Activities to Differentiate Instruction

Differentiation for students with diverse needs (including special education, ELL, and gifted):

- General modifications based on student motivation may include:
  - Activity choice
  - Personally meaningful activities

- Hands-on, multimodal activities
  - Involvement in goal setting and assessment activities
  - Response options
- General modifications based on instructional presentation may include:
- Previewing information/materials
  - Questioning techniques
  - Brainstorming and webbing
  - Preteaching or reviewing strategies
  - Visual demonstrations, illustrations, or models
- General modifications based on instructional monitoring may include:
- Timelines for assignments
  - Think-alouds, self-talk
  - Journal entries
  - rubrics and checklists
  - peer reviews and coaching
- General modifications based on classroom organization may include:
- Cooperative learning groups
  - Buddy systems
  - Group roles (timekeeper, recorder, encourager, materials messenger, illustrator)
  - Prompt-cue
  - Gesture-signal
  - Variety of workspace arrangements
  - Organizational tools – labeled bins or cabinets for materials
  - Seating arrangements – minimize distractions, provide positive student models
- General modifications based on student response may include:
- Extended time
  - Practice exercises
  - Use of preferred response mode

Content specific modifications for students with special needs may include:

- Modifications & accommodations as listed in the student's IEP
- Teacher will supply materials and ideas as necessary for three dimensional models project
- Length of the hieroglyphic writing activity will be modified to an appropriate length

Content specific modifications for ELL's may include:

- tap the student's prior knowledge and experience, which may be different from other students in the class

- Collaboration with ELL Teacher
- Content specific vocabulary important for ELL students to understand include: Delta, Pharaoh, Unification, Pyramid, Mummification, Hieroglyphics, Cartouche, Papyrus, Polytheism, Rosetta Stone, Sphinx
- Length of the hieroglyphic writing activity will be modified to an appropriate length

Content specific modifications to extend learning for gifted students may include:

- Research the Temple of Dendur on the internet and incorporate this research into an essay about the physical description of the temple
- Model project will be completed to scale, e.g. the three pyramids at Giza will be proportional to the measurements of their real counterparts

Integrated/Cross-Disciplinary Instruction

Three dimensional student projects will incorporate student artistic skills which have been developed, particularly in reference to perspective, proportions, and color combinations.

21st Century Skills

CRP.K-12.CRP2.1

Career-ready individuals readily access and use the knowledge and skills acquired through experience and education to be more productive. They make connections between abstract concepts with real-world applications, and they make correct insights about when it is appropriate to apply the use of an academic skill in a workplace situation.

CRP.K-12.CRP4.1

Career-ready individuals communicate thoughts, ideas, and action plans with clarity, whether using written, verbal, and/or visual methods. They communicate in the workplace with clarity and purpose to make maximum use of their own and others' time. They are excellent writers; they master conventions, word choice, and organization, and use effective tone and presentation skills to articulate ideas. They are skilled at interacting with others; they are active listeners and speak clearly and with purpose. Career-ready individuals think about the audience for their communication and prepare accordingly to ensure the desired outcome.

CRP.K-12.CRP6.1

Career-ready individuals regularly think of ideas that solve problems in new and different ways, and they contribute those ideas in a useful and productive manner to improve their organization. They can consider unconventional ideas and suggestions as solutions to issues, tasks or problems, and they discern which ideas and suggestions will add greatest value. They seek new methods, practices, and ideas from a variety of sources and seek to apply those ideas to their own workplace. They take action on their ideas and understand how to bring innovation to an organization.

CRP.K-12.CRP7.1

Career-ready individuals are discerning in accepting and using new information to make decisions, change practices or inform strategies. They use reliable research process to search for new information. They evaluate the validity of sources when considering the use and adoption of external information or practices in their workplace situation.
