

Unit 4: Children

Content Area: Global Studies
Course(s): STEM
Time Period: Marking Period 2
Length: 5 Weeks
Status: Published

Unit Overview

In this unit, students will consider the challenges faced by children around the world, focusing on human rights issues: human trafficking, disease, education, and dangerous living conditions. Students will take part in writing workshops related to developing voice, and focus learning through a novel about the experiences of a young girl in China during hardships, "Red Scarf Girl."

Standards

|----------------|--|
| LA.W.8.1 | Write arguments to support claims with clear reasons and relevant evidence. |
| LA.W.8.4 | Produce clear and coherent writing in which the development, organization, voice and style are appropriate to task, purpose, and audience. (Grade-specific expectations for writing types are defined in standards 1–3 above.) |
| LA.W.8.8 | Gather relevant information from multiple print and digital sources, using search terms effectively; assess the credibility and accuracy of each source; and quote or paraphrase the data and conclusions of others while avoiding plagiarism and following a standard format for citation. |
| LA.W.8.9 | Draw evidence from literary or informational texts to support analysis, reflection, and research. |
| LA.RL.8.2 | Determine a theme or central idea of a text and analyze its development over the course of the text, including its relationship to the characters, setting, and plot; provide an objective summary of the text. |
| LA.RL.8.9 | Analyze and reflect on (e.g., practical knowledge, historical/cultural context, and background knowledge) how a modern work of fiction draws on themes, patterns of events, or character types from myths, traditional stories, or religious works such as the Bible, including describing how the material is rendered new. |
| SOC.6.3.8 | Active Citizenship in the 21st Century: All students will acquire the skills needed to be active, informed citizens who value diversity and promote cultural understanding by working collaboratively to address the challenges that are inherent in living in an interconnected world. |
| SOC.6.3.8.A.3 | Collaborate with international students to deliberate about and address issues of gender equality, child mortality, or education. |
| SOC.6.3.8.CS8 | Challenge unfair viewpoints and behaviors by taking action. |
| SOC.6.3.8.CS9 | Make informed and reasoned decisions. |
| SOC.6.3.8.CS10 | Accept decisions that are made for the common good. |
