Enduring Understandings

Learning a different language/culture leads to greater understanding of one's own language and culture.

Language learning involves acquiring strategies to fill communication gaps.

Essential Questions

How can I become a more effective reader, writer, speaker and listener in languages other than English?

How does the language I'm studying help me to better understand my native language?

What can I already communicate in my new language?

Learning Objectives

Investigate the authentic website, “Zara” to identify and describe clothing from Spain.

Develop and ask interview questions to talk about preferences in clothing items using noun adjective agreement and gustar.

Compare and contrast clothing from Spain to the clothing from the United States orally and in writing.

Identify and describe clothing items and locations around town based on oral and written descriptions.

Listen to and comprehend the information in a Podcast describing a short conversation between a salesperson and a customer about purchasing a clothing item. Interpret and infer information given authentic Spanish clothing advertisements in the form of videos or in writing.

Read and interpret authentic digital clothing store advertisements in Spanish to infer the main ideas.

Develop commands using directional vocabulary to navigate around town. Students will either give or listen to a command orally or in writing and then respond through appropriate physical response.

Dramatize and act out a scene from the Reader's Theater to properly express intonation and idiomatic expressions in the target language.

Compose questions and interview classmates to talk about likes and dislikes of particular clothing items and stores.

Create and present a multimedia-rich presentation in the target language about clothing in a particular Spanish speaking country using Prezi, Edmodo, PowerPoint, iMovie, ToonPow, etc.

Develop and act out a skit between a salesperson and a customer in a market to ask and respond to questions and bargain in the target language.

Describe and identify vocabulary dealing with clothing in order to tell what you and others are wearing orally or in writing

Tell or retell the authentic Aesop's Unclassic Fables orally or in writing in Spanish through the use of podcasts or skits.

Navigate the internet to identify the currency used in some Spanish-speaking countries and calculate the exchange rates

Use number and foreign currency when making purchases

Convert American money into the currency of the target culture
