Parte 2: México – Describe classes and classroom objects, say where things are located, say where you are going, talk about how you feel.

Enduring Understandings

Language connects people.

Successful communication is knowing how, when and why to convey a message to different audiences.

Learning a different language/culture leads to greater understanding of one's own and other languages/cultures and why people think and act in different ways.

Language learning involves acquiring strategies to fill communication gaps.

Cultural perspectives are gained by using the language and through experience with its products and practices.

Geography influences our society and institutions.

Essential Questions

How will learning another language broaden my horizons and be useful in other aspects of life?

How can I become a more effective reader, writer, speaker and listener in languages other than English?

What strategies do I need to communicate in linguistically and culturally appropriate ways?

When does accuracy matter?

How do I know that I am getting better in using language in real-world situations?

How does the content of the language I'm studying help me to better understand my native language and who I am in the world in which I live?

What can I already communicate in my new language?

How is my school day different than the school day of a student who speaks the language I am studying?
