Unit: Grammar--Parts of Speech (Week 1, 3 Weeks)

New Jersey Core Curriculum Standards

CommonCore: English Language Arts 6-12, CommonCore: Grade 7, Writing

Production and Distribution of Writing

4. Produce clear and coherent writing in which the development, organization, and style are appropriate to task, purpose, and audience.

- W.7.4. Produce clear and coherent writing in which the development, organization, and style are appropriate to task, purpose, and audience. (Grade-specific expectations for writing types are defined in standards 1–3 above.)

5. Develop and strengthen writing as needed by planning, revising, editing, rewriting, or trying a new approach.

- W.7.5. With some guidance and support from peers and adults, develop and strengthen writing as needed by planning, revising, editing, rewriting, or trying a new approach, focusing on how well purpose and audience have been addressed.

Research to Build and Present Knowledge

7. Conduct short as well as more sustained research projects based on focused questions, demonstrating understanding of the subject under investigation.

- W.7.7. Conduct short research projects to answer a question, drawing on several sources and generating additional related, focused questions for further research and investigation.

8. Gather relevant information from multiple print and digital sources, assess the credibility and accuracy of each source, and integrate the information while avoiding plagiarism.

- W.7.8. Gather relevant information from multiple print and digital sources, using search terms effectively; assess the credibility and accuracy of each source; and quote or paraphrase the data and conclusions of others while avoiding plagiarism and following a standard format for citation.

Range of Writing

10. Write routinely over extended time frames (time for research, reflection, and revision) and shorter time frames (a single sitting or a day or two) for a range of tasks, purposes, and audiences.

- W.7.10. Write routinely over extended time frames (time for research, reflection, and revision) and shorter time frames (a single sitting or a day or two) for a range of discipline-specific tasks, purposes, and audiences.

CommonCore: English Language Arts 6-12, CommonCore: Grade 7, Speaking & Listening

Comprehension and Collaboration

1. Prepare for and participate effectively in a range of conversations and collaborations with diverse partners, building on others' ideas and expressing their own clearly and persuasively.

- SL.7.1b. Follow rules for collegial discussions, track progress toward specific goals and deadlines, and define individual roles as needed.
- SL.7.1c. Pose questions that elicit elaboration and respond to others' questions and comments with relevant observations and ideas that bring the discussion back on topic as needed.
- SL.7.1d. Acknowledge new information expressed by others and, when warranted, modify their own views.

2. Integrate and evaluate information presented in diverse media and formats, including visually, quantitatively, and orally.

- SL.7.2. Analyze the main ideas and supporting details presented in diverse media and formats (e.g., visually, quantitatively, orally) and explain how the ideas clarify a topic, text, or issue under study.

Presentation of Knowledge and Ideas

4. Present information, findings, and supporting evidence such that listeners can follow the line of reasoning and the organization, development, and style are appropriate to task, purpose, and audience.

- SL.7.4. Present claims and findings, emphasizing salient points in a focused, coherent manner with pertinent descriptions, facts, details, and examples; use appropriate eye contact, adequate volume, and clear pronunciation.

5. Make strategic use of digital media and visual displays of data to express information and enhance understanding of presentations.

- SL.7.5. Include multimedia components and visual displays in presentations to clarify claims and findings and emphasize salient points.

6. Adapt speech to a variety of contexts and communicative tasks, demonstrating command of formal English when indicated or appropriate.

- SL.7.6. Adapt speech to a variety of contexts and tasks, demonstrating command of formal English when indicated or appropriate.

CommonCore: English Language Arts 6-12, CommonCore: Grade 7, Language

Conventions of Standard English

1. Demonstrate command of the conventions of standard English grammar and usage when writing or speaking.

- L.7.1. Demonstrate command of the conventions of standard English grammar and usage when writing or speaking.

Description of Unit	Essential Questions
Students will recognize parts of speech in a variety of contexts with an eye toward applying them to their writing. Students will also analyze various contexts to discover how a single word can act as varying parts of speech. This is a slightly abridged version of a corresponding unit in the grade 6 curriculum. Given the comprehensive investigation of this topic in grade 6, the grade 7 students may benefit from somewhat less time in this year's investigation of parts of speech in favor of more time on Writing Workshop projects later in the year. The unit does, however, remain thorough enough for students who are new to the school and do not have the benefit of the previous year's more intensive coverage. This grammar unit and three others like it serve as an essential basis early in the school year for the Writing Workshop and ongoing writing experiences. As the students learn the skills and vocabulary related to the mechanics of writing, their facility with more abstract nuances will benefit incalculably.	How are the eight parts of speech distinct from each other, and how do they interrelate? How does context determine the function of a word and thus its part of speech? Why does varying a word's context sometimes alter its function?
Knowledge	Skills
Students will know that: <ul style="list-style-type: none"> -all words fall into at least one category of the eight parts of speech. -words have different functions that vary with context, their interrelations with other words, and in different modes of speaking and writing. -sentences can be manipulated in order to make a single word function as different parts of speech. 	Students will be able to: <ul style="list-style-type: none"> -identify the eight parts of speech and classify words into them. -identify the varying parts of speech of single words as they appear in different contexts. -analyze a word in various contexts and explain how it changes its part of speech. -manipulate sentences in order to make a single word function as different parts of speech.
Assessments
Parts of Speech Pretest

Diagnostic: Written Test

This initial assessment reveals what understanding, if any, the student already has with regard to parts of speech and the functions of words in context.

Quiz: Nouns, Verbs, and AdjectivesFormative: Written Test

After instruction on the first three parts of speech, students demonstrate their ability to identify the functions of words in context.

Quiz: Adverbs and PronounsFormative: Written Test

After instruction on adverbs and pronouns, students demonstrate their ability to recognize and identify them in context.

Quiz: Prepositions, Conjunctions, and InterjectionsFormative: Written Test

After instruction on the topics of prepositions, conjunctions, and interjections, students demonstrate their ability to recognize and identify these words in context.

Unit TestSummative: Written Test

This test requires students to recall the list of all eight parts of speech (knowledge); to identify the part of speech of words underlined in sentences (comprehension/analysis); and to know that words that are spelled the same are often placed in different contexts, giving them different grammatical functions. For example, the word "throw" in "I will throw the ball," is a verb; but it is a noun in "That was a good throw" (analysis).

Group Presentation (if teacher chooses)Formative: Oral Report

The teacher may wish to assign students to groups, each of which would prepare a presentation for instruction and assessment on the topic of one of the eight parts of speech. The teacher, meanwhile, will provide parallel objective assessment in the form of quizzes in advance of an objective unit test.

This assessment could include three tiers: the student's assessment of his or her contribution to the group presentation; the class's assessment of each presentation; and the teacher's assessment of each presentation. Forms for all three of these appear as document links to this unit.

Extensions: Connection of ancient Greek inquiry to content areas as diverse as social studies, English language arts, mathematics, science, world languages, the arts, and even physical education.

Socrates--ethics, rhetoric
Plato--civics, logic, mathematics
Aristotle--writing, natural science, psychology

The word "philosophy" to the ancient Greeks encompassed all forms of learning, both concrete and abstract.

Unit: Grammar--Understanding Sentences (Week 4, 3 Weeks)

New Jersey Core Curriculum Standards

CommonCore: English Language Arts 6-12, CommonCore: Grade 7, Speaking & Listening

Comprehension and Collaboration

1. Prepare for and participate effectively in a range of conversations and collaborations with diverse partners, building on others' ideas and expressing their own clearly and persuasively.

- SL.7.1b. Follow rules for collegial discussions, track progress toward specific goals and deadlines, and define individual roles as needed.

Presentation of Knowledge and Ideas

4. Present information, findings, and supporting evidence such that listeners can follow the line of reasoning and the organization, development, and style are appropriate to task, purpose, and audience.

- SL.7.4. Present claims and findings, emphasizing salient points in a focused, coherent manner with pertinent descriptions, facts, details, and examples; use appropriate eye contact, adequate volume, and clear pronunciation.

5. Make strategic use of digital media and visual displays of data to express information and enhance understanding of presentations.

- SL.7.5. Include multimedia components and visual displays in presentations to clarify claims and findings and emphasize salient points.

6. Adapt speech to a variety of contexts and communicative tasks, demonstrating command of formal English when indicated or appropriate.

- SL.7.6. Adapt speech to a variety of contexts and tasks, demonstrating command of formal English when indicated or appropriate.

CommonCore: English Language Arts 6-12, CommonCore: Grade 7, Language

Conventions of Standard English

1. Demonstrate command of the conventions of standard English grammar and usage when writing or speaking.

- L.7.1. Demonstrate command of the conventions of standard English grammar and usage when writing or speaking.

- L.7.1a. Explain the function of phrases and clauses in general and their function in specific sentences.
- L.7.1b. Choose among simple, compound, complex, and compound-complex sentences to signal differing relationships among ideas.
- L.7.1c. Place phrases and clauses within a sentence, recognizing and correcting misplaced and dangling modifiers.*

Knowledge of Language

3. Apply knowledge of language to understand how language functions in different contexts, to make effective choices for meaning or style, and to comprehend more fully when reading or listening.

- L.7.3. Use knowledge of language and its conventions when writing, speaking, reading, or listening.

Description of Unit

Students will analyze sentences, distinguishing between declarative, interrogative, imperative, and exclamatory sentences. Additionally, they will distinguish between simple, compound, and complex sentences. They will also explain the differences between dependent and independent clauses, and they will apply this knowledge to their own writing habits.

Instruction and activities in this unit on sentences require high degrees of knowledge and of critical thought. Among the differences between this unit and the corresponding unit for regular classes:

- Gifted classes naturally engage in critical thought even beyond the already high standard of regular classes, and daily classroom activities will emphasize synthesis of concepts beyond mere application and analysis (e.g., Compose a complex sentence in which the subordinating conjunction is understood rather than written or spoken, as in—We didn't know [that] you were behind the tree.).
- Gifted classes include opportunities for students to engage in peer instruction, placing the teacher at times in the role of facilitator. This capitalizes on the strong intrinsic motivation of the gifted child.
- Assessments are more challenging, requiring keener analysis skills even to arrive at correct responses to objective items on quizzes and tests.

Essential Questions

How do the different modes of sentence differ from each other?

How do different sentence elements contribute to the meaning of a sentence?

How can sentences be configured to become distinct types of sentences?

How do different types of sentences in context affect one's writing?

For more information, please see the Activities section of this unit.

Knowledge	Skills
Students will know that: <ul style="list-style-type: none"> • sentences fall into the following modes: declarative, interrogative, imperative, and exclamatory. • sentences are composed of clauses, which themselves have subjects, verbs, and various other elements. • different configurations of elements yield different types of sentences. • coordinating and subordinating conjunctions can determine whether a clause is dependent or independent. • effective writing requires sentences of varying lengths and types. 	Students will be able to: <ul style="list-style-type: none"> • identify declarative, interrogative, imperative, and exclamatory sentences. • identify various elements in a sentence (subject, verb, etc.). • distinguish between simple, compound, complex, and compound-complex sentences. • manipulate clauses and conjunctions in order to change sentences from one type to another. • explain the necessity of the writing guideline that states a paragraph should have no more than two simple sentences.

Unit: Grammar--Punctuation (Week 7, 3 Weeks)

New Jersey Core Curriculum Standards

CommonCore: English Language Arts 6-12, CommonCore: Grade 7, Speaking & Listening

Comprehension and Collaboration

1. Prepare for and participate effectively in a range of conversations and collaborations with diverse partners, building on others' ideas and expressing their own clearly and persuasively.

- SL.7.1. Engage effectively in a range of collaborative discussions (one-on-one, in groups, and teacher-led) with diverse partners on grade 7 topics, texts, and issues, building on others' ideas and expressing their own clearly.
- SL.7.1b. Follow rules for collegial discussions, track progress toward specific goals and deadlines, and define individual roles as needed.

Presentation of Knowledge and Ideas

4. Present information, findings, and supporting evidence such that listeners can follow the line of reasoning and the organization, development, and style are appropriate to task, purpose, and audience.

- SL.7.4. Present claims and findings, emphasizing salient points in a focused, coherent manner with pertinent descriptions, facts, details, and examples; use appropriate eye contact, adequate volume, and clear pronunciation.

6. Adapt speech to a variety of contexts and communicative tasks, demonstrating command of formal English when indicated or appropriate.

- SL.7.6. Adapt speech to a variety of contexts and tasks, demonstrating command of formal English when indicated or appropriate.

CommonCore: English Language Arts 6-12, CommonCore: Grade 7, Language

2. Demonstrate command of the conventions of standard English capitalization, punctuation, and spelling when writing.

- L.7.2. Demonstrate command of the conventions of standard English capitalization, punctuation, and spelling when writing.
- L.7.2a. Use a comma to separate coordinate adjectives (e.g., It was a fascinating, enjoyable movie but not He wore an old [,] green shirt).

Description of Unit	Essential Questions
Students will demonstrate the proper use of the various forms of punctuation in a variety of contexts. This comprehensive unit on punctuation includes instruction and practice on the use of end punctuation (periods, question marks, and exclamation points) and intermediary punctuation (apostrophes, hyphens, dashes, parentheses, commas, semicolons, and colons). Quotation marks are addressed in lessons regarding dialogue in narrative writing; therefore, they are not included in this unit. Instruction and activities in this unit on sentences require high degrees of knowledge and of critical thought. Among the differences between this unit and the corresponding unit for regular classes: <ul style="list-style-type: none"> • Gifted classes naturally engage in critical thought even beyond the already high standard of regular classes, and daily classroom activities will emphasize synthesis of concepts beyond mere application and analysis (e.g., "Rephrase a sentence so that a semicolon series can be replaced by commas," or "Even though this sentences is grammatically sound and properly punctuated, how can we revise it to fit more smoothly into a writing passage?") • Gifted classes include opportunities for students to engage in peer instruction, placing the teacher at times in the role of facilitator. This capitalizes on the strong intrinsic motivation of the gifted child. • Assessments are more challenging, requiring keener analysis skills even to arrive at correct responses to objective items on quizzes and tests. For more information, please see the Activities section of this unit.	How is effective punctuation used? How does punctuation ensure clarity of meaning and correctness of format? How does the proper use of punctuation improve one's writing? How does punctuation set apart nonrestrictive or parenthetical elements?

Knowledge	Skills
Students will know that: <ul style="list-style-type: none"> -punctuation has specific functions for ensuring clarity in sentences. -punctuation is used to format many conventional constructions. -commas are necessary for separating some coordinate adjectives. -some coordinate adjectives do not require commas. -not all properly punctuated sentences are the best sentences to use in written passages. 	Students will be able to: <ul style="list-style-type: none"> -identify specific functions for various forms of punctuation: apostrophes, colons, commas, dashes, exclamation points, hyphens, periods, questions marks, and semicolons. -format conventional constructions such as clauses, sentences, and series using applicable punctuation. -use commas to separate coordinate adjectives where necessary. -distinguish between coordinate adjectives requiring commas and those that do not require them. -explain the importance, not only of proper punctuation, but of sentences composed optimally with respect to their written contexts.

2. Demonstrate command of the conventions of standard English capitalization, punctuation, and spelling when writing.

- L.7.2. Demonstrate command of the conventions of standard English capitalization, punctuation, and spelling when writing.

Description of Unit	Essential Questions
Students will practice capitalization skills in a variety of contexts with an eye toward applying these skills to their writing. Instruction and activities in this unit on sentences require high degrees of knowledge and of critical thought. Among the differences between this unit and the corresponding unit for regular classes: <ul style="list-style-type: none"> • Gifted classes naturally engage in critical thought even beyond the already high standard of regular classes, and daily classroom activities will emphasize synthesis of concepts beyond mere application and analysis (e.g., Contrive a situation in which we could coin a proper adverb, though adverbs are not conventionally proper.) • Gifted classes include opportunities for students to engage in peer instruction, placing the teacher at times in the role of facilitator. This capitalizes on the strong intrinsic motivation of the gifted child. • Assessments are more challenging, requiring keener analysis skills even to arrive at correct responses to objective items on quizzes and tests. For more information, please see the Activities section of this unit.	How do conventional rules apply to capitalization? Why does following standard conventions makes writing more authoritative?

Students will know: <ul style="list-style-type: none"> -the rules for capitalization as they apply to initial words, salutations and closings of letters, and miscellaneous categories of words. -the rules for capitalization as they apply to various categories of proper nouns and adjectives. -conventions for capitalization continue to evolve (e.g., iPad) 	Students will be able to: <ul style="list-style-type: none"> -capitalize initial words, salutations and closings of letters, and miscellaneous categories of words. -capitalize the various categories of proper nouns and adjectives. -recognize, discuss, and apply new conventions of capitalization. -debate the validity of some rules for capitalization.

-conventions for capitalization are arbitrary and inconsistent from one editorial authority to another (for example MLA guidelines vs. APA guidelines)

Assessments

Formative Quizzes

Formative: Written Test

Formative quizzes given periodically to assess students' understanding of concepts.

Unit Test

Summative: Written Test

End-of-unit test

Peer Presentations (if teacher chooses)

Other oral assessments

The teacher may wish to assign students to groups, each of which would prepare a presentation for instruction and assessment on a topic from this unit on sentences and sentence structure. The teacher, meanwhile, will provide parallel objective assessment in the form of quizzes in advance of an objective unit test.

This assessment could include three tiers: the student's assessment of his or her contribution to the group presentation; the class's assessment of each presentation; and the teacher's assessment of each presentation. Forms for all three of these appear as document links to this unit.

Activities

Possible classroom activities may include, but are not limited to, the following:

Distribution of handouts/study guides for capitalization; discussion and analysis of concepts and contexts

SmartBoard exercises identifying concepts and manipulating sentences and their contexts (may be used as daily warm-up activities)

Activities to Differentiate Instruction

Students may work collaboratively to prepare an instructional presentation on concepts related to the unit. This involves a variety of personal and peer influences. Peer instruction may include, but not be limited to, the following:

Visual: handouts, flash cards, practice quizzes and tests

Visual/Kinesthetic: Smart Board activities

Struggling learners: peer groupings, handouts, reviews

Activities from The Writer's Craft.

Activities for practice and analysis of skills and concepts

Composition of flash cards to supplement study guides

Peer presentations and instruction—in consultation with the teacher.

Challenge exercises for enrichment—possibly generated by students.

Advanced students: peer groupings; opportunities to lead SmartBoard activities; opportunities to suggest strategies and demonstrate techniques

- SL.7.6. Adapt speech to a variety of contexts and tasks, demonstrating command of formal English when indicated or appropriate.

Description of Unit	Essential Questions
Concurrent with Cycle 2 of the Gifted and Talented class's Writing Workshop, this project will focus on developing research and writing skills for an informational report. Teachers may choose (or offer the students the choice) to apply the research model to either an argumentative writing topic or an informative writing topic from Cycle 2. The writer will provide information or inform the reader of a specific topic. Students will implement steps of writing a research report which include: choosing a research question, consulting sources, discerning validity and pertinence of sources and information, developing a thesis, developing an outline, organizing information (via notecards or digital resources), drafting, revising, editing and proofreading, and publishing. This relatively modest project, requiring a minimum of four sources and a final product of at least three pages, prepares students for a larger-scale project in grade 8. Each student in grade 7 must prepare a visual, multimedia companion presentation. Students may compose in any of a variety of platforms (PowerPoint, Prezi, SmartBoard), and they must make a presentation to their entire class.	How can research inform a writer, a reader, and a written product? How can one determine whether research sources are reliable and useful? What elements can a writer include to make a piece more authoritative and better develop his/her writing voice? How does the writing process contribute to effective pieces of writing and develop a well-written product? How must one take special care to indicate which information and ideas come not from oneself but from outside sources?
Knowledge	Skills
The student will know that:	The student will be able to:

-writing an effective research paper requires the selection, organization, and analysis of relevant content.

-clear and coherent writing occurs when the development, organization, and style are appropriate to task, purpose, and audience.

-a sequence of components (introduction, body, and conclusion) along with relevant information and examples combine to ensure a clear product for readers.

-a formal style makes assertions and conclusions more authoritative.

-there are advantages and disadvantages of using different media to present a particular topic or idea.

-relevant information must come from multiple, credible print and digital sources.

-writers must follow a standard format for citation, attributing all information and concepts to their sources.

-write informative/explanatory texts to examine a topic and convey ideas, concepts, and information through the selection, organization, and analysis of relevant content.

-produce clear and coherent writing in which the development, organization, and style are appropriate to task, purpose, and audience.

-introduce a topic clearly, develop the topic with relevant information and examples, use appropriate and varied transitions, and provide a concluding statement or section that follows from and supports the information or explanation presented.

-establish and maintain a formal style.

-evaluate the advantages and disadvantages of using different media to present a particular topic or idea.

-gather relevant information from multiple print and digital sources and assess the credibility and accuracy of each source.

-quote or paraphrase the data and conclusions of others while avoiding plagiarism and following a standard format for citation.

Assessments

Research Question

Formative: Other written assessments

Students submit a research question and an explanation what they plan to investigate and explain. The teacher will either accept the research question as appropriate for the project or work with the student to modify the question in order to make it suitable.

Source List

Formative: Other written assessments

After consulting a variety of sources and considering their validity, accuracy, and credibility, students compose a list of sources they plan to use for their projects. This list, which follows MLA format and style, will enable the teacher to assess students' skills in consulting a variety of media, gathering information, and discerning its usefulness.

Thesis Statement

Formative: Other written assessments

After consulting a variety of sources and producing a source list, students digest the concepts and information they have found and arrive at a thesis statement in preparation for the composition of their research papers.

Research Paper Outline

Formative: Other written assessments

Students formulate the sequence and flow of their ideas in an outline as further preparation for the composition of the research paper.

Note Cards

Formative: Other written assessments

Students record the specific data, ideas, quotes, and insights that they have found in their sources. Each item taken from a source will have the name of the source and page numbers, if applicable.

Students compile these fragments either on individual 3"x5" note cards or in digital format using a resource such as Evernote.

First Draft

Formative: Written Report

Students compose first full-scale drafts of their research papers following MLA format guidelines, complete with parenthetical citations and a list of works cited.

Final Draft

Summative: Written Report

After receiving their first drafts back from the teacher, students continue to revise and refine their work in consultation with their peers and the teacher.

Multimedia Presentation

Summative: Other visual assessments

Each student must prepare a visual, multimedia companion presentation. Students may compose in any of a variety of platforms (PowerPoint, Prezi, SmartBoard), and they must make a presentation to their entire class.

- W.7.10. Write routinely over extended time frames (time for research, reflection, and revision) and shorter time frames (a single sitting or a day or two) for a range of discipline-specific tasks, purposes, and audiences.

Description of Unit

Students will engage in daily writing in a variety of modes— narrative, expository, argumentative/persuasive, confessional, and creative.

NOTE: Open-ended questions pertaining to literature require responses that incorporate many of the principles and skills that students learn in Writing Workshop. Indeed, students apply the Writing Workshop model throughout the school year as they write responses to literature-related questions. Instruction and activities related to writing about literature, however, are not included in this unit, but appear prominently in units related to literature.

Essential Questions

- How do higher-order thinking skills improve and enhance one’s writing?
- How can one incorporate non-literal elements into one’s writing?
- How do conventions and techniques vary between modes of writing?
- Why do neatness, organization, skills, tone, and voice all make an impression on a reader?
- How can one make a personal investment in what one writes and make it truly meaningful to oneself?

Knowledge

Key Words: prewriting, composition, proofreading, critiquing, peer-review, revising, editing, self-assessment, persuasive writing, personal essay, informative writing, narrative writing, creative writing, writing for enjoyment

ELECTIVE PROJECTS

- Students will know:
- that writing can be more than merely a classroom task.
 - that written passages can reflect and enhance the interests and aspirations of the writer.
 - that the conventions of writing need not confine a writer; that these conventions can assist and enrich the process.

- engage in and benefit from peer review when they have the opportunity.

Assessments

Elective Projects, Cycles 1, 2, and 3

Formative: Personal Project

For each of the three Writing Workshop cycles, the elective project is the first category of writing addressed. Students receive a wide array of ideas from the teacher and from each other. In consultation with their peers and the teacher, each student formulates an idea, proposes a project, and works at his/her pace.

Often, these projects take the form of something that cannot be completed within a two-week time frame. The assessment in such a case would be formative. Depending on the type of project, students may choose to continue working on the same projects in Cycles 2 and 3.

Argumentative/Persuasive Essay, Cycles 1, 2, 3

Summative: Extended Essay

For each of the three Writing Workshop cycles, argumentative and persuasive essays are the second category of writing included.

During each cycle, three pieces are assigned, and students receive an overall score for conscientious completion of the three (see Conscientious Completion Rubric).

One piece of the three is then chosen at random, and students receive a score during their summative conferences with the teacher.

ALL SUBMITTED WORK WILL GO INTO INDIVIDUAL STUDENT PORTFOLIOS.

Personal Essay, Cycles 1, 2, 3

Extended Essay

For each of the three Writing Workshop cycles, personal essays are the third category of writing included.

During each cycle, three personal essays are assigned, and students receive an overall score for conscientious completion of the three (see Conscientious Completion Rubric).

One piece of the three is then chosen at random, and students receive a score during their summative conferences with the teacher.

ALL SUBMITTED WORK WILL GO INTO INDIVIDUAL STUDENT PORTFOLIOS.

Informative Essay, Cycles 1, 2, 3

Summative: Extended Essay

For each of the three Writing Workshop cycles, informative essays are the fourth category of writing addressed.

During each cycle, three informative pieces are assigned, and students receive an overall score for conscientious completion of the three (see Conscientious Completion Rubric).

One piece of the three is then chosen at random, and students receive a score during their summative conferences with the teacher.

ALL SUBMITTED WORK WILL GO INTO INDIVIDUAL STUDENT PORTFOLIOS.

Narrative Writing, Cycles 1, 2, 3

Narrative Writing Assignment

For each of the three Writing Workshop cycles, narrative pieces are the final category of writing addressed.

During each cycle, three narrative pieces are assigned, and students receive an overall score for conscientious completion of the three (see Conscientious Completion Rubric).

One piece of the three is then chosen at random, and students receive a score during their summative conferences with the teacher.

ALL SUBMITTED WORK WILL GO INTO INDIVIDUAL STUDENT PORTFOLIOS.

Activities	Activities to Differentiate Instruction
During the Writing Workshop Orientation: Students will receive, read, and discuss the Style Guidelines. The teacher will explain the general scheme of the year’s three Writing Workshop Cycles and how each writing category is covered in each Cycle. The teacher will explain the daily class scheme: 1) Technical notes/student questions; 2) Writing and conferences; 3) Class discussion of emerging concerns and challenges. At the Beginning of Each Category in Cycle 1: Students will review and discuss the Style Guidelines.	Instruction for each category of writing is provided verbally and is distributed on paper in the forms of samples, guides, and rubrics. Students have a variety of options regarding the form of their submissions: they may write out their assignments by hand, they may type their assignments and print them out, or they may submit their work electronically. This accommodates varying tastes and persuasions, and it enables students with poor handwriting to submit a more legible product. Instruction comes from various sources (direct instruction by teacher, classroom discussion among students in both small and large groups), and subsequent activities occur in various modes (direct practice, peer reviews, formative conferences with the teacher), providing for thorough overlap and a variety of instructional strategies.

Students will receive guides and samples for the current category of writing. After a class discussion of these materials, students will assemble into their Literature Circle groups in order to discuss the writing assignments for the category. They will list and discuss among themselves questions, concerns, and salient challenges. Each group will have an opportunity to present these items to the class at large. The teacher will facilitate both small- and large-group discussions.

Students receive a deadline for the writing assignment(s) related to the current category.

At the Beginning of Each Category in Cycles 2 and 3:

Students will review and discuss the Style Guidelines.

Students will review their guides and samples for the current category of writing. They will also review their work from the previous cycles. After a class discussion of these materials, students will assemble into their Literature Circle groups in order to discuss the writing assignments for the category. They will list and discuss among themselves questions, concerns, and salient challenges. Students will also determine individually what priorities they have for improvement over their work in the last cycle. Each group will have an opportunity to present these items to the class at large. The teacher will facilitate both small- and large-group discussions.

Students receive a deadline for the writing assignment(s) related to the current category.

Additional Concepts and Instruction:

Advanced writing topics and prompts

Advanced instruction and examples illustrating the concept of voice in various modes of writing

Advanced instruction and examples illustrating the concepts of mood and tone, targeting both to the topic and the audience

Instruction and activities take place in three cycles, providing continuous review and practice throughout the year.

Peer reviews and conferences pair students of varying ability to accommodate styles and facilitate learning.

Individual conferences with the teacher provide enhanced time to attend to individual students' needs.

Advanced instruction and examples illustrating the fusion of different writing modes, as in narrative and personal

Advanced peer investigation into the literature and reading that influences each student's writing

Advanced investigation of style standards (including concepts from Strunk and White's The Elements of Style) for further refinement of writing conventions

Daily Activities:

Technical notes: direct instruction and review of topics requested by students or deemed necessary by the teacher.

Writing and conferences: students engage in the writing process; students may request permission to have formative conferences with each other or with the teacher.

Conclusion: students explain difficulties or successes they are having.

Unit: Speaking and Presentation (Week 36, 3 Weeks)

New Jersey Core Curriculum Standards

CommonCore: English Language Arts 6-12, CommonCore: Grade 7, Speaking & Listening

2. Integrate and evaluate information presented in diverse media and formats, including visually, quantitatively, and orally.

- SL.7.2. Analyze the main ideas and supporting details presented in diverse media and formats (e.g., visually, quantitatively, orally) and explain how the ideas clarify a topic, text, or issue under study.

3. Evaluate a speaker's point of view, reasoning, and use of evidence and rhetoric.

- SL.7.3. Delineate a speaker's argument and specific claims, evaluating the soundness of the reasoning and the relevance and sufficiency of the evidence.

Presentation of Knowledge and Ideas

4. Present information, findings, and supporting evidence such that listeners can follow the line of reasoning and the organization, development, and style are appropriate to task, purpose, and audience.

- SL.7.4. Present claims and findings, emphasizing salient points in a focused, coherent manner with pertinent descriptions, facts, details, and examples; use appropriate eye contact, adequate volume, and clear pronunciation.

5. Make strategic use of digital media and visual displays of data to express information and enhance understanding of presentations.

- SL.7.5. Include multimedia components and visual displays in presentations to clarify claims and findings and emphasize salient points.

6. Adapt speech to a variety of contexts and communicative tasks, demonstrating command of formal English when indicated or appropriate.

- SL.7.6. Adapt speech to a variety of contexts and tasks, demonstrating command of formal English when indicated or appropriate.

Description of Unit

Essential Questions

Students will collaboratively prepare and present PowerPoint presentations on informative topics of their choice. Each presentation will include multimedia components and information gleaned from some degree of research. They will narrate their presentations in real time, incorporating what they learn about posture, volume, diction, and presence.

Grade 7 presentations will take up persuasive topics, and each group will argue for or against a particular policy, advocacy position, or point of view.

This unit is similar to that of the traditional grade 7 classes, but it has the added emphasis of more detailed attribution of researched information back to its sources. The final frame of the digital component of the presentation (often PowerPoint or Prezi) will display a list of sources formatted to MLA guidelines. Moreover, all sources must be authoritative, valid, and credible against criteria that will be discussed in class. This academic enhancement challenges gifted and talented students and further reinforces the research and discernment skills that will become increasingly important in their studies.

One additional component to the presentation will involve a short question-and-answer session between presenters and their audience. This will expose presenters not only to the rigors of additional justification of their points--as will be required in the workplace--but it will also require them to be as knowledgeable as possible on their topic.

How does public speaking enhance one's work as a student and a professional?
 Why do facts, organization, intonation, and body language have an impact on how well a message is received?
 How can technology and media assist one in spoken presentations?
 How can preparation and practice help with clarity?
 How can one overcome nervousness when speaking in public?
 Why are credible, authoritative sources necessary to inform a meaningful presentation?

Knowledge	Skills
Students will know that: <ul style="list-style-type: none"> -collaborative public speaking is integral to the 21st-century professional workplace. -the sequencing of arguments, claims, and facts in spoken presentation must be logical and coherent. -intonation and body language have an impact on how well a message comes across. 	Students will be able to: <ul style="list-style-type: none"> -collaborate with others to prepare and present speeches on a variety of topics in front of classmates. -sequence arguments, claims, and facts in a logical and coherent manner. -use proper intonation and body language.

Unit: Comparing Fiction and Nonfiction (Week 1, 5 Weeks)

New Jersey Core Curriculum Standards

CommonCore: English Language Arts 6-12, CommonCore: Grade 7, Reading: Literature

Key Ideas and Details

1. Read closely to determine what the text says explicitly and to make logical inferences from it; cite specific textual evidence when writing or speaking to support conclusions drawn from the text.

- RL.7.1. Cite several pieces of textual evidence to support analysis of what the text says explicitly as well as inferences drawn from the text.

2. Determine central ideas or themes of a text and analyze their development; summarize the key supporting details and ideas.

- RL.7.2. Determine a theme or central idea of a text and analyze its development over the course of the text; provide an objective summary of the text.

3. Analyze how and why individuals, events, and ideas develop and interact over the course of a text.

- RL.7.3. Analyze how particular elements of a story or drama interact (e.g., how setting shapes the characters or plot).

Craft and Structure

4. Interpret words and phrases as they are used in a text, including determining technical, connotative, and figurative meanings, and analyze how specific word choices shape meaning or tone.

- RL.7.4. Determine the meaning of words and phrases as they are used in a text, including figurative and connotative meanings; analyze the impact of rhymes and other repetitions of sounds (e.g., alliteration) on a specific verse or stanza of a poem or section of a story or drama.

5. Analyze the structure of texts, including how specific sentences, paragraphs, and larger portions of the text (e.g., a section, chapter, scene, or stanza) relate to each other and the whole.

- RL.7.5. Analyze how a drama's or poem's form or structure (e.g., soliloquy, sonnet) contributes to its meaning.

6. Assess how point of view or purpose shapes the content and style of a text.

- RL.7.6. Analyze how an author develops and contrasts the points of view of different characters or narrators in a text.

9. Analyze how two or more texts address similar themes or topics in order to build knowledge or to compare the approaches the authors take.

- RL.7.9. Compare and contrast a fictional portrayal of a time, place, or character and a historical account of the same period as a means of understanding how authors of fiction use or alter history.

Range of Reading and Level of Text Complexity

10. Read and comprehend complex literary and informational texts independently and proficiently.

- RL.7.10. By the end of the year, read and comprehend literature, including stories, dramas, and poems, in the grades 6–8 text complexity band proficiently, with scaffolding as needed at the high end of the range.

CommonCore: English Language Arts 6-12, CommonCore: Grade 7, Reading: Informational Text

Key Ideas and Details

1. Read closely to determine what the text says explicitly and to make logical inferences from it; cite specific textual evidence when writing or speaking to support conclusions drawn from the text.

- RI.7.1. Cite several pieces of textual evidence to support analysis of what the text says explicitly as well as inferences drawn from the text.

2. Determine central ideas or themes of a text and analyze their development; summarize the key supporting details and ideas.

- RI.7.2. Determine two or more central ideas in a text and analyze their development over the course of the text; provide an objective summary of the text.

3. Analyze how and why individuals, events, and ideas develop and interact over the course of a text.

- RI.7.3. Analyze the interactions between individuals, events, and ideas in a text (e.g., how ideas influence individuals or events, or how individuals influence ideas or events).

Craft and Structure

4. Interpret words and phrases as they are used in a text, including determining technical, connotative, and figurative meanings, and analyze how specific word choices shape meaning or tone.

- RI.7.4. Determine the meaning of words and phrases as they are used in a text, including figurative, connotative, and technical meanings; analyze the impact of a specific word choice on meaning and tone.

5. Analyze the structure of texts, including how specific sentences, paragraphs, and larger portions of the text (e.g., a section, chapter, scene, or stanza) relate to each other and the whole.

- RI.7.5. Analyze the structure an author uses to organize a text, including how the major sections contribute to the whole and to the development of the ideas.

6. Assess how point of view or purpose shapes the content and style of a text.

- RI.7.6. Determine an author's point of view or purpose in a text and analyze how the author distinguishes his or her position from that of others.

8. Delineate and evaluate the argument and specific claims in a text, including the validity of the reasoning as well as the relevance and sufficiency of the evidence.

- RI.7.8. Trace and evaluate the argument and specific claims in a text, assessing whether the reasoning is sound and the evidence is relevant and sufficient to support the claims.

9. Analyze how two or more texts address similar themes or topics in order to build knowledge or to compare the approaches the authors take.

- RI.7.9. Analyze how two or more authors writing about the same topic shape their presentations of key information by emphasizing different evidence or advancing different interpretations of facts.

Range of Reading and Level of Text Complexity

10. Read and comprehend complex literary and informational texts independently and proficiently.

- RI.7.10. By the end of the year, read and comprehend literary nonfiction in the grades 6–8 text complexity band proficiently, with scaffolding as needed at the high end of the range.

CommonCore: English Language Arts 6-12, CommonCore: Grade 7, Writing

2. Write informative/explanatory texts to examine and convey complex ideas and information clearly and accurately through the effective selection, organization, and analysis of content.

- W.7.2. Write informative/explanatory texts to examine a topic and convey ideas, concepts, and information through the selection, organization, and analysis of relevant content.
- W.7.2a. Introduce a topic clearly, previewing what is to follow; organize ideas, concepts, and information, using strategies such as definition, classification, comparison/contrast, and cause/effect; include formatting (e.g., headings), graphics (e.g., charts, tables), and multimedia when useful to aiding comprehension.
- W.7.2b. Develop the topic with relevant facts, definitions, concrete details, quotations, or other information and examples.
- W.7.2c. Use appropriate transitions to create cohesion and clarify the relationships among ideas and concepts.
- W.7.2d. Use precise language and domain-specific vocabulary to inform about or explain the topic.
- W.7.2e. Establish and maintain a formal style.
- W.7.2f. Provide a concluding statement or section that follows from and supports the information or explanation presented.

Production and Distribution of Writing

4. Produce clear and coherent writing in which the development, organization, and style are appropriate to task, purpose, and audience.

- W.7.4. Produce clear and coherent writing in which the development, organization, and style are appropriate to task, purpose, and audience. (Grade-specific expectations for writing types are defined in standards 1–3 above.)

5. Develop and strengthen writing as needed by planning, revising, editing, rewriting, or trying a new approach.

- W.7.5. With some guidance and support from peers and adults, develop and strengthen writing as needed by planning, revising, editing, rewriting, or trying a new approach, focusing on how well purpose and audience have been addressed.

6. Use technology, including the Internet, to produce and publish writing and to interact and collaborate with others.

- W.7.6. Use technology, including the Internet, to produce and publish writing and link to and cite sources as well as to interact and collaborate with others, including linking to and citing sources.

8. Gather relevant information from multiple print and digital sources, assess the credibility and accuracy of each source, and integrate the information while avoiding plagiarism.

- W.7.8. Gather relevant information from multiple print and digital sources, using search terms effectively; assess the credibility and accuracy of each source; and quote or paraphrase the data and conclusions of others while avoiding plagiarism and following a standard format for citation.

9. Draw evidence from literary or informational texts to support analysis, reflection, and research.

- W.7.9. Draw evidence from literary or informational texts to support analysis, reflection, and research.
- W.7.9a. Apply grade 7 Reading standards to literature (e.g., "Compare and contrast a fictional portrayal of a time, place, or character and a historical account of the same period as a means of understanding how authors of fiction use or alter history").
- W.7.9b. Apply grade 7 Reading standards to literary nonfiction (e.g. "Trace and evaluate the argument and specific claims in a text, assessing whether the reasoning is sound and the evidence is relevant and sufficient to support the claims").

Range of Writing

10. Write routinely over extended time frames (time for research, reflection, and revision) and shorter time frames (a single sitting or a day or two) for a range of tasks, purposes, and audiences.

- W.7.10. Write routinely over extended time frames (time for research, reflection, and revision) and shorter time frames (a single sitting or a day or two) for a range of discipline-specific tasks, purposes, and audiences.

CommonCore: English Language Arts 6-12, CommonCore: Grade 7, Speaking & Listening

Comprehension and Collaboration

1. Prepare for and participate effectively in a range of conversations and collaborations with diverse partners, building on others' ideas and expressing their own clearly and persuasively.

- SL.7.1. Engage effectively in a range of collaborative discussions (one-on-one, in groups, and teacher-led) with diverse partners on grade 7 topics, texts, and issues, building on others' ideas and expressing their own clearly.

CommonCore: English Language Arts 6-12, CommonCore: Grade 7, Language

Conventions of Standard English

1. Demonstrate command of the conventions of standard English grammar and usage when writing or speaking.

- L.7.1. Demonstrate command of the conventions of standard English grammar and usage when writing or speaking.
2. Demonstrate command of the conventions of standard English capitalization, punctuation, and spelling when writing.
- L.7.2. Demonstrate command of the conventions of standard English capitalization, punctuation, and spelling when writing.

Knowledge of Language

3. Apply knowledge of language to understand how language functions in different contexts, to make effective choices for meaning or style, and to comprehend more fully when reading or listening.

- L.7.3. Use knowledge of language and its conventions when writing, speaking, reading, or listening.

Vocabulary Acquisition and Use

4. Determine or clarify the meaning of unknown and multiple-meaning words and phrases by using context clues, analyzing meaningful word parts, and consulting general and specialized reference materials, as appropriate.

- L.7.4. Determine or clarify the meaning of unknown and multiple-meaning words and phrases based on grade 7 reading and content, choosing flexibly from a range of strategies.

6. Acquire and use accurately a range of general academic and domain-specific words and phrases sufficient for reading, writing, speaking, and listening at the college and career readiness level; demonstrate independence in gathering vocabulary knowledge when considering a word or phrase important to comprehension or expression.

- L.7.6. Acquire and use accurately grade-appropriate general academic and domain-specific words and phrases; gather vocabulary knowledge when considering a word or phrase important to comprehension or expression.

Description of Unit	Essential Questions
This unit serves as an introduction to both fiction and nonfiction passages. Students will be introduced to the varying elements and structures of both types of stories, as well as to active reading strategies that will aid in comprehension. Students will identify various genres of fiction and nonfiction, comparing and contrasting the characteristics from one category to others. Their commentary will take the form of large-group discussions, Literature Circles, and essay-length responses to open-ended questions.	<ol style="list-style-type: none"> 1. How do literary devices enhance the meaning of a story? 2. What are the basic genres of both fiction and nonfiction, and how are they distinct from each other? 3. What applicability does literature have to real life? 4. How is reading for information different from reading a narrative?
Knowledge	Skills

Students will know:

- literary terms for discussing fiction.
- literary terms for discussing nonfiction.
- the basic genres of literature (short fiction, novellas, novels, personal essays, biography, historical narrative, etc.) and their distinguishing characteristics.
- that active reading strategies aid in comprehension.
- the definitions of vocabulary and academic words in literature.
- that video and graphic organizers add to experiencing literature.
- note-taking and question-answering strategies that aid comprehension.

Students will be able to:

- identify characters, plot, setting, point of view and theme in literature.
- identify point of view and historical context in nonfiction.
- explain elements and features that are common to various genres as well as those that are distinct to single genres.
- utilize the active reading strategy of author's purpose in literature.
- use context clues to decode meaning of vocabulary words in literature.
- use video and graphic organizers as a part of a literature study.
- take notes and answer comprehension questions when reading.

Assessments

Big Question Discussion

Diagnostic: Other oral assessments

Students will be introduced to the Big Question and engage in a discussion to assess ideas they already have.

Critical Thinking Questions

Formative: Instructional/Assessment Focus

Students will answer comprehension questions about each story. While questions assess knowledge of the text, they are also centered around a reading skill such as making predictions or fact and opinion.

Vocabulary Warm Ups

Diagnostic: Instructional/Assessment Focus

Students will complete vocabulary warm-ups to determine prior knowledge of both academic and story-specific vocabulary.

Selection Tests

Summative: Written Test

Students are tested on their comprehension of passages read and discussed in class. Open-ended questions are included, as well as vocabulary.

Essay Response to Open Ended Questions

Formative: Extended Essay

Students respond to open-ended questions with thoughtful, thorough, elaborate essays that demonstrate basic comprehension, critical thinking, advanced writing skills, and adherence to formal writing guidelines.

Unit Project

Summative: Personal Project

Students will complete a project that embodies all of the skills learned over the course of the unit. Students will present their projects to the class.

Literature Circle

Formative: Other oral assessments

At the end of this unit, students work in their Literature Circles in order to discuss questions, insights, and literary elements related to the passages they have read. Students use their Reading Exploration Sheets to keep track of what they wish to contribute, but they must take care that their discussion is not a mere recitation of what is on their sheets. The discussion must be dynamic and energetic.

Particularly important in this unit is a focus on the distinguishing characteristics of multiple genres. Students will compare and contrast the works they have read for this unit, classifying them into various genres and types.

Additionally, students will consult the contents of their anthology and the book-length selection list. They will speculate on the genres of all titles, while making predictions about the nature of passages they expect to read.

At times, students consult each other regarding strategies for writing essays connected with the reading. This is acceptable so long as the discussion does not become little more than a Writing Workshop conference.

Some teachers may desire more structure for Literature Circles in their classes. If so, they can assign the following roles to each student: master of ceremonies, literary term wizard, vocabulary czar, summarizer, and passage picker.

Unit: Nonfiction Text Structure (Week 6, 33 Weeks)

New Jersey Core Curriculum Standards

CommonCore: English Language Arts 6-12, CommonCore: Grade 7, Reading: Informational Text

Key Ideas and Details

1. Read closely to determine what the text says explicitly and to make logical inferences from it; cite specific textual evidence when writing or speaking to support conclusions drawn from the text.

- RI.7.1. Cite several pieces of textual evidence to support analysis of what the text says explicitly as well as inferences drawn from the text.

2. Determine central ideas or themes of a text and analyze their development; summarize the key supporting details and ideas.

- RI.7.2. Determine two or more central ideas in a text and analyze their development over the course of the text; provide an objective summary of the text.

3. Analyze how and why individuals, events, and ideas develop and interact over the course of a text.

- RI.7.3. Analyze the interactions between individuals, events, and ideas in a text (e.g., how ideas influence individuals or events, or how individuals influence ideas or events).

Craft and Structure

4. Interpret words and phrases as they are used in a text, including determining technical, connotative, and figurative meanings, and analyze how specific word choices shape meaning or tone.

- RI.7.4. Determine the meaning of words and phrases as they are used in a text, including figurative, connotative, and technical meanings; analyze the impact of a specific word choice on meaning and tone.

5. Analyze the structure of texts, including how specific sentences, paragraphs, and larger portions of the text (e.g., a section, chapter, scene, or stanza) relate to each other and the whole.

- RI.7.5. Analyze the structure an author uses to organize a text, including how the major sections contribute to the whole and to the development of the ideas.

6. Assess how point of view or purpose shapes the content and style of a text.

- RI.7.6. Determine an author's point of view or purpose in a text and analyze how the author distinguishes his or her position from that of others.

Integration of Knowledge and Ideas

7. Integrate and evaluate content presented in diverse formats and media, including visually and quantitatively, as well as in words.

- RI.7.7. Compare and contrast a text to an audio, video, or multimedia version of the text, analyzing each medium's portrayal of the subject (e.g., how the delivery of a speech affects the impact of the words).

8. Delineate and evaluate the argument and specific claims in a text, including the validity of the reasoning as well as the relevance and sufficiency of the evidence.

- RI.7.8. Trace and evaluate the argument and specific claims in a text, assessing whether the reasoning is sound and the evidence is relevant and sufficient to support the claims.

9. Analyze how two or more texts address similar themes or topics in order to build knowledge or to compare the approaches the authors take.

- RI.7.9. Analyze how two or more authors writing about the same topic shape their presentations of key information by emphasizing different evidence or advancing different interpretations of facts.

Range of Reading and Level of Text Complexity

10. Read and comprehend complex literary and informational texts independently and proficiently.

- RI.7.10. By the end of the year, read and comprehend literary nonfiction in the grades 6–8 text complexity band proficiently, with scaffolding as needed at the high end of the range.

CommonCore: English Language Arts 6-12, CommonCore: Grade 7, Writing

2. Write informative/explanatory texts to examine and convey complex ideas and information clearly and accurately through the effective selection, organization, and analysis of content.

- W.7.2. Write informative/explanatory texts to examine a topic and convey ideas, concepts, and information through the selection, organization, and analysis of relevant content.
- W.7.2a. Introduce a topic clearly, previewing what is to follow; organize ideas, concepts, and information, using strategies such as definition, classification, comparison/contrast, and cause/effect; include formatting (e.g., headings), graphics (e.g., charts, tables), and multimedia when useful to aiding comprehension.
- W.7.2b. Develop the topic with relevant facts, definitions, concrete details, quotations, or other information and examples.
- W.7.2c. Use appropriate transitions to create cohesion and clarify the relationships among ideas and concepts.
- W.7.2d. Use precise language and domain-specific vocabulary to inform about or explain the topic.
- W.7.2e. Establish and maintain a formal style.

Production and Distribution of Writing

4. Produce clear and coherent writing in which the development, organization, and style are appropriate to task, purpose, and audience.

- W.7.4. Produce clear and coherent writing in which the development, organization, and style are appropriate to task, purpose, and audience. (Grade-specific expectations for writing types are defined in standards 1–3 above.)

5. Develop and strengthen writing as needed by planning, revising, editing, rewriting, or trying a new approach.

- W.7.5. With some guidance and support from peers and adults, develop and strengthen writing as needed by planning, revising, editing, rewriting, or trying a new approach, focusing on how well purpose and audience have been addressed.

6. Use technology, including the Internet, to produce and publish writing and to interact and collaborate with others.

- W.7.6. Use technology, including the Internet, to produce and publish writing and link to and cite sources as well as to interact and collaborate with others, including linking to and citing sources.

Range of Writing

10. Write routinely over extended time frames (time for research, reflection, and revision) and shorter time frames (a single sitting or a day or two) for a range of tasks, purposes, and audiences.

- W.7.10. Write routinely over extended time frames (time for research, reflection, and revision) and shorter time frames (a single sitting or a day or two) for a range of discipline-specific tasks, purposes, and audiences.

Comprehension and Collaboration

1. Prepare for and participate effectively in a range of conversations and collaborations with diverse partners, building on others' ideas and expressing their own clearly and persuasively.

- SL.7.1. Engage effectively in a range of collaborative discussions (one-on-one, in groups, and teacher-led) with diverse partners on grade 7 topics, texts, and issues, building on others' ideas and expressing their own clearly.
- SL.7.1a. Come to discussions prepared, having read or researched material under study; explicitly draw on that preparation by referring to evidence on the topic, text, or issue to probe and reflect on ideas under discussion.
- SL.7.1b. Follow rules for collegial discussions, track progress toward specific goals and deadlines, and define individual roles as needed.
- SL.7.1c. Pose questions that elicit elaboration and respond to others' questions and comments with relevant observations and ideas that bring the discussion back on topic as needed.
- SL.7.1d. Acknowledge new information expressed by others and, when warranted, modify their own views.

CommonCore: English Language Arts 6-12, CommonCore: Grade 7, Language

Conventions of Standard English

1. Demonstrate command of the conventions of standard English grammar and usage when writing or speaking.

- L.7.1. Demonstrate command of the conventions of standard English grammar and usage when writing or speaking.

2. Demonstrate command of the conventions of standard English capitalization, punctuation, and spelling when writing.

- L.7.2. Demonstrate command of the conventions of standard English capitalization, punctuation, and spelling when writing.

Knowledge of Language

3. Apply knowledge of language to understand how language functions in different contexts, to make effective choices for meaning or style, and to comprehend more fully when reading or listening.

- L.7.3. Use knowledge of language and its conventions when writing, speaking, reading, or listening.

Vocabulary Acquisition and Use

4. Determine or clarify the meaning of unknown and multiple-meaning words and phrases by using context clues, analyzing meaningful word parts, and consulting general and specialized reference materials, as appropriate.

- L.7.4. Determine or clarify the meaning of unknown and multiple-meaning words and phrases based on grade 7 reading and content, choosing flexibly from a range of strategies.
- L.7.4a. Use context (e.g., the overall meaning of a sentence or paragraph; a word's position or function in a sentence) as a clue to the meaning of a word or phrase.
- L.7.4b. Use common, grade-appropriate Greek or Latin affixes and roots as clues to the meaning of a word (e.g., belligerent, bellicose, rebel).
- L.7.4c. Consult general and specialized reference materials (e.g., dictionaries, glossaries, thesauruses), both print and digital, to find the pronunciation of a word or determine or clarify its precise meaning or its part of speech.
- L.7.4d. Verify the preliminary determination of the meaning of a word or phrase (e.g., by checking the inferred meaning in context or in a dictionary).

5. Demonstrate understanding of word relationships and nuances in word meanings.

- L.7.5. Demonstrate understanding of figurative language, word relationships, and nuances in word meanings.
- L.7.5a. Interpret figures of speech (e.g., literary, biblical, and mythological allusions) in context.

6. Acquire and use accurately a range of general academic and domain-specific words and phrases sufficient for reading, writing, speaking, and listening at the college and career readiness level; demonstrate independence in gathering vocabulary knowledge when considering a word or phrase important to comprehension or expression.

- L.7.6. Acquire and use accurately grade-appropriate general academic and domain-specific words and phrases; gather vocabulary knowledge when considering a word or phrase important to comprehension or expression.

Description of Unit

This unit will focus on non-fiction text structure (order of events, comparing and contrasting, problem and solution, description, cause and effect) and help the students develop the skills necessary to read for information and construct meaning from the text.. A variety of material used will include newspaper and magazine articles, essays, biographies, autobiographies and short stories. Students will learn how to use the organizational elements in nonfiction text that will help support their comprehension.

Essential Questions

How should a reader approach material when reading for information?

How can the reader identify the type of text structure presented in the material?
 Why is it important for readers to recognize, connect, and organize important ideas, facts, and details during and after reading using a writing technique.

Knowledge	Skills
Students will know <ol style="list-style-type: none"> 1. To use background knowledge to make connections before, during, and after reading. 2. To preview reading material and make predictions. 3. To recognize when certain text is in different typeface (italics and bold) 4. how to identify a non-fiction cause and effect text structure. 5. how to identify a non-fiction problem-solution text structure 6. how to identify a non-fiction description text structure 7. how to identify order of events (sequence) text structure 8. how to identify a comparing and contrasting text structure 	Students will be able to <ol style="list-style-type: none"> A. make connections between what they are reading and their own life experiences (text to self), to what they know about life and events in the world (text to world) and to what they have read or studied in other texts (text to text). B. read the title, sub-topics, text features (photographs, artwork, charts, labels, graphs) C. understand the important information being presented and how to use it for enhancing comprehension D. recognize cause and effect relationships E. recognize problem and solution relationships. F. recall the main idea and supporting details, primary and secondary sources, summarizing G. graph a time line to identify order of events, characteristic traits, and first person point of view H. use a Venn Diagram to compare and contrast information
Assessments Context Derived Vocabulary Summative: Written Test Students collaborate with the teacher on vocabulary lists at various stages in the unit. The teacher publishes an official list, and students take tests requiring them to put words into sentences that show each word's correct meaning and use. Comprehension Quizzes Summative: Written Test For each type of text structure, students will read individually and answer questions that demonstrate comprehension of main idea, literary devices, vocabulary, and making inferences. Essay Responses to Open Ended Questions Formative: Other written assessments

Students must respond to open-ended questions with thoughtful, thorough, elaborate essays that demonstrate basic comprehension, critical thinking, advanced writing skills, and adherence to formal writing guidelines.

Literature Circles

Formative: Other oral assessments

After reading a passage, students form Literature Circles in order to discuss questions, insights, and literary elements. Students use their Reading Exploration Sheets to keep track of what they wish to contribute, but they must take care that their discussion is not a mere recitation of what is on their sheets. The discussion must be dynamic and energetic.

At times, students consult each other regarding strategies for writing essays connected with the reading. This is acceptable so long as the discussion does not become little more than a Writing Workshop conference.

Some teachers may desire more structure for Literature Circles in their classes. If so, they can assign the following roles to each student: master of ceremonies, literary term wizard, vocabulary czar, summarizer, and passage picker.

Committee Presentations

Formative: Other oral assessments

Some teachers may choose to apply an enrichment component to this unit, grouping students in committees, with each committee charged with jobs like the following:

Vocabulary committee—compose, in consultation with the teacher and with suggestions from classmates, vocabulary lists and preparation sheets that will assist students in preparing for tests. The words come directly from the text that they are reading.

Literary elements committee—prepare biweekly presentations on literary devices at work in the text they are reading.

Plot and character analysis committee—prepare biweekly presentations that provide analysis of characters and plot.

Connections committee—prepare biweekly presentations that illustrate connections between the text they are reading and other content areas.

Assessment Instruments:

Students self-assessments of their own work in committees

Teacher assessment of students' overall work in preparation and presentation

Peer assessments of committee presentations

Activities

Reading and Note-Taking Days:

Review of essential questions

Reading aloud/note-taking in pairs for each type of nonfiction text structure

Sharing/discussion of notes and questions as a full class

Additional Activities:

Review of vocabulary lists and study guides

Writing Workshop sessions for open-ended questions (essay responses)

Investigation of cross-curricular connections

Activities to Differentiate Instruction

Leveled informational texts

Structured activities between peers (class discussions, paired note-taking sessions) activate the social element of learning.

Committee presentations on concepts and topics related to the reading with self-assessment and peer review of presentations
 Enrichment lessons and activities on advanced literary concepts and cross-curricular connections presented by the teacher

Discussion(auditory), notes and handouts (visual), and SmartBoard contributions (kinesthetic) allow for a variety of induction modes.
 Peer-review of essays, paired note-taking sessions, and Literature Circle discussions all enable students of different conceptual perspectives to combine resources.
 Structured activities between peers (Literature Circles, paired note-taking sessions) activate the social element of learning.
 Discussion(auditory), notes and handouts (visual), and online investigation of Internet resources (kinesthetic) allow for a variety of induction modes.
 Emphasis of historical, cultural, literary, political, and social influences in a work of nonfiction will allow students' individual preferences and interests to enhance their processing of the story. Enrichment instruction on these topics may take the form of individual student investigations, committee presentations (using the Literature Symposium model), and/or supplementary lessons provided by the teacher.

Integrated/Cross-Disciplinary Instruction	Resources

Unit: Book-Length Fiction (Week 6, 33 Weeks)

New Jersey Core Curriculum Standards

CommonCore: English Language Arts 6-12, CommonCore: Grade 7, Capacities of the Literate Individual

Students Who are College and Career Ready in Reading, Writing, Speaking, Listening, & Language

- They demonstrate independence.
- They build strong content knowledge.
- They respond to the varying demands of audience, task, purpose, and discipline.
- They comprehend as well as critique.
- They value evidence.
- They use technology and digital media strategically and capably.
- They come to understand other perspectives and cultures.

CommonCore: English Language Arts 6-12, CommonCore: Grade 7, Reading: Literature

Key Ideas and Details

1. Read closely to determine what the text says explicitly and to make logical inferences from it; cite specific textual evidence when writing or speaking to support conclusions drawn from the text.

- RL.7.1. Cite several pieces of textual evidence to support analysis of what the text says explicitly as well as inferences drawn from the text.

2. Determine central ideas or themes of a text and analyze their development; summarize the key supporting details and ideas.

- RL.7.2. Determine a theme or central idea of a text and analyze its development over the course of the text; provide an objective summary of the text.

3. Analyze how and why individuals, events, and ideas develop and interact over the course of a text.

- RL.7.3. Analyze how particular elements of a story or drama interact (e.g., how setting shapes the characters or plot).

Craft and Structure

4. Interpret words and phrases as they are used in a text, including determining technical, connotative, and figurative meanings, and analyze how specific word choices shape meaning or tone.

- RL.7.4. Determine the meaning of words and phrases as they are used in a text, including figurative and connotative meanings; analyze the impact of rhymes and other repetitions of sounds (e.g., alliteration) on a specific verse or stanza of a poem or section of a story or drama.

5. Analyze the structure of texts, including how specific sentences, paragraphs, and larger portions of the text (e.g., a section, chapter, scene, or stanza) relate to each other and the whole.

- RL.7.5. Analyze how a drama's or poem's form or structure (e.g., soliloquy, sonnet) contributes to its meaning.

6. Assess how point of view or purpose shapes the content and style of a text.

- RL.7.6. Analyze how an author develops and contrasts the points of view of different characters or narrators in a text.

Integration of Knowledge and Ideas

7. Integrate and evaluate content presented in diverse formats and media, including visually and quantitatively, as well as in words.

- RL.7.7. Compare and contrast a written story, drama, or poem to its audio, filmed, staged, or multimedia version, analyzing the effects of techniques unique to each medium (e.g., lighting, sound, color, or camera focus and angles in a film).

9. Analyze how two or more texts address similar themes or topics in order to build knowledge or to compare the approaches the authors take.

- RL.7.9. Compare and contrast a fictional portrayal of a time, place, or character and a historical account of the same period as a means of understanding how authors of fiction use or alter history.

Range of Reading and Level of Text Complexity

10. Read and comprehend complex literary and informational texts independently and proficiently.

- RL.7.10. By the end of the year, read and comprehend literature, including stories, dramas, and poems, in the grades 6–8 text complexity band proficiently, with scaffolding as needed at the high end of the range.

CommonCore: English Language Arts 6-12, CommonCore: Grade 7, Reading: Informational Text

Integration of Knowledge and Ideas

7. Integrate and evaluate content presented in diverse formats and media, including visually and quantitatively, as well as in words.

- RI.7.7. Compare and contrast a text to an audio, video, or multimedia version of the text, analyzing each medium's portrayal of the subject (e.g., how the delivery of a speech affects the impact of the words).

CommonCore: English Language Arts 6-12, CommonCore: Grade 7, Writing

2. Write informative/explanatory texts to examine and convey complex ideas and information clearly and accurately through the effective selection, organization, and analysis of content.

- W.7.2a. Introduce a topic clearly, previewing what is to follow; organize ideas, concepts, and information, using strategies such as definition, classification, comparison/contrast, and cause/effect; include formatting (e.g., headings), graphics (e.g., charts, tables), and multimedia when useful to aiding comprehension.
- W.7.2b. Develop the topic with relevant facts, definitions, concrete details, quotations, or other information and examples.
- W.7.2c. Use appropriate transitions to create cohesion and clarify the relationships among ideas and concepts.
- W.7.2d. Use precise language and domain-specific vocabulary to inform about or explain the topic.
- W.7.2e. Establish and maintain a formal style.
- W.7.2f. Provide a concluding statement or section that follows from and supports the information or explanation presented.

Production and Distribution of Writing

4. Produce clear and coherent writing in which the development, organization, and style are appropriate to task, purpose, and audience.

- W.7.4. Produce clear and coherent writing in which the development, organization, and style are appropriate to task, purpose, and audience. (Grade-specific expectations for writing types are defined in standards 1–3 above.)

5. Develop and strengthen writing as needed by planning, revising, editing, rewriting, or trying a new approach.

- W.7.5. With some guidance and support from peers and adults, develop and strengthen writing as needed by planning, revising, editing, rewriting, or trying a new approach, focusing on how well purpose and audience have been addressed.

6. Use technology, including the Internet, to produce and publish writing and to interact and collaborate with others.

- W.7.6. Use technology, including the Internet, to produce and publish writing and link to and cite sources as well as to interact and collaborate with others, including linking to and citing sources.

Range of Writing

10. Write routinely over extended time frames (time for research, reflection, and revision) and shorter time frames (a single sitting or a day or two) for a range of tasks, purposes, and audiences.

- W.7.10. Write routinely over extended time frames (time for research, reflection, and revision) and shorter time frames (a single sitting or a day or two) for a range of discipline-specific tasks, purposes, and audiences.

CommonCore: English Language Arts 6-12, CommonCore: Grade 7, Speaking & Listening

Comprehension and Collaboration

1. Prepare for and participate effectively in a range of conversations and collaborations with diverse partners, building on others' ideas and expressing their own clearly and persuasively.

- SL.7.1a. Come to discussions prepared, having read or researched material under study; explicitly draw on that preparation by referring to evidence on the topic, text, or issue to probe and reflect on ideas under discussion.
- SL.7.1b. Follow rules for collegial discussions, track progress toward specific goals and deadlines, and define individual roles as needed.

- SL.7.1c. Pose questions that elicit elaboration and respond to others' questions and comments with relevant observations and ideas that bring the discussion back on topic as needed.
- SL.7.1d. Acknowledge new information expressed by others and, when warranted, modify their own views.

2. Integrate and evaluate information presented in diverse media and formats, including visually, quantitatively, and orally.

- SL.7.2. Analyze the main ideas and supporting details presented in diverse media and formats (e.g., visually, quantitatively, orally) and explain how the ideas clarify a topic, text, or issue under study.

Presentation of Knowledge and Ideas

4. Present information, findings, and supporting evidence such that listeners can follow the line of reasoning and the organization, development, and style are appropriate to task, purpose, and audience.

- SL.7.4. Present claims and findings, emphasizing salient points in a focused, coherent manner with pertinent descriptions, facts, details, and examples; use appropriate eye contact, adequate volume, and clear pronunciation.

5. Make strategic use of digital media and visual displays of data to express information and enhance understanding of presentations.

- SL.7.5. Include multimedia components and visual displays in presentations to clarify claims and findings and emphasize salient points.

6. Adapt speech to a variety of contexts and communicative tasks, demonstrating command of formal English when indicated or appropriate.

- SL.7.6. Adapt speech to a variety of contexts and tasks, demonstrating command of formal English when indicated or appropriate.

CommonCore: English Language Arts 6-12, CommonCore: Grade 7, Language

Conventions of Standard English

1. Demonstrate command of the conventions of standard English grammar and usage when writing or speaking.

- L.7.1. Demonstrate command of the conventions of standard English grammar and usage when writing or speaking.

2. Demonstrate command of the conventions of standard English capitalization, punctuation, and spelling when writing.

- L.7.2. Demonstrate command of the conventions of standard English capitalization, punctuation, and spelling when writing.

Knowledge of Language

3. Apply knowledge of language to understand how language functions in different contexts, to make effective choices for meaning or style, and to comprehend more fully when reading or listening.

- L.7.3. Use knowledge of language and its conventions when writing, speaking, reading, or listening.

Vocabulary Acquisition and Use

4. Determine or clarify the meaning of unknown and multiple-meaning words and phrases by using context clues, analyzing meaningful word parts, and consulting general and specialized reference materials, as appropriate.

- L.7.4. Determine or clarify the meaning of unknown and multiple-meaning words and phrases based on grade 7 reading and content, choosing flexibly from a range of strategies.
- L.7.4a. Use context (e.g., the overall meaning of a sentence or paragraph; a word’s position or function in a sentence) as a clue to the meaning of a word or phrase.
- L.7.4b. Use common, grade-appropriate Greek or Latin affixes and roots as clues to the meaning of a word (e.g., belligerent, bellicose, rebel).
- L.7.4c. Consult general and specialized reference materials (e.g., dictionaries, glossaries, thesauruses), both print and digital, to find the pronunciation of a word or determine or clarify its precise meaning or its part of speech.
- L.7.4d. Verify the preliminary determination of the meaning of a word or phrase (e.g., by checking the inferred meaning in context or in a dictionary).

5. Demonstrate understanding of word relationships and nuances in word meanings.

- L.7.5. Demonstrate understanding of figurative language, word relationships, and nuances in word meanings.
- L.7.5a. Interpret figures of speech (e.g., literary, biblical, and mythological allusions) in context.
- L.7.5b. Use the relationship between particular words (e.g., synonym/antonym, analogy) to better understand each of the words.
- L.7.5c. Distinguish among the connotations (associations) of words with similar denotations (definitions) (e.g., refined, respectful, polite, diplomatic, condescending).

6. Acquire and use accurately a range of general academic and domain-specific words and phrases sufficient for reading, writing, speaking, and listening at the college and career readiness level; demonstrate independence in gathering vocabulary knowledge when considering a word or phrase important to comprehension or expression.

- L.7.6. Acquire and use accurately grade-appropriate general academic and domain-specific words and phrases; gather vocabulary knowledge when considering a word or phrase important to comprehension or expression.

Description of Unit	Essential Questions
Students will read and discuss works of book-length fiction. Activities revolve around daily class reading. Students typically work in pairs to take detailed literary notes. Students have daily opportunities to share insights, questions, and observations with the class. Teachers may group students in Literature Circles in order to investigate concepts in greater depth. Additionally, teachers may make vocabulary lists a collaborative effort and apply the Writing Workshop	How and why do themes emerge from a work of fiction? How and why does an author’s likely point of view affect the crafting of a work of fiction? How do literary elements such as conflict, irony, symbolism, and foils enhance the artistic impact of a work? approach to essays connected with this unit. The social interaction of these activities ensures a wide field of viewpoints and ideas; students demonstrate their learning in collaboration with each other, but they must also do so on an individual basis as they apply vocabulary words, compose articulate and analytic essays, and identify literary elements at work in the text.

Gifted classes in English Language Arts have an approach to literature and reading that differs from that of regular classes in the following ways:

- Gifted classes naturally engage in critical thought even beyond the already high standard of regular classes, and teachers add special emphasis to the critical-thinking components of the standard scoring rubrics.
- Gifted classes include a wider array of related topics and cross-curricular connections when exploring meaning in what they read (see Integrated/Cross Disciplinary Instruction and Resources).
- Gifted classes include opportunities for students to engage in peer instruction, placing the teacher at times in the role of facilitator. This capitalizes on the strong intrinsic motivation of the gifted child.
- Gifted classes require from all students more initiative and independence, while incorporating structured group activities to provide synthesis from and integration of individual efforts.

How is literature applicable to one's life?

Why does a reader's individual response to a novel provoke thought and growth?

How does group discussion influence and individual's response, thought, and growth?

Knowledge	Skills
Students will know that: <ul style="list-style-type: none"> • fiction reveals concepts and themes on literal and figurative levels. • literature may contain valuable hints as to an author's purpose or point of view. • literary elements such as conflict, irony, symbolism, and foils enhance the artistic impact of a work. • that literature is an expression and celebration of human nature and human interaction. 	Students will be able to: <ul style="list-style-type: none"> • trace, analyze, and explain concepts and themes as they unfold in a work of literature. • evaluate a work of literature and explain an author's likely purpose or point of view. • explain in discussion and in writing the ways in which literary elements such as conflict, irony, symbolism, and foils enhance the artistic impact of a work.

- as individuals, we can grow as we engage with a text and analyze it.
- the social act of literary discussion enhances not only the participants' learning and growth with respect to one book but also each individual's understanding of additional literature that they read on their own.
- draw and analyze parallels between the nature of literary characters and concepts and those of real life.
- analyze a text and synthesize concepts in spoken and written response to critical questions.
- apply insights revealed in group discussions to their own analysis of literature and express those insights verbally and in writing.

Assessments

Reading Exploration Sheets

Formative: Other written assessments

After daily class reading, students work together to compose notes on each chapter. These notes include a short summary, questions, comments, literary devices, and challenging vocabulary. The teacher periodically assesses the thoughtfulness and thoroughness of these notes.

Literature Circles

Formative: Other oral assessments

In weekly Literature Circles, students discuss questions, insights, and literary elements. Students use their Reading Exploration Sheets to keep track of what they wish to contribute, but they must take care that their discussion is not a mere recitation of what is on their sheets. The discussion must be dynamic and energetic.

At times, students consult each other regarding strategies for writing essays connected with the reading. This is acceptable so long as the discussion does not become little more than a Writing Workshop conference.

Some teachers may desire more structure for Literature Circles in their classes. If so, they can assign the following roles to each student: master of ceremonies, literary term wizard, vocabulary czar, summarizer, and passage picker.

Vocabulary Assessments

Summative: Written Test

Students collaborate with the teacher on vocabulary lists at various stages in the unit. The teacher publishes an official list, and students take tests requiring them to put words into sentences that show each word's correct meaning and use.

Comprehension Quizzes

Summative: Written Test

For some chapters, students will read individually and answer questions that demonstrate comprehension of main idea, plot elements, literary devices, vocabulary, and making inferences.

Essay Responses to Open-Ended Questions

Formative: Extended Essay

Students must respond to open-ended questions with thoughtful, thorough, elaborate essays that demonstrate basic comprehension, critical thinking, advanced writing skills, and adherence to formal writing guidelines.

Literary Term Test

Summative: Written Test

After reading for the novel has concluded, students must identify literary terms whose examples from the story are provided.

Committee Presentations

Formative: Other oral assessments

Some teachers may choose to apply an enrichment component to this unit, grouping students in committees, with each committee charged with jobs like the following:

- Vocabulary committee—compose, in consultation with the teacher and with suggestions from classmates, vocabulary lists and preparation sheets that will assist students in preparing for tests. The words come directly from the text that they are reading.
- Literary elements committee—prepare biweekly presentations on literary devices at work in the text they are reading.
- Plot and character analysis committee—prepare biweekly presentations that provide analysis of characters and plot.
- Connections committee—prepare biweekly presentations that illustrate connections between the text they are reading and other content areas.

Assessment Instruments:

Students self-assessments of their own work in committees

Teacher assessment of students’ overall work in preparation and presentation

Peer assessments of committee presentations

-  Assessment Rubric for Reading Exploration Sheets
-  Reading Exploration Sheets
-  Assessment Rubric for Literature Circle Participation
-  Blank Vocabulary Test
-  Assesment Rubrics for Self-Assessment, Peer Assessment, and Teacher Assessment

Activities	Activities to Differentiate Instruction
Possible classroom activities may include, but are not limited to, the following: Daily review of essential questions Classroom reading, note-taking, discussion	Peer-review of essays, paired note-taking sessions, and Literature Circle discussions all enable students of different conceptual perspectives to combine resources. Structured activities between peers (Literature Circles, paired note-taking sessions) activate the social element of learning.

Independent reading and note-taking

Essay responses to open-ended questions with peer conferences to assist with composition and editing

Deep inquiry into vocabulary, literary devices, social/cultural influences, and plot elements in the novel

Literature Circle discussions between small groups of peers

Investigation of cross-curricular connections

Committee presentations on concepts and topics related to the reading with self-assessment and peer review of presentations

Enrichment lessons and activities on advanced literary concepts and cross-curricular connections presented by the teacher

Discussion(auditory), notes and handouts (visual), and online investigation of Web resources (kinesthetic) allow for a variety of induction modes.

Emphasis of historical, cultural, literary, political, and social influences in the novel allow students' individual preferences and interests to enhance their processing of the story. Activities may take the form of individual student investigations, committee presentations (in connection with the Literature Symposium model), and/or supplemental lessons provided by the teacher.

Integrated/Cross-Disciplinary Instruction	Resources

Key Ideas and Details

1. Read closely to determine what the text says explicitly and to make logical inferences from it; cite specific textual evidence when writing or speaking to support conclusions drawn from the text.

- RI.7.1. Cite several pieces of textual evidence to support analysis of what the text says explicitly as well as inferences drawn from the text.

2. Determine central ideas or themes of a text and analyze their development; summarize the key supporting details and ideas.

- RI.7.2. Determine two or more central ideas in a text and analyze their development over the course of the text; provide an objective summary of the text.

3. Analyze how and why individuals, events, and ideas develop and interact over the course of a text.

- RI.7.3. Analyze the interactions between individuals, events, and ideas in a text (e.g., how ideas influence individuals or events, or how individuals influence ideas or events).

Craft and Structure

4. Interpret words and phrases as they are used in a text, including determining technical, connotative, and figurative meanings, and analyze how specific word choices shape meaning or tone.

- RI.7.4. Determine the meaning of words and phrases as they are used in a text, including figurative, connotative, and technical meanings; analyze the impact of a specific word choice on meaning and tone.

5. Analyze the structure of texts, including how specific sentences, paragraphs, and larger portions of the text (e.g., a section, chapter, scene, or stanza) relate to each other and the whole.

- RI.7.5. Analyze the structure an author uses to organize a text, including how the major sections contribute to the whole and to the development of the ideas.

6. Assess how point of view or purpose shapes the content and style of a text.

- RI.7.6. Determine an author's point of view or purpose in a text and analyze how the author distinguishes his or her position from that of others.

Integration of Knowledge and Ideas

7. Integrate and evaluate content presented in diverse formats and media, including visually and quantitatively, as well as in words.

- RI.7.7. Compare and contrast a text to an audio, video, or multimedia version of the text, analyzing each medium's portrayal of the subject (e.g., how the delivery of a speech affects the impact of the words).

8. Delineate and evaluate the argument and specific claims in a text, including the validity of the reasoning as well as the relevance and sufficiency of the evidence.

- RI.7.8. Trace and evaluate the argument and specific claims in a text, assessing whether the reasoning is sound and the evidence is relevant and sufficient to support the claims.

9. Analyze how two or more texts address similar themes or topics in order to build knowledge or to compare the approaches the authors take.

- RI.7.9. Analyze how two or more authors writing about the same topic shape their presentations of key information by emphasizing different evidence or advancing different interpretations of facts.

Range of Reading and Level of Text Complexity

10. Read and comprehend complex literary and informational texts independently and proficiently.

- RI.7.10. By the end of the year, read and comprehend literary nonfiction in the grades 6–8 text complexity band proficiently, with scaffolding as needed at the high end of the range.

CommonCore: English Language Arts 6-12, CommonCore: Grade 7, Writing

2. Write informative/explanatory texts to examine and convey complex ideas and information clearly and accurately through the effective selection, organization, and analysis of content.

- W.7.2a. Introduce a topic clearly, previewing what is to follow; organize ideas, concepts, and information, using strategies such as definition, classification, comparison/contrast, and cause/effect; include formatting (e.g., headings), graphics (e.g., charts, tables), and multimedia when useful to aiding comprehension.
- W.7.2b. Develop the topic with relevant facts, definitions, concrete details, quotations, or other information and examples.
- W.7.2c. Use appropriate transitions to create cohesion and clarify the relationships among ideas and concepts.
- W.7.2d. Use precise language and domain-specific vocabulary to inform about or explain the topic.
- W.7.2e. Establish and maintain a formal style.
- W.7.2f. Provide a concluding statement or section that follows from and supports the information or explanation presented.

Production and Distribution of Writing

4. Produce clear and coherent writing in which the development, organization, and style are appropriate to task, purpose, and audience.

- W.7.4. Produce clear and coherent writing in which the development, organization, and style are appropriate to task, purpose, and audience. (Grade-specific expectations for writing types are defined in standards 1–3 above.)
5. Develop and strengthen writing as needed by planning, revising, editing, rewriting, or trying a new approach.
- W.7.5. With some guidance and support from peers and adults, develop and strengthen writing as needed by planning, revising, editing, rewriting, or trying a new approach, focusing on how well purpose and audience have been addressed.
6. Use technology, including the Internet, to produce and publish writing and to interact and collaborate with others.
- W.7.6. Use technology, including the Internet, to produce and publish writing and link to and cite sources as well as to interact and collaborate with others, including linking to and citing sources.

Range of Writing

10. Write routinely over extended time frames (time for research, reflection, and revision) and shorter time frames (a single sitting or a day or two) for a range of tasks, purposes, and audiences.

- W.7.10. Write routinely over extended time frames (time for research, reflection, and revision) and shorter time frames (a single sitting or a day or two) for a range of discipline-specific tasks, purposes, and audiences.

CommonCore: English Language Arts 6-12, CommonCore: Grade 7, Speaking & Listening

Comprehension and Collaboration

1. Prepare for and participate effectively in a range of conversations and collaborations with diverse partners, building on others' ideas and expressing their own clearly and persuasively.

- SL.7.1a. Come to discussions prepared, having read or researched material under study; explicitly draw on that preparation by referring to evidence on the topic, text, or issue to probe and reflect on ideas under discussion.
- SL.7.1b. Follow rules for collegial discussions, track progress toward specific goals and deadlines, and define individual roles as needed.
- SL.7.1c. Pose questions that elicit elaboration and respond to others' questions and comments with relevant observations and ideas that bring the discussion back on topic as needed.
- SL.7.1d. Acknowledge new information expressed by others and, when warranted, modify their own views.

2. Integrate and evaluate information presented in diverse media and formats, including visually, quantitatively, and orally.

- SL.7.2. Analyze the main ideas and supporting details presented in diverse media and formats (e.g., visually, quantitatively, orally) and explain how the ideas clarify a topic, text, or issue under study.

Presentation of Knowledge and Ideas

4. Present information, findings, and supporting evidence such that listeners can follow the line of reasoning and the organization, development, and style are appropriate to task, purpose, and audience.

- SL.7.4. Present claims and findings, emphasizing salient points in a focused, coherent manner with pertinent descriptions, facts, details, and examples; use appropriate eye contact, adequate volume, and clear pronunciation.

5. Make strategic use of digital media and visual displays of data to express information and enhance understanding of presentations.

- SL.7.5. Include multimedia components and visual displays in presentations to clarify claims and findings and emphasize salient points.

6. Adapt speech to a variety of contexts and communicative tasks, demonstrating command of formal English when indicated or appropriate.

- SL.7.6. Adapt speech to a variety of contexts and tasks, demonstrating command of formal English when indicated or appropriate.

CommonCore: English Language Arts 6-12, CommonCore: Grade 7, Language

Conventions of Standard English

1. Demonstrate command of the conventions of standard English grammar and usage when writing or speaking.

- L.7.1. Demonstrate command of the conventions of standard English grammar and usage when writing or speaking.

2. Demonstrate command of the conventions of standard English capitalization, punctuation, and spelling when writing.

- L.7.2. Demonstrate command of the conventions of standard English capitalization, punctuation, and spelling when writing.

Knowledge of Language

3. Apply knowledge of language to understand how language functions in different contexts, to make effective choices for meaning or style, and to comprehend more fully when reading or listening.

- L.7.3. Use knowledge of language and its conventions when writing, speaking, reading, or listening.

Vocabulary Acquisition and Use

4. Determine or clarify the meaning of unknown and multiple-meaning words and phrases by using context clues, analyzing meaningful word parts, and consulting general and specialized reference materials, as appropriate.

- L.7.4. Determine or clarify the meaning of unknown and multiple-meaning words and phrases based on grade 7 reading and content, choosing flexibly from a range of strategies.
- L.7.4a. Use context (e.g., the overall meaning of a sentence or paragraph; a word's position or function in a sentence) as a clue to the meaning of a word or phrase.
- L.7.4b. Use common, grade-appropriate Greek or Latin affixes and roots as clues to the meaning of a word (e.g., belligerent, bellicose, rebel).
- L.7.4c. Consult general and specialized reference materials (e.g., dictionaries, glossaries, thesauruses), both print and digital, to find the pronunciation of a word or determine or clarify its precise meaning or its part of speech.

- L.7.4d. Verify the preliminary determination of the meaning of a word or phrase (e.g., by checking the inferred meaning in context or in a dictionary).
5. Demonstrate understanding of word relationships and nuances in word meanings.
- L.7.5. Demonstrate understanding of figurative language, word relationships, and nuances in word meanings.
 - L.7.5a. Interpret figures of speech (e.g., literary, biblical, and mythological allusions) in context.
 - L.7.5b. Use the relationship between particular words (e.g., synonym/antonym, analogy) to better understand each of the words.
 - L.7.5c. Distinguish among the connotations (associations) of words with similar denotations (definitions) (e.g., refined, respectful, polite, diplomatic, condescending).
6. Acquire and use accurately a range of general academic and domain-specific words and phrases sufficient for reading, writing, speaking, and listening at the college and career readiness level; demonstrate independence in gathering vocabulary knowledge when considering a word or phrase important to comprehension or expression.
- L.7.6. Acquire and use accurately grade-appropriate general academic and domain-specific words and phrases; gather vocabulary knowledge when considering a word or phrase important to comprehension or expression.

Description of Unit	Essential Questions
Students will read and discuss book-length works of literary nonfiction. Activities revolve around daily class reading. Students work in pairs to take detailed literary notes. Students have daily opportunities to share insights, questions, and observations with the class. Teachers may group students in Literature Circles in order to investigate concepts in greater depth. Additionally, teachers may make vocabulary lists a collaborative effort and apply the Writing Workshop approach to essays connected with this unit. The social interaction of these activities ensures a wide field of viewpoints and ideas; students demonstrate their learning in collaboration with each other, but they must also do so on an individual basis as they apply vocabulary words, compose articulate and analytic essays, and identify literary elements at work in the text. Gifted classes in English Language Arts have an approach to literature and reading that differs from that of regular classes in the following ways:	How do extended works of nonfiction organize information around central ideas? How can real-life people in a nonfiction work be similar in their transformations to literary characters? Why do some works of nonfiction carry more informational authority than others? Why does a reader’s individual response to a work of literary nonfiction provoke thought and growth? How does group discussion influence and individual’s response, thought, and growth? Why would literary elements such as conflict, irony, symbolism, and metaphor appear in a work of nonfiction?

- Gifted classes naturally engage in critical thought even beyond the already high standard of regular classes, and teachers add special emphasis to the critical-thinking components of the standard scoring rubrics.
- Gifted classes include a wider array of related topics and cross-curricular connections when exploring meaning in what they read (see Integrated/Cross Disciplinary Instruction and Resources).
- Gifted classes include opportunities for students to engage in peer instruction, placing the teacher at times in the role of facilitator. This capitalizes on the strong intrinsic motivation of the gifted child.
- Gifted classes require from all students more initiative and independence, while incorporating structured group activities to provide synthesis from and integration of individual efforts.

For more information, please see the Activities section of this unit.

Knowledge	Skills
Students will know that: <ul style="list-style-type: none"> • information in a work of extended nonfiction supports a central idea. • individuals, events, and concepts develop and interact throughout a nonfiction text. • works of nonfiction vary in their credibility and authority. • as individuals, we can grow as we engage with a text and analyze it. • the social act of literary discussion enhances not only the participants' learning and growth with respect to one book but also each individual's understanding of additional literature that they read on their own. • literary elements such as conflict, irony, symbolism, and metaphor apply to nonfiction accounts as well as to literary fiction--and similarly enhance central ideas. • a literary component applies to the communication of information in all content areas. 	Students will be able to: <ul style="list-style-type: none"> • analyze and explain the conceptual structure of a work of nonfiction with respect to its central ideas and its author's likely intent. • trace and evaluate the development of events and arguments in a work of nonfiction. • assess the validity of information and the persuasiveness of arguments presented in a work of nonfiction. • analyze a text and synthesize concepts in spoken and written response to critical questions. • apply insights revealed in group discussions to their own analysis of literature and express those insights verbally and in writing • explain in discussion and in writing the ways in which literary elements such as conflict, irony, symbolism, and foils enhance the literary impact of a work of nonfiction.

Assessments

Reading Exploration Sheets

Formative: Other written assessments

After daily class reading, students work together to compose notes on each chapter. These notes include a short summary, questions, comments, literary devices, and challenging vocabulary. The teacher periodically assesses the thoughtfulness and thoroughness of these notes.

Literature Circles

Formative: Other oral assessments

In weekly Literature Circles, students discuss questions, insights, and literary elements. Students use their Reading Exploration Sheets to keep track of what they wish to contribute, but they must take care that their discussion is not a mere recitation of what is on their sheets. The discussion must be dynamic and energetic.

At times, students consult each other regarding strategies for writing essays connected with the reading. This is acceptable so long as the discussion does not become little more than a Writing Workshop conference.

Some teachers may desire more structure for Literature Circles in their classes. If so, they can assign the following roles to each student: master of ceremonies, literary term wizard, vocabulary czar, summarizer, and passage picker.

Vocabulary Assessments

Summative: Written Test

Students collaborate with the teacher on vocabulary lists at various stages in the unit. The teacher publishes an official list, and students must take tests requiring them to put words into sentences that show each word's correct meaning and use.

Comprehension Quizzes

Summative: Written Test

For some chapters, students will read individually and answer questions that demonstrate comprehension of main idea, literary devices, vocabulary, and making inferences.

Essay Responses to Open-Ended Questions

Formative: Extended Essay

Students respond to open-ended questions with thoughtful, thorough, elaborate essays that demonstrate basic comprehension, critical thinking, advanced writing skills, and adherence to formal writing guidelines.

Literary Term Test

Summative: Written Test

After reading for the novel has concluded, students must identify literary terms whose examples from the text are provided.

Committee Presentations

Formative: Other oral assessments

Some teachers may choose to apply an enrichment component to this unit, grouping students in committees, with each committee charged with jobs like the following:

- Vocabulary committee—compose, in consultation with the teacher and with suggestions from classmates, vocabulary lists and preparation sheets that will assist students in preparing for tests. The words come directly from the text that they are reading.
- Literary elements committee—prepare biweekly presentations on literary devices at work in the text they are reading.
- Plot and character analysis committee—prepare biweekly presentations that provide analysis of characters and plot.
- Connections committee—prepare biweekly presentations that illustrate connections between the text they are reading and other content areas.

Assessment Instruments:

Students self-assessments of their own work in committees

Teacher assessment of students’ overall work in preparation and presentation

Peer assessments of committee presentations

Unit: Short Stories (Week 6, 33 Weeks)

New Jersey Core Curriculum Standards

CommonCore: English Language Arts 6-12, CommonCore: Grade 7, Capacities of the Literate Individual

Students Who are College and Career Ready in Reading, Writing, Speaking, Listening, & Language

- They build strong content knowledge.
- They respond to the varying demands of audience, task, purpose, and discipline.
- They comprehend as well as critique.
- They value evidence.
- They use technology and digital media strategically and capably.

CommonCore: English Language Arts 6-12, CommonCore: Grade 7, Reading: Literature

Key Ideas and Details

1. Read closely to determine what the text says explicitly and to make logical inferences from it; cite specific textual evidence when writing or speaking to support conclusions drawn from the text.

- RL.7.1. Cite several pieces of textual evidence to support analysis of what the text says explicitly as well as inferences drawn from the text.

2. Determine central ideas or themes of a text and analyze their development; summarize the key supporting details and ideas.

- RL.7.2. Determine a theme or central idea of a text and analyze its development over the course of the text; provide an objective summary of the text.

3. Analyze how and why individuals, events, and ideas develop and interact over the course of a text.

- RL.7.3. Analyze how particular elements of a story or drama interact (e.g., how setting shapes the characters or plot).

Craft and Structure

4. Interpret words and phrases as they are used in a text, including determining technical, connotative, and figurative meanings, and analyze how specific word choices shape meaning or tone.

- RL.7.4. Determine the meaning of words and phrases as they are used in a text, including figurative and connotative meanings; analyze the impact of rhymes and other repetitions of sounds (e.g., alliteration) on a specific verse or stanza of a poem or section of a story or drama.

5. Analyze the structure of texts, including how specific sentences, paragraphs, and larger portions of the text (e.g., a section, chapter, scene, or stanza) relate to each other and the whole.

- RL.7.5. Analyze how a drama's or poem's form or structure (e.g., soliloquy, sonnet) contributes to its meaning.

6. Assess how point of view or purpose shapes the content and style of a text.

- RL.7.6. Analyze how an author develops and contrasts the points of view of different characters or narrators in a text.

Integration of Knowledge and Ideas

7. Integrate and evaluate content presented in diverse formats and media, including visually and quantitatively, as well as in words.

- RL.7.7. Compare and contrast a written story, drama, or poem to its audio, filmed, staged, or multimedia version, analyzing the effects of techniques unique to each medium (e.g., lighting, sound, color, or camera focus and angles in a film).

9. Analyze how two or more texts address similar themes or topics in order to build knowledge or to compare the approaches the authors take.

- RL.7.9. Compare and contrast a fictional portrayal of a time, place, or character and a historical account of the same period as a means of understanding how authors of fiction use or alter history.

Range of Reading and Level of Text Complexity

10. Read and comprehend complex literary and informational texts independently and proficiently.

- RL.7.10. By the end of the year, read and comprehend literature, including stories, dramas, and poems, in the grades 6–8 text complexity band proficiently, with scaffolding as needed at the high end of the range.

CommonCore: English Language Arts 6-12, CommonCore: Grade 7, Writing

Text Types and Purposes

1. Write arguments to support claims in an analysis of substantive topics or texts, using valid reasoning and relevant and sufficient evidence.

- W.7.1. Write arguments to support claims with clear reasons and relevant evidence.
- W.7.1a. Introduce claim(s), acknowledge alternate or opposing claims, and organize the reasons and evidence logically.
- W.7.1b. Support claim(s) with logical reasoning and relevant evidence, using accurate, credible sources and demonstrating an understanding of the topic or text.
- W.7.1c. Use words, phrases, and clauses to create cohesion and clarify the relationships among claim(s), reasons, and evidence.
- W.7.1d. Establish and maintain a formal style.

- W.7.1e. Provide a concluding statement or section that follows from and supports the argument presented.

Production and Distribution of Writing

4. Produce clear and coherent writing in which the development, organization, and style are appropriate to task, purpose, and audience.

- W.7.4. Produce clear and coherent writing in which the development, organization, and style are appropriate to task, purpose, and audience. (Grade-specific expectations for writing types are defined in standards 1–3 above.)

5. Develop and strengthen writing as needed by planning, revising, editing, rewriting, or trying a new approach.

- W.7.5. With some guidance and support from peers and adults, develop and strengthen writing as needed by planning, revising, editing, rewriting, or trying a new approach, focusing on how well purpose and audience have been addressed.

6. Use technology, including the Internet, to produce and publish writing and to interact and collaborate with others.

- W.7.6. Use technology, including the Internet, to produce and publish writing and link to and cite sources as well as to interact and collaborate with others, including linking to and citing sources.

8. Gather relevant information from multiple print and digital sources, assess the credibility and accuracy of each source, and integrate the information while avoiding plagiarism.

- W.7.8. Gather relevant information from multiple print and digital sources, using search terms effectively; assess the credibility and accuracy of each source; and quote or paraphrase the data and conclusions of others while avoiding plagiarism and following a standard format for citation.

9. Draw evidence from literary or informational texts to support analysis, reflection, and research.

- W.7.9. Draw evidence from literary or informational texts to support analysis, reflection, and research.
- W.7.9a. Apply grade 7 Reading standards to literature (e.g., “Compare and contrast a fictional portrayal of a time, place, or character and a historical account of the same period as a means of understanding how authors of fiction use or alter history”).

Range of Writing

10. Write routinely over extended time frames (time for research, reflection, and revision) and shorter time frames (a single sitting or a day or two) for a range of tasks, purposes, and audiences.

- W.7.10. Write routinely over extended time frames (time for research, reflection, and revision) and shorter time frames (a single sitting or a day or two) for a range of discipline-specific tasks, purposes, and audiences.

CommonCore: English Language Arts 6-12, CommonCore: Grade 7, Speaking & Listening

Comprehension and Collaboration

1. Prepare for and participate effectively in a range of conversations and collaborations with diverse partners, building on others' ideas and expressing their own clearly and persuasively.

- SL.7.1. Engage effectively in a range of collaborative discussions (one-on-one, in groups, and teacher-led) with diverse partners on grade 7 topics, texts, and issues, building on others' ideas and expressing their own clearly.

CommonCore: English Language Arts 6-12, CommonCore: Grade 7, Language

Conventions of Standard English

1. Demonstrate command of the conventions of standard English grammar and usage when writing or speaking.

- L.7.1. Demonstrate command of the conventions of standard English grammar and usage when writing or speaking.

2. Demonstrate command of the conventions of standard English capitalization, punctuation, and spelling when writing.

- L.7.2. Demonstrate command of the conventions of standard English capitalization, punctuation, and spelling when writing.

Knowledge of Language

3. Apply knowledge of language to understand how language functions in different contexts, to make effective choices for meaning or style, and to comprehend more fully when reading or listening.

- L.7.3. Use knowledge of language and its conventions when writing, speaking, reading, or listening.

Vocabulary Acquisition and Use

4. Determine or clarify the meaning of unknown and multiple-meaning words and phrases by using context clues, analyzing meaningful word parts, and consulting general and specialized reference materials, as appropriate.

- L.7.4. Determine or clarify the meaning of unknown and multiple-meaning words and phrases based on grade 7 reading and content, choosing flexibly from a range of strategies.
- L.7.4a. Use context (e.g., the overall meaning of a sentence or paragraph; a word's position or function in a sentence) as a clue to the meaning of a word or phrase.
- L.7.4b. Use common, grade-appropriate Greek or Latin affixes and roots as clues to the meaning of a word (e.g., belligerent, bellicose, rebel).
- L.7.4c. Consult general and specialized reference materials (e.g., dictionaries, glossaries, thesauruses), both print and digital, to find the pronunciation of a word or determine or clarify its precise meaning or its part of speech.
- L.7.4d. Verify the preliminary determination of the meaning of a word or phrase (e.g., by checking the inferred meaning in context or in a dictionary).

5. Demonstrate understanding of word relationships and nuances in word meanings.

- L.7.5. Demonstrate understanding of figurative language, word relationships, and nuances in word meanings.
- L.7.5a. Interpret figures of speech (e.g., literary, biblical, and mythological allusions) in context.

6. Acquire and use accurately a range of general academic and domain-specific words and phrases sufficient for reading, writing, speaking, and listening at the college and career readiness level; demonstrate independence in gathering vocabulary knowledge when considering a word or phrase important to comprehension or expression.

- L.7.6. Acquire and use accurately grade-appropriate general academic and domain-specific words and phrases; gather vocabulary knowledge when considering a word or phrase important to comprehension or expression.

Assessments

Big Question Discussion

Diagnostic: Other oral assessments

Students will be introduced to the Big Question (Does every conflict have a winner) and engage in a discussion to assess the ideas they already have.

Critical Thinking Questions

Formative: Instructional/Assessment Focus

Students answer comprehension questions about each story. While the questions assess knowledge of the text, they are also centered around a reading skill such as making predictions or fact and opinion.

Vocabulary Warm Ups

Diagnostic: Instructional/Assessment Focus

Students complete vocabulary warm-ups to tap prior knowledge of both academic and story vocabulary.

Selection Tests

Summative: Written Test

Students are tested on their comprehension of the story read and discussed in class. Open-ended questions are included.

Essay Response to Open Ended Questions

Formative: Extended Essay

Students respond to open-ended questions with thoughtful, thorough, elaborate essays that demonstrate basic comprehension, critical thinking, advanced writing skills, and adherence to formal writing guidelines.

Unit Project

Summative: Personal Project

Students complete a project that embodies all of the skills learned over the course of the unit. Students present their projects to the class.

Literature Circles

Formative: Other oral assessments

Working in their Literature Circles, students discuss questions, insights, and literary elements. Students use their Reading Exploration Sheets to keep track of what they wish to contribute, but they must take care that their discussion is not a mere recitation of what is on their sheets. The discussion must be dynamic and energetic.

At times, students consult each other regarding strategies for writing essays connected with the reading. Committee presentations on concepts and topics related to the reading with self-assessment and peer review of presentations

Enrichment lessons and activities on advanced literary concepts and cross-curricular connections presented by the teacher

Emphasis of historical, cultural, literary, political, and social influences in a work of nonfiction will allow students' individual preferences and interests to enhance their processing of the story. Enrichment instruction on these topics may take the form of individual student investigations, committee presentations (using the Literature Symposium model), and/or supplementary lessons provided by the teacher.

- L.7.6. Acquire and use accurately grade-appropriate general academic and domain-specific words and phrases; gather vocabulary knowledge when considering a word or phrase important to comprehension or expression.

Description of Unit	Essential Questions

Students will read and discuss two poems each day, analyzing literary devices at work, synthesizing ideas from topics covered, and evaluating the artistic value of the poems.

Prominent poets and noteworthy poems and passages receive particular emphasis. The origins of poetry in oral traditions will also receive special attention.

Additionally, students will have to demonstrate great depth of analysis and critical evaluation of a poem's artistic merit. Students may not necessarily agree in their assessments; however, spoken and written commentary must have substance beyond what one would expect of work from a typical seventh grader.

What constitutes poetry?

How do poetic devices add to the artistry of poetry?

How to both concept and form contribute to a poem's meaning and effect?

How should one go about finding meaning in poetry?

Knowledge	Skills
Students will know that: <ul style="list-style-type: none"> poetry is a unique form of literature with distinguishing characteristics (form, rhyme, meter, rhythm, content). a range of factors contribute to a poem's artistic merit through reading and modeling of student/classic poet examples. poetry varies in form from the largely unstructured (free verse) to the rigidly structured (sonnet, villanelle). poetry contains a range of literary tropes. literary tropes contribute to the meaning and effect of a poem. the history of poetry stretches back to oral traditions and included a heavy musical component during ancient times; this has implications on our modern terminology for poetry. 	Students will be able to: <ul style="list-style-type: none"> investigate and explain the meaning they find in poetry that they read through whole class/group questions and modeling poem's characteristics. evaluate a poem's artistic qualities and explain their assessment. identify poetic forms and formal features (line, stanza, free verse, blank verse, villanelle, sonnet, etc.) identify literary tropes in the poetry they read. explain how literary tropes contribute to the meaning and effect of a poem by presenting their poems to the class. employ literary tropes in the composition of original poetry. recognize significant quotes from poetry they have read and identify the titles from which the lines come and the poets who composed the poems. explain the influence of ancient oral traditions on the received canon of poetry and identify the musical influences on the poetry of antiquity and on poetry today.
Assessments

Objective Test

Summative: Written Test

Students recall factual information on quotes, poems, terms and forms.

Investigation of Poetic Forms, Tropes, and Terms

Formative: Other written assessments

Working in groups of four, students investigate specific forms, tropes (devices), and terms. Findings are placed on the board, and all students record findings into their own notes.

Poetry Portfolio

Summative: Student Portfolio

Students write original poems and submit as a portfolio at the end of the unit.

Poetry Project

Summative: Personal Project

Students may choose one of the following:

1. Choose ten forms, tropes, or terms relating to our poetry unit. Compile a display or presentation defining each and including examples from the poetry read.
2. Choose three original poems, and construct a display or presentation illustrating at least five forms, tropes, or terms related to the poetry unit.
3. Write an essay summarizing and analyzing a poem. The essay should comment extensively on the form of the poem and its figurative devices. It should also provide an explanation of the poet and his or her background as well. All outside information must be attributed to sources.

Poetry Circles

Formative: Other oral assessments

Similar to Literature Circles, the Poetry Circle discussions allow students to discuss poetry in small groups. They share questions and comments, and they engage in analysis of form, figures of speech, and various levels of meaning.

The teacher assesses students based on their participation and contribution to discussions as well as their note-taking and preparation for the discussion.

Origins of Poetry Presentation

Formative: Oral Report

In pairs, students conduct research on a topic assigned by the teacher related to the poetry of antiquity. The resulting oral report will explain the enduring influence of ancient poetry on poetry today.

Students make visual presentations to the class, and the students listening will respond, assess, and comment.

Activities

- Discussion of essential questions
- Read and analyze models of each form and genre of poem: narrative, lyrical, free verse, blank verse, ballad, common meter, villanelle, sonnet, etc.
- Identification of figurative language, key phrases, and formal identifiers in poems
- Poetry Circles (variation on Literature Circles)
- Poetry Workshop (collaborative composition) and creation of poetry portfolios containing original works

Activities to Differentiate Instruction

- Teacher-constructed notes and graphic organizers
- Modified test
- Modified portfolio rubric
- Diversified expectations for each type of poem written
- Leveled poems and exercises
- Poetry Circle collaborative discussions
- Poetry Workshop collaborative writing sessions

Integrated/Cross-Disciplinary Instruction

Poetry content covers a wide range of topics, and discussion will include commentary and questions across the curriculum. The teacher will respond to students' questions and comments from Poetry Circle follow-up discussions and include additional instruction and enrichment as necessary.

The Origins of Poetry project requires research into literary and cultural history
