

Unit 14: Chase and Flee II

Content Area: Physical Education
Course(s): Physical Education
Time Period: Week 31
Length: 1 Week
Status: Published

Unit Overview

---

Each of the games in this unit requires a different level of cardiovascular endurance. The students will learn how to pace themselves so that they are able to play the entire time. Students will practice their agility when faced with dodging a tagger, their spatial awareness when running in a gym full of other students, and their hand/eye coordination when tagging other players. The expectation is that skills and strategies will be enhanced from the initial Chase and Flee unit.

CRP.K-12.CRP2.1

Career-ready individuals readily access and use the knowledge and skills acquired through experience and education to be more productive. They make connections between abstract concepts with real-world applications, and they make correct insights about when it is appropriate to apply the use of an academic skill in a workplace situation.

Career-ready individuals understand the relationship between personal health, workplace performance and personal well-being; they act on that understanding to regularly practice healthy diet, exercise and mental health activities. Career-ready individuals also take regular action to contribute to their personal financial well-being, understanding that personal financial security provides the peace of mind required to contribute more fully to their own career success.

CRP.K-12.CRP4.1

Career-ready individuals communicate thoughts, ideas, and action plans with clarity, whether using written, verbal, and/or visual methods. They communicate in the workplace with clarity and purpose to make maximum use of their own and others' time. They are excellent writers; they master conventions, word choice, and organization, and use effective tone and presentation skills to articulate ideas. They are skilled at interacting with others; they are active listeners and speak clearly and with purpose. Career-ready individuals think about the audience for their communication and prepare accordingly to ensure the desired outcome.
