Activities

- King/Queen of the Class: Students are divided into five teams (one team in each corner and one team in the middle of the gym). The team in the middle is "king". Students throw a ball to knock a ball off a cone. When the ball falls off, the "king" team is replaced by the next team.
- Question/Answer Session: A series of teacher-created questions in which students answer what they think is the best way to become fit.

- Four-Corner Tag: Students stand in the four corners of the gym. Several students are selected to stand in the center of the gym to be the "taggers". On a signal, the students run to a different corner of the gym while the students in the middle try to tag them. Students tagged become the new taggers.
- Fifty-State Work Sheet: Students will prepare for geography games by reviewing their knowledge of the states on a worksheet.
- United States Map Relay: Students will be divided into three groups. One person from each group grab a poly spot state and place it correctly on the map.

Activities to Differentiate Instruction

Differentiation for special education:

- General modifications may include:
 - Modifications & accommodations as listed in the student's IEP
 - Assign a peer to help keep student on task

21st Century Skills

CRP.K-12.CRP2.1	Career-ready individuals readily access and use the knowledge and skills acquired through experience and education to be more productive. They make connections between abstract concepts with real-world applications, and they make correct insights about when it is appropriate to apply the use of an academic skill in a workplace situation.
CRP.K-12.CRP3.1	Career-ready individuals understand the relationship between personal health, workplace performance and personal well-being; they act on that understanding to regularly practice healthy diet, exercise and mental health activities. Career-ready individuals also take regular action to contribute to their personal financial well-being, understanding that personal financial security provides the peace of mind required to contribute more fully to their own career success.
CRP.K-12.CRP4.1	Career-ready individuals communicate thoughts, ideas, and action plans with clarity, whether using written, verbal, and/or visual methods. They communicate in the workplace with clarity and purpose to make maximum use of their own and others' time. They are excellent writers; they master conventions, word choice, and organization, and use effective tone and presentation skills to articulate ideas. They are skilled at interacting with others; they are active listeners and speak clearly and with purpose. Career-ready individuals think about the audience for their communication and prepare accordingly to ensure the desired outcome.
