Content Area: Social Studies
Course(s): Social Studies
Time Period: Marking Period 2
Length: Throughout the marking period
Status: Published

Unit Overview

In the Festivals of Light unit the children will "visit" different countries learning about their cultures, climate, and geography.

Standards

SOC.6.1.4.B.4	Describe how landforms, climate and weather, and availability of resources have impacted where and how people live and work in different regions of New Jersey and the United States.
SOC.6.1.P	U.S. History: America in the World: All students will acquire the knowledge and skills to think analytically about how past and present interactions of people, cultures, and the environment shape the American heritage. Such knowledge and skills enable students to make informed decisions that reflect fundamental rights and core democratic values as productive citizens in local, national, and global communities.
SOC.6.1.P.D.3	Express individuality and cultural diversity (e.g., through dramatic play).
SOC.6.1.P.D.4	Learn about and respect other cultures within the classroom and community.

Essential Questions

- 1. What special holidays are celebrated in different countries and how are they celebrated?

Application of Knowledge and Skills...

Students will know that...

- 1. There are many different cultures within the classroom and community.
- 2. Places are jointly characterized by their physical and human properties.

Students will be skilled at...

- A. Compare / contrast the different holiday traditions.

21st Century Skills

CRP.K-12.CRP2.1

Career-ready individuals readily access and use the knowledge and skills acquired through experience and education to be more productive. They make connections between abstract concepts with real-world applications, and they make correct insights about when it is appropriate to apply the use of an academic skill in a workplace situation.

CRP.K-12.CRP4.1

Career-ready individuals communicate thoughts, ideas, and action plans with clarity, whether using written, verbal, and/or visual methods. They communicate in the workplace with clarity and purpose to make maximum use of their own and others' time. They are excellent writers; they master conventions, word choice, and organization, and use effective tone and presentation skills to articulate ideas. They are skilled at interacting with others; they are active listeners and speak clearly and with purpose. Career-ready individuals think about the audience for their communication and prepare accordingly to ensure the desired outcome.
