Language connects people.

Learning a different language/culture leads to greater understanding of one's own language and culture.

Language learning involves acquiring strategies to fill communication gaps.

Cultural perspectives are gained by using the language and through experience with its products and practices.

Family relationships, traditions and celebrations vary throughout the regions of the world.

Essential Questions

How can I describe my friends and family in the language that I'm studying?

Why are family celebrations and milestones important?

How does the language I'm studying help me to better understand my native language?

How does the family differ from one culture to another?

What can I already communicate in my new language?
