 2: Roman Values Essential Questions:

- What values and ideals are portrayed as characteristically Roman?
- How do these values and ideals differ based on gender, ethnicity, or other criteria?
- What strengths and weaknesses of character are exemplified by individuals in the works?
- How do the texts confirm characteristic Roman values? What questions do the texts raise about Roman values?

Theme 5: Views of Non-Romans Essential Questions:

- In what ways do the authors portray the various non-Roman peoples that appear in the works? What criteria do they use to evaluate these groups?
- To what extent do the authors reinforce or challenge stereotypes of these groups?
- How do the authors use these portrayals in their works?

Further Essential Questions:

- What do we learn about poetry when poets take scenes from everyday life (a storm) and elevate them to represent something else entirely (a wedding)?

- Why would Vergil make his hero seem timid or underhanded in his relations with Dido?
- How would the recent wars with Cleopatra change a Roman's perception of that same story?
- Who ultimately is responsible for Dido's death if the gods made her fall in love and then made Aeneas leave her?
- What does it mean to say that Dido's death was truly tragic?
- To what extent is pietas as a Roman character trait developed?

Applicable NJSLS-WL intercultural statements (interpretive mode of communication, intermediate high/mid):

- Through the target language, learners identify and investigate typical products related to everyday life in the target culture(s) and in the learners’ own culture. They use their insights to infer perspectives (attitudes, values, beliefs, the way a native speaker living in the target culture interprets meaning) of the target culture society.
- Learners recognize and identify a few typical practices of the target culture in order to gain understanding of the perspectives of the target culture(s) and their societies.

Presentational mode:

Although Latin is explored in primarily the interpretive mode, the poetic form of the Aeneid is especially susceptible to skill acquisition through the learning and presentation of dactylic hexameter. Information is conveyed through the poetic format. Accordingly, scansion of Dactylic hexameter and presentation of the text in metrically accurate format aligns with NJSLS-WL standard: • 7.1.IH.PRSNT.1: Present detailed information orally and in writing on information gathered from culturally authentic resources, using short paragraphs and often using major time frames.
