Activities to Differentiate Instruction

Differentiation for students with diverse needs (including special education, ELL, and gifted):

- General modifications based on student motivation may include:
 - Activity choice
 - Personally meaningful activities
 - Hands-on, multimodal activities
 - Involvement in goal setting and assessment activities
 - Response options
- General modifications based on instructional presentation may include:
 - Previewing information/materials
 - Questioning techniques
 - Brainstorming and webbing
 - Preteaching or reviewing strategies

- Visual demonstrations, illustrations, or models
- General modifications based on instructional monitoring may include:
 - Timelines for assignments
 - Think-alouds, self-talk
 - Journal entries
 - rubrics and checklists
 - peer reviews and coaching
- General modifications based on classroom organization may include:
 - Cooperative learning groups
 - Buddy systems
 - Group roles (timekeeper, recorder, encourager, materials messenger, illustrator)
 - Prompt-cue
 - Gesture-signal
 - Variety of workspace arrangements
 - Organizational tools – labeled bins or cabinets for materials
 - Seating arrangements – minimize distractions, provide positive student models
- General modifications based on student response may include:
 - Extended time
 - Practice exercises
 - Use of preferred response mode

Content specific modifications for students with special needs may include:

- Modifications & accommodations as listed in the student's IEP
- Draw and label two posters comparing the lives of patricians and plebeians

Content specific modifications for ELL's may include:

- tap the student's prior knowledge and experience, which may be different from other students in the class
- Collaboration with ELL Teacher
- Content specific vocabulary important for ELL students to understand include: Senate, republic, patricians, plebeians, consuls, gladiator, coliseum, christianity, messiah, apostles

Content specific modifications to extend learning for gifted students may include:

- Describe Rome through the eyes of a Spartan mercenary
- Diagram the political changes in Rome
- Research and write an essay on the Roman enemy, Hannibal
- Create a short travelogue of a Roman era merchant

- Create a double bar histogram comparing Rome's population growth and physical size as they changed over time

Integrated/Cross-Disciplinary Instruction

Language Arts teachers and Social Studies teachers should collaborate on the acceptable rubric and framework for the five paragraph essay assignment. The required format for an introductory paragraph, body paragraphs, and conclusion should be the same across subjects.
