

Unit 5: "Climbing Higher" - Caring Makes a Difference

Content Area: Social Studies
Course(s): Social Studies
Time Period: Marking Period 4
Length: May - June
Status: Published

Unit Overview

This unit, based on the work of New Jersey's Holocaust Commission focuses on the the overriding theme of "Caring Makes a Difference". In this specific unit, the students will gain an understanding of the fact that it is important that people learn to work together and to respect each other so that they can avoid causing each other pain and suffering.

As Molly Maffei, one of the Holocaust Commission committee members wrote, " Teaching young children about events in history is most rewarding when you read aloud and, in the follow-up discussions, encourage and listen to their insightful comments and provocative questions. Children's sense of fairness allows them to recognize and to internalize concepts of racial, ethnic, and religious prejudice and discrimination. It is vital that our young people learn that they are the peacemakers and our hope for the future. Children are never too young to understand that they have the power to change life for the better."

Teachers are strongly encouraged to use their professional judgment while teaching this unit. Based on the maturity level of their group of students as well as the composition of the group, teacher's should select appropriate activities from the suggested list.

Standards

SOC.6.3.8	Active Citizenship in the 21st Century: All students will acquire the skills needed to be active, informed citizens who value diversity and promote cultural understanding by working collaboratively to address the challenges that are inherent in living in an interconnected world.

SOC.6.3.8.CS2	Recognize the value of cultural diversity, as well as the potential for misunderstanding.
SOC.6.3.8.CS3	Critically analyze media to assess different viewpoints and detect bias, opinion, and stereotypes.
SOC.6.3.8.CS7	Recognize that the actions or inactions of individuals, groups, and nations can have intended and unintended consequences.
SOC.6.3.8.CS8	Challenge unfair viewpoints and behaviors by taking action.
SOC.6.3.8.CS9	Make informed and reasoned decisions.
SOC.6.3.8.CS10	Accept decisions that are made for the common good.

Essential Questions

- How does prejudice effect society?
- How do people develop prejudices?
- Why should people stand up for what they believe in?

Application of Knowledge: Students will know that...

- Anti-Semitism is hostility to or prejudice against Jews.
- Discrimination is the unjust or prejudicial treatment of different categories of people or things, especially on the grounds of race, age, or sex.
- Prejudice is a preconceived opinion that is not based on reason or actual experience.
- Racism is prejudice, discrimination, or antagonism directed against someone of a different race based on the belief that one's own race is superior.
- Sexism is prejudice, stereotyping, or discrimination, typically against women, on the basis of sex.

Application of Skills: Students will be able to...

- analyze ways in which people can stand up for what they believe is right and good.
- analyze why some people (groups and nations) act like bullies and others act with kindness and caring.
- define prejudice, discrimination, anti-Semitism, racism, and sexism.
- demonstrate an understanding that choices have consequences and that making good choices is very important.
- demonstrate an understanding that prejudice and the hurtful actions to which it leads can affect any person or any group at any time.
- demonstrate an understanding that when prejudice and persecution hurt people, that we each have a choice about how we react - to help those being hurt, to turn away and pretend that we do not see, to stand and watch, or to join the bullies who are hurting others.
- demonstrate that s/he recognizes that each of us has traits and attributes in which we take pride and that make us special.
- demonstrate that s/he recognizes that each person is responsible for his/her own actions.
- demonstrate that s/he recognizes the values that influence each of us.
- discuss the importance of being honest and truthful.
- discuss things that a person can say and do to be more thoughtful, caring, and trusting of others.
- explain how prejudice hurts everyone and the ways we all suffer because of it
- explain reasons why individuals and groups act in ways that may hurt and ways that may help others.
- explain the importance of good laws in making our world safe for each of us and how we can work to change bad laws that hurt.
- give examples of prejudice against individuals and groups.
- give examples of times that prejudice has led to the persecuion and killing of groups of people, such as in the Holocaust.

Assessments

Assessments from this unit will both be formal and informal. For formal observations, teachers may pre-assess students' understanding of vocabulary as well as determining their knowledge base about the topic.

There may be quizzes, or writing samples collected in response to readings. On an informal level, students will be assessed throughout class discussions and read alouds.

The ultimate goal of the unit is to see a change in students behavior toward building a culture of caring and kindness to their fellow students. This may not be able to be assessed formally or informally, but rather observed by the teachers and staff and continually revisited as a topic throughout the day and their educational career.

classroom. Have the students offer their views about the way the painted flowers may have affected the environment and appearance of the family's apartment. Discuss the importance of flowers, trees, and other plants in our lives. (If there is no place to plant the flowers, make drawings of them and post them around the classroom.)

- Find out about the subjects that are taught in Jewish schools in the United States today. Compare and contrast these subjects to those taught in other religious schools. Discuss the importance of these lessons to the people who follow the religion and its importance to the children in the religious schools.

Write a short story explaining how you would have tried to keep up your spirits and hope if you had been Rachel or her brother Nat. What games or stories or other resources would you have needed to find some happiness despite the bleak world around you? • Read The Christmas Menorahs: How a Town Fought Hate. Explain how the reactions and responses of the people of the town were so important for everyone. What are the dangers of hate and prejudice for everyone? Have the class make a mural of flowers. At the base of each flower, write one thing that can be done by each person to fight against hate, prejudice, and discrimination.

So Far from the Sea

During the read-aloud session, stop at the salient points and ask these questions rather than at the end of the story so that knowledge is building.

- Allow children to examine the scene of the Manzanar War Relocation Center. Note the barracks, guard towers and guards, barbed wire fencing and desolation of environment. How do you think it would feel to live in this camp for three years?

- When the family visited Manzanar, which people made the tire tracks in the soft dirt?

- Allow children to examine the scene of the barrack school. What is the difference between your school and the one in the picture? Do you think a classroom in a town would look like this in 1942?

- What did Laura's father mean when he said, "Grandfather began dying the day the soldiers came for them, to put them in buses and bring them to Manzanar?"

- When the soldiers came for father's family, why did Grandfather tell him to put on his Cub Scout uniform?

- Write a letter to Laura or Thomas. Tell them how you feel about their father's story.

- Write a poem for grandfather that you could leave at the Memorial to the Dead.

- Draw a picture to illustrate the part of the story that is special for you.

• Why did Laura leave the Cub Scout scarf? Do you think she should have? Why or why not?

The Little Riders

• Discuss the role that the "little riders" have played in the town and in the lives of Johanna's family.

Explain what is meant by "symbolism." What do the little riders symbolize to the people of the town?

• Johanna and her parents have been separated by the events of war. How do you think her parents feel about this separation? How does Johanna feel about it? Why do you think Johanna focuses on the little riders when she has trouble remembering her father's face?

• Why does Johanna promise herself that she will not look at the face of the enemy? What does this symbolize to her?

• What does Johanna see in the face of Captain Braun, the German captain stationed in her grandparents' home, when she finally looks at him? Why do you think Captain Braun decides to assist Johanna in hiding the little riders? Why did he say that it was best that they not be seen together?

• Explain the differences in the attitudes and behaviors of the other Nazi German soldiers and Captain Braun. What personal choice/decision does Captain Braun make in helping Johanna hide the

• Write a letter to Captain Braun from a grownup Johanna twenty years after the war inviting him to return to the town to see the "little riders." What should Johanna say to the Captain to express her gratitude for his help? How do you think the town will respond to the return of the Captain to the community?

• Make a series of drawings of the "little riders," these soldiers with swords on horseback. Since they were probably several hundred years old in 1940, what would these soldiers have looked like?

• Listen to a recording of some music played on the flute by James Galway, Native Americans, or other artist. Describe the sound of the flute. What does it make you think about? Compare it to the sounds of trumpets and drums that are often associated with marching and war or opening events of celebrations. Why do you think that Johanna and the Captain both enjoyed the sounds of the flute so much during the time of war and danger? What other musical instruments do you think affect audiences the same as the sound of the flute?

- Johanna is somewhat confused in her feelings after Captain Braun assists her. How does she communicate her change in attitude toward him to Captain Braun? What does the flute symbolize?

- When Captain Braun prepares to leave with the retreating Nazi German army, he leaves his flute for Johanna. Why do you think he does this? What do you think it symbolizes?

The Gold
Cadillac

- What car did father drive home?

- How did his children respond?

- How did his wife Dee react to the new car?

- Why was she upset about the new car?

- Describe the neighbors and their neighborhood.

- Where did father decide to go with the new car? Why did he want to go there?

- To recognize that each person is responsible for his/her own actions

- To analyze ways that people can stand up for what they believe is good and right

- To explain the importance of good laws in making our world safe for each of us

- Has your family ever purchased a new car? How did you feel about the new car? How did your family react? How did your friends react to your new car? Why do you think people are so impressed with new cars? Draw a picture of the "dream car" that you would most like to own when you grow up. Under the picture, write a paragraph explaining why you think that car (or truck) is special.

- Explain the terms: discrimination and segregation. Read about the laws that existed in many parts of the United States before 1964 that permitted segregation and discrimination. Describe the affects of these laws on the people of this country.

- What did his family, friends, and the neighbors advise? Why did mother decide to ride with him after she had refused to go in the car before this time?
- What did other members of the family decide to do when father insisted upon driving to Mississippi?
- What signs upset them along the road and in different places? Why were these signs displayed?
- What happened when they reached Memphis?
- Why did the policeman assume that the car was stolen? Why did the policeman take father to the police station even after seeing father's license and other papers for the auto?
- What happened to father in the police station? Where were mother and the children while father was in the police station?
- What did father say when he returned to the car?
- Why did mother and father decide not to go to a hotel or drive on to Mississippi?
- How did Wilma feel about sleeping in the car?
- Why did father decide to change cars in Memphis?
- How did father explain his treatment in Memphis

Rights Act and the Voting Act. Explain how laws like this have changed our country and made it better for all of the people.

- Make a chart with the following names on it. Make two columns. In the first column write the person or group's name. In the second column, write a sentence about what they did to try to change things and help pass better laws. Frederick Douglass, Sojourner Truth, Elizabeth Cady Stanton, Susan B. Anthony, WEB DuBois, Alice Paul, Fanny Lou Hammer, Rosa Parks, Martin Luther King, Jr., Malcolm X, Southern Christian Leadership Conference, NAACP, ACLU, Morris Dees, Southern Poverty Law Center. Try to find some more names that you think should be added to this list.
- Make a list of people who you think are heroes because they tried to stand up for what is right and have worked (and are working) to make this country and the world better for all people in the way that they are treated.
- What are "human rights"? What are "civil rights"? Explain why these rights are so important to all of us. Make a list of things that you can do to stand up for what is right and good.

and the South,

- How was this treatment prejudiced?
- What did father do with the new car when they got home? What did mother tell him to do about the car? What kind of car did he drive after that visit to the South?
- What did father do with the gold Cadillac? Why did he decide to change his auto?
- What did father say he had decided about what was important?
- Explain your opinion of mother and father and your reaction to the decisions they made.

Twenty and Ten

- What were the implications for Sister Gabriel and the children if the Nazis found the Jewish children they were hiding? What does Sister Gabriel's willingness to hide these children demonstrate?
- How did Sister Gabriel deal with the ration card situation as it refers to the entire group? • What were the overall difficulties in hiding these children? What dilemmas did this present for the group?
- How did Denise find the cave? Describe the cave.
- Compare and contrast the attitude and behavior of the young soldier and the old soldier.
- Create a timeline that depicts the historical events that led to Jews being forced into hiding.
- Elaborate on the timeline with various examples of hiding that the student may or may not be familiar with.
- Imagine that you were one of the twenty children at the school. Write a series of journal entries in your "secret journal" describing your emotions when the Nazis arrived and demanded the ten Jewish children be given to them.
- Draw a picture illustrating how you imagine the cave looked to the children hiding

How a Town Fought Hate

• How does Mrs. Davis respond?

• How does Isaac respond to Mrs. Schnitzer's insistence that Police Chief Inman be called?

• At first, what does Isaac want to do when his parents explain about the prejudice of some people against Jews?

• What is the reaction of Police Chief Inman to the rock-throwing incident?

• What other incidents of prejudice, discrimination, and hate does the Police Chief say have occurred?

• How do Isaac's mom and dad respond to the threats of the rock throwing? What do they tell Isaac that they must do about bullies?

• Why does Mrs. Schnitzer compare their family to their pioneer ancestors?

• Isaac is afraid to place his menorah back in his bedroom window. What do his parents and other adults do about Isaac's fears?

• Why do Police Chief Inman and Margaret MacDonald call for a special meeting? How do there. Draw an illustration of the school.

In the subtitle of the book, the town of Billings is described as the town that fought hate. Explain what this means. What does the reaction of the people 175 in the story to the rock-throwing incident tell you about their character? Are these the kind of people that you would want for friends and neighbors? Explain your response.

• Several other individuals and groups are identified in the story as being victims of hate and bullying also. Make a list of these people and groups. Explain how each was the victim of prejudice and discrimination. Make a list of ideas that the class can create to fight hate and discrimination.

• Draw menorahs for your classroom and take some of the menorahs into other classrooms. Explain the story of the menorah.

• Make a list of all of the acts of courage that were discussed and explained in this book. Explain why it is important to "stand up" to bullies.

• Identify the character/person in this book whom you most respect and admire. Write a letter or poem explaining your respect for this person and the reasons that you admire and respect them.

- What do the two tell the people attending the meeting?
- Explain the action that the people at the meeting and the churches in the community decide to take. Why do they decide to do this?
- Describe the story of the menorah as Isaac explained it to his class.
- What does Isaac's teacher Mrs. Pearson tell his class about celebrating Hanukkah and fighting against prejudice?
- What was the story about prejudice that Teresa Hanley recalled and told to the class? What other story of prejudice and discrimination is told by a classmate?
- What does Mrs. Pearson have to say about bullying? What are Mrs. Pearson and others in town going to do about the bullying?
- Teresa asks her family to place a menorah in the family window. How does her family respond to her suggestion?
- Why is Isaac fearful that the high school would be angry with his family? What is his mother's response to his concerns?
- Why does Isaac's mom take him for a ride in the car? What does he learn?

- Isaac confesses a secret he has kept to his mom. What was it? Why do you think he didn't tell the truth to his friends? What is his reaction now?

- What do Isaac and his mother decide about love and hate when they see the sign in the Hanley window? What symbols were on the sign? What message was the Hanley family sending to Isaac and his family and to others?

- How does the sign in the Hanley's window and his mother's words influence Isaac's decision and actions?

Peacebound Trains

- During the read-aloud session, stop at the salient points and ask these questions rather than at the end of the story so that knowledge is building.

- Why does Sumi's grandmother join her at the top of Blossom Hill?

- What is meant by "brothers fighting brothers"?

- Grandmother says it was dangerous for men to be seen in the beginning of the war. What did she mean?

- At the end, Grandfather stays behind to do his part as a soldier. Do you think he should have done that? Why or why not?

Amistad Rising

- During the read-aloud session, stop at the salient points and ask these

- Change the ending of the story so that Harmuny and Harabujy meet after the war. Draw a picture to go with your ending.

- Write a poem about the peacebound train. Tell it from Harabujy's point of view. Relate his feelings about how the train was able to take his family to safety as well as away from him forever.

questions rather than at the end of the story so that knowledge is building.

- The Spanish slave ship in the story was named Amistad, which means “friendship.” How do you feel about that? Why?
- Why do you think the slaves were forbidden to speak on the ship?

Do you feel it was right for Cinque and the other Africans to kill the captain? Why or Why not?

- After Cinque’s struggle with the crew, the author states, “But they had claimed victory too soon.” What might that mean?
- Although stealing of slaves from Africa was illegal, people could still own slaves. How could this be?

On the Long Trail Home

• During the read-aloud session, stop at the salient points and ask these questions rather than at the end of the story so that knowledge is building.

- Early on Meli questions her father, “Why does anyone order men to do bad things?” How would you answer her? 182
- Meli insists that, “Persons can choose whether to obey bad orders.” Do you agree with her? Why or why not?
- Along the trail, “One or two of the soldiers had tried quietly to bring water and food, especially to the

What does it mean "to make themselves hard?"

- Why do you think Meli’s grandmother encouraged her to run with her brother?

- What do you think of the children eating raw food while on the run?

- Why did Tahli and Meli give their most prized possessions to Caddo’s family? Would you have done that? Explain.

- Caddo’s father says, “We keep truth in our hearts, and say what is necessary to white men.” Is that lying? Why or why not?

- Meli ponders about those who care about other people’s feelings. She thought about the Quakers and the Christians she had met and also about the old Jewish peddler. Meli wonders if it is God who makes them good to the Indians and who makes them think about unseen things. But the white leaders and most of the soldiers do not. How would you respond to Meli?

- When Meli and Tahli are reunited, how did they show their feelings for each other? Why do you think they did that?

- Mela's brother Vladek is prejudiced against the Jews, yet he helps the family when the Polish police come to the apartment looking for Jews. How does he help? Why does he help?

- Where are Jacob's brothers Sholom and David? What is life like for them in their hiding places?

- Why did the Roslan's decide to move? How was Jacob hidden during the move?

- Why does Mela agree to permit Sholom to come to live with them also?

- Describe Sholom's appearance. How does Mela respond when she sees Sholom? How do Jacob and Sholom react to each other? What does Marishka do?

- What illness strikes the children in the Roslan apartment? Why does it cause so much fear?

- While Yurek is in the hospital, how does he attempt to help little Orish (Sholom)?

- How does Jacob react when Sholom dies? What does Alex do?

- Explain how Yurek

becomes involved with the Resistance. How do Jacob and Yurek work together to hid this information from Alex and Mela? Why do they hide what Yurek is doing?

- What happens when the Gestapo agent and the soldiers come to the apartment?
- Describe the journey to Vladek's village.
- What happens when Jacob develops scarlet fever? Why does Dr. Masurik agree to treat Jacob?
- How does Alex solve the problem of the money needed for the bribe and for Jacob's treatment? How does Alex smuggle Jacob into the hospital?
- How does Mela react when Alex takes the family to their "new home?" Describe the home. What does Marishka say about her mother to her brother Yurek?
- How had hiding Jacob and Sholom changed life for the Roslan children?
- What did Alex help to smuggle into the ghetto? Why did the Jews need the smuggled weapons?
- When Alex tells Yurek that he will take him with him on the next smuggling operation, Yurek responds, " There won't be a next time, Papa. They're killing all the Jews (p.76)."

What is Alex's response?

- Why does David join Jacob with the Roslan family? Why does Jacob come to resent his little brother David?
- What happens when Marishka and Teddy (David) disobey and go outside again to play? Why do David and Jacob fight and argue?
- What happens to Yurek? How does Mela react? What is Jacob's reaction? What does Alex mean when he tells Jacob, "Genyek, it's the only thing that matters" in response to Jacob's comment that it doesn't matter whether or not they make it (p. 91)?
- Why do Mela and Alex decide that they must all leave Warsaw? Where do they go to hide?
- When Vladek warns Alex that there is a rumor in the village that he and his family are Jewish, how does Alex handle the crisis? Does it work? How does the village respond?
- How does Jacob respond to the Russian soldier?
- Why do the Roslans decide that they must go to Berlin after the war ended?
- How do Mela and Alex feel about Jacob and David by this time? Give examples that show this.
- How do Jacob and David react when they learn that their father is alive and wants them to come to him in Palestine? What do Alex and Mela tell them?

- Why did Mr. Gutgeld hide the letters and cards that the boys and the Roslans tried to send to each other? How did Jacob and David find the Roslans again?

- What is the "Righteous Among the Nations" award? Why did Jacob and David want the Roslans to receive the award? Do you agree that the Roslans were true heroes?

The Shadow Children

- How does Etienne feel about spending the summer with Grandfather on the farm near Mont Brulant? How does Grandfather feel about his grandson's visit?

- Grandfather is a farmer but he is also a bookbinder. Describe his work as a bookbinder. How does he feel about books?

- Who does Grandfather think was eating his pears? How does he feel about gypsies? Is Grandfather prejudiced toward the gypsies? How can you deduce his attitude?

- When Madame Jaboter hears Etienne's story about the incident in the woods she warns him, "The souls of a thousand lost children live in those woods (p.25). What do you think she means by this?"

- Etienne tells Madame Jaboter that he does not

- Imagine that you are writing a letter to Etienne. What would you say to him about his grandfather?

- Write a newspaper story about the events that occurred in Mont Brulant.

- Make a Venn diagram illustrating the connections between Etienne, his grandfather, and Isaac. Make a "shadow drawing" or silhouette of Etienne, Grandfather, Madame Jaboter, Isaac, and Sarah. (You may use classmates, the teacher, and other adults as models to create the silhouettes.) Under each, write a brief explanation of their reaction to the events that took place in Mont Brulant. Alternatively, write a brief description of the character of each person believe in ghosts. What does she tell him to call them, if not ghosts?

- What is special about the shelf of books that Grandfather never returned? Why do you think Grandfather says, "You don't forget about books like these (p.29)?"

- What does the young man in the woods ask Etienne? How do the children respond when Etienne tells them that he is Monsieur Hoirie's grandson?

- Describe the young man. Why does he say that they are from "everywhere?" What is his answer when Etienne inquires why he has never seen any of them before this time?

- Grandfather is angry when he realizes that Madame Jaboter has been talking to Etienne about the children. He tells her, "Enough! What's done is done." She responds, "You can't will them away! They won't be forgotten. They want their revenge. (p.43)" What do you think they are talking about?

- Grandfather's tells Etienne that "They're (the children) nothing but the bad dreams of a guilty conscience. (p.44)." What do you think he means by this? Have you ever been bothered with thoughts and memories of something you were sorry about?

- Do you think The Shadow Children was a good name for this book? Explain your answer.

How was this story different from other stories of "ghosts" that you may have heard?

- Madame Jaboter tells Etienne to think of the "ghosts" as "memories."

What did she mean by this? Why does Isaac want Etienne to remember?

Although this was a story, explain why it is important for today's children and future generations to learn and remember what really happened in the Holocaust.

- Grandfather says the children only wanted peace. Read about some organizations and peace efforts occurring today. Make a list of things that you can do to work for peace.

Etienne begins to make?
How does he feel about his collection?

- What is strange about the train that Etienne hears?
- Reveuse throws Etienne down the embankment by the old stone bridge. What does he find? What is strange about the ink mark on his arm?
- How does Grandfather respond to the mark? Why does he say, "Because this is what they did to the ones they made into slaves (p.55)?"
- On the ride to the village, Etienne tells Grandfather and Madame Jaboter that he sees the children again. What is Grandfather's reaction?
- What do you think Madame Jaboter means when she responds to Grandfather, "And may God forgive us (p.60)."?
- Why does Isaac refuse to save himself?
- Grandfather says that it would have been better to die with the children than to live with the guilt. What does this tell you about his character?
- Grandfather insists "That time is over and done with." Madame responds "Maybe for us it's over, but not for the children... It will never be over...(p.61)." What are they talking about?

- What does Grandfather tell his grandson about war? Why does he say that the "last war" (World War II) was a time of special madness?
- How did the villagers treat the children? Why did so many children come to Mont Brulant? How did his family respond to the children?
- What did Grandfather say the children wanted?
- What rumors had the villagers heard about concentration camps?
- What choices did the villagers have? What would have been the consequences of each choice?
- How does Grandfather respond when Etienne asks, "Would you have let them take me? (p.65)"?
- What kind of madness does Grandfather say existed? Why does he say that there was no place to hide?
- What happens to Etienne's arm while Grandfather is telling him about the children, the villagers, and the Nazis?
- Who was Isaac? What was his role? How did Grandfather and Grandmother feel about Isaac? About Sarah?
- How did the Nazis force the round up of the children? Why did

Grandfather say that resistance was useless?

- What was it like at the bridge as the children were forced into the cattle cars?
- How does Grandfather feel about himself after the Nazis took the children away? What does he mean when he says that the children are always with him?
- Isaac shouted to Grandfather from the cattle car "...one day the law will bear fruit. Preserve it, please, for those who come after us (p.72)." What was he trying to tell Grandfather?
- What did Grandfather do with the books? What do they tell him about Isaac?
- What did the villagers do about the train tracks? Why did they do it?
- What did Grandfather say the villagers may have been trying to hide? Did he think it had worked? Why not?
- What was the terrible crime that the villagers committed? What other choice does Grandfather think they had? Do you agree or disagree with him?
- Etienne returns to the forest the night after his grandfather told him what had happened to the children. What does he find?
- Isaac gives Etienne a message to give to Grandfather. What was it? What will happen if Isaac and the children do not go on the train?

- What are the two things Isaac tells Etienne to do? Why do you think he told Etienne to do these things?

- How did things change for Etienne after the night of the train?

- What does Etienne conclude about Madame Jaboter's words "the souls of a thousand lost children haunted the place (p.85)."

- What does Etienne conclude about the importance of Grandfather's work with the books? Explain how the books influenced Etienne.

During the read aloud session, stop at the salient points and ask questions rather than waiting to the end of the story to ask all questions. In this way knowledge is building throughout the story.

- With what kinds of toys did Froim play, and how do they compare to the toys with which you play?

- Why would people lose their jobs during a depression?

- Why would a leader "blame" a certain group for the problems of the country?

- What were the effects of

- Sequence the events of the story. As a class, create a timeline of Froim's early life, including the important historical events. Each student can then create his/her own timeline.

- Discuss basic human needs (with emphasis on shelter and warmth) and how Froim provided these for himself. Create a class quilt that signifies Froim's early years and the story's events. An ABC quilt will likely allow each student to create his/her own square contribution. Brainstorm ideas as a class before beginning the project.

- Each student writes an

- What is a pen name, and why would a person choose to use one?

- What would the Nazis do with the stolen valuables from Jewish homes?

- Why were secret schools and libraries established within the ghetto?

- Why was there little food, coal, or medicines within the ghetto, and what were the effects of the lack of these?

- Why did Janusz Korczak refuse to leave the orphans?

- Why weren't the resistance fighters able to stop the Nazis?

Rose Blanche

During the read aloud session, stop at the salient points and ask these questions rather than at the end of the story so that knowledge is building.

- What affects did the new Nazi government and its armies have on the small town where Rose Blanche lived?

- Why does Rose Blanche like to walk by the river?

- Rose likes to watch the trucks. What happens one day when a truck must stop to make repairs?

- Why do you think that the little boy is running from the soldiers?

- Why do you think the

- The illustrations in the book Rose Blanche are very powerful and tell the story as much - or more - than the words. Assign a pair of students to each illustration to try to put into words what they see in the illustration.

- The name Rose Blanche (White Rose) was the name of a group of young German citizens who opposed and resisted the Nazi regime. They were 201 primarily of college-age with some of high school age. They attempted through their underground newspaper to bring the evils of the Nazi regime to the attention of the German people. Eventually they were all mayor stops the little boy and returns him to the soldiers?

- Look at the illustration of the little boy, the mayor, the soldier, and the SS officer carefully. Describe what you see in their faces and body language.

- Where is Rose Blanche while all of this is happening? What does she decide to do? Does anyone else notice or react to what is happening?

- How does Rose manage to follow the truck? Where does the path eventually lead?

- What does Rose Blanche find in the clearing?

- Look at the two-page illustration of the barbed wire enclosure carefully. What can you tell about this concentration camp from the artist's illustration?

- How does Rose Blanche respond to the children in the camp? What does she do throughout the winter months?

- Why is Rose Blanche's mother worried about her? Why is Rose so thin and pale?

- Why do you think that Rose Blanche does not tell anyone what she is doing?

- How are things changing in the camp?

- Why is Rose Blanche's arrested and executed.

Why do you think the author and illustrator took the name of this group for the little heroine of his book? Investigate and discover different methods of resistance used by those who opposed Hitler and the Nazis.

- The authors actually do not say what happens to Rose Blanche. How would you write the end of the story?

- Write a poem or short essay about Rose Blanche. What do her actions tell you about her character and her courage? Why do you think she did not tell anyone what she was doing?

- At one point in the story the author notes, "Everyone was watching everyone else." Why was this happening? What did the Nazis do to those who opposed them or broke the laws?

- Select one event or point of the story and draw your own illustration.

- Design a medal for courage and honor that you would give to someone like Rose Blanche. Explain the meaning of the colors and symbols you use in your medal. Write the speech that you would make when you awarded the medal to such a person

Activities to Differentiate Instruction

Differentiation for students with diverse needs (including special education, ELL, and gifted):

- General modifications based on student motivation may include:
  - Activity choice
  - Personally meaningful activities
  - Hands-on, multimodal activities
  - Involvement in goal setting and assessment activities
  - Response options

- General modifications based on instructional presentation may include:
  - Previewing information/materials
  - Questioning techniques
  - Brainstorming and webbing
  - Preteaching or reviewing strategies
  - Visual demonstrations, illustrations, or models

- General modifications based on instructional monitoring may include:
  - Timelines for assignments
  - Think-alouds, self-talk
  - Journal entries
  - rubrics and checklists
  - peer reviews and coaching

- General modifications based on classroom organization may include:
  - Cooperative learning groups
  - Buddy systems
  - Group roles (timekeeper, recorder, encourager, materials messenger, illustrator)
  - Prompt-cue
  - Gesture-signal
  - Variety of workspace arrangements
  - Organizational tools – labeled bins or cabinets for materials
  - Seating arrangements – minimize distractions, provide positive student models

- General modifications based on student response may include:
  - Extended time
  - Practice exercises
  - Use of preferred response mode

Content specific modifications for students with special needs may include:

- Modifications & accommodations as listed in the student's IEP

Content specific modifications for ELL's may include:

- tap the student's prior knowledge and experience, which may be different from other students in the class
- Collaboration with ELL Teacher
- Content specific vocabulary important for ELL students to understand include: prejudice, discrimination, anti-Semitism, racism, sexism, Holocaust, slavery, persecution.

Content specific modifications to extend learning for gifted students may include:

- As topics are discussed, students will be encouraged to develop maps and historical portfolios of key players involved in each of the readings.

Integrated/Cross-Disciplinary Instruction

Read aloud strategies cultivated in Reader's workshop will be utilized to enhance class discussion in this unit.
