Content Area: Social Studies
Course(s): Social Studies
Time Period: Full Year
Length: Ongoing throughout the year
Status: Published

Unit Overview

In the unit, Celebrating People and Cultures, the students will discover the different aspects of culture, how people from different cultures meet their needs, and how the United States is a mix of cultures. They will learn about what school is like for students in another country and the customs observed in the school. The students will discover cultural and religious holidays celebrated in the United States and learn about the reasons for celebrating national holidays. As a part of the unit, they will read about the lives of a diverse group of American heroes and the qualities that made each a hero. In addition, as part of their study of maps and globes, the students will use latitude and longitude to determine the location of places.

Standards

SOC.6.1.4.A.2	Explain how fundamental rights guaranteed by the United States Constitution and the Bill of Rights (i.e., freedom of expression, freedom of religion, the right to vote, and the right to due process) contribute to the continuation and improvement of American democracy.

CRP.K-12.CRP1.1

Career-ready individuals understand the obligations and responsibilities of being a member of a community, and they demonstrate this understanding every day through their interactions with others. They are conscientious of the impacts of their decisions on others and the environment around them. They think about the near-term and long-term consequences of their actions and seek to act in ways that contribute to the betterment of their teams, families, community and workplace. They are reliable and consistent in going beyond the minimum expectation and in participating in activities that serve the greater good.

Career-ready individuals understand the interrelated nature of their actions and regularly make decisions that positively impact and/or mitigate negative impact on other people, organization, and the environment. They are aware of and utilize new technologies, understandings, procedures, materials, and regulations affecting the nature of their work as it relates to the impact on the social condition, the environment and the profitability of the organization.
