Assessments

- Unit Test Summative: Written Test A test on volleyball. 2.5.6.A.1-4, 2.5.6.B.1-2, 2.5.6.C.1-3, 2.6.6.A.1,2,5
- Participation & Effort Formative: Other visual assessments 2.5.6.A.1,3, 2.5.6.B.1, 2.5.6.C.1-3

Activities

Introduce rules, key terms and boundaries of a volleyball court.

Demonstrate hand position for setting, bumping, serving and spiking.

Practice bumping and setting to self.

Students will choose a number and see if they can control the ball for that amount of time. If they succeed they will increase the number.

Partner practice how to bump and set, practicing each one separately. The partner will count how many times the other can bump and set and will provide feedback on the technique. Students will then practice bumping to each other, trying to control the ball.

Explain the service rules, how to rotate and how to keep score.

Practice the underhand and overhand serve.

Discuss the importance of good teamwork and sportsmanship.

Practice spiking. Students bump the ball to the spiker and then rotate.

Review how to rotate during the game.

Divide class into four teams and play games.

21st Century Skills

CRP.K-12.CRP2.1	Career-ready individuals readily access and use the knowledge and skills acquired through experience and education to be more productive. They make connections between abstract concepts with real-world applications, and they make correct insights about when it is appropriate to apply the use of an academic skill in a workplace situation.
CRP.K-12.CRP3.1	Career-ready individuals understand the relationship between personal health, workplace performance and personal well-being; they act on that understanding to regularly practice healthy diet, exercise and mental health activities. Career-ready individuals also take regular action to contribute to their personal financial well-being, understanding that personal financial security provides the peace of mind required to contribute more fully to their own career success.
CRP.K-12.CRP4.1	Career-ready individuals communicate thoughts, ideas, and action plans with clarity, whether using written, verbal, and/or visual methods. They communicate in the workplace with clarity and purpose to make maximum use of their own and others' time. They are excellent writers; they master conventions, word choice, and organization, and use effective tone and presentation skills to articulate ideas. They are skilled at interacting with others; they are active listeners and speak clearly and with purpose. Career-ready individuals think about the audience for their communication and prepare accordingly to ensure the desired outcome.
