Activities to Differentiate Instruction

Differentiation for special education:

- General modifications may include:
 - Modifications & accommodations as listed in the student's IEP
 - Assign a peer to help keep student on task
 - Modified or reduced assignments
 - Reduce length of assignment for different mode of delivery
 - Increase one-to-one time
 - Working contract between you and student at risk
 - Prioritize tasks
 - Think in concrete terms and provide hands-on-tasks
 - Position student near helping peer or have quick access to teacher
 - Anticipate where needs will be
 - Break tests down in smaller increments
- Content specific modifications may include:
 - Students having difficulty with students will be provided with individualized coaching by the teacher during practice and game play
 - Softer and/or larger balls will be used for the less-experienced players to increase their comfort level during practice play.

Differentiation for ELL's:

- General modifications may include:
 - Integrate activities into thematic units
 - tap the student's prior knowledge and experience, which may be different from other students in the class
 - teach learning strategies and scaffold complex texts
 - organize students into a variety of learning groups
 - Collaboration with ELL Teacher
- Content specific vocabulary important for ELL students to understand include: passing, dribbling, shooting, kick, punt, head, throw-in, trap, hand ball

Differentiation to extend learning for gifted students may include:

- Gifted students will be challenged to use their non-dominant foot during competitive play
- The distance between players will be reduced or increased.
