Enduring Understandings

Language connects people.

Learning a different language/culture leads to greater understanding of one's own language and culture.

Language learning involves acquiring strategies to fill communication gaps.

History and traditions determine how people celebrate holidays and special events.

Types of celebrations and traditions reveal cultural perspectives of a society.

Essential Questions

How can I become a more effective reader, writer, speaker and listener in languages other than English?

How does the language I'm studying help me to better understand my native language?

What can I already communicate in my new language?

Do celebrations reflect or shape culture? Why?

How do Latin American and North American celebrations differ? What do they have in common?

What can we learn about the people and their cultural perspectives by examining the holidays and festivities?
