

Unit 18: Project Adventure

Content Area: Physical Education
Course(s): Physical Education
Time Period: Week 35
Length: 2 Weeks
Status: Published

Unit Overview

This unit includes a variety of challenges where there will be moments when students are on the brink of both success and failure. The challenges they will face include a ten-foot wall to climb, a large balance board for more than two people, cables attached to two trees that students must walk across, and other physical and mental challenges that require imagination as well as problem-solving. Team work, confidence, trust, responsibility, and interpersonal skills are focal points of this unit. Students will be challenged to go beyond their comfort zone with a variety of physical and mental challenges.

Activities

Students participate in cooperative games, initiatives, problem-solving tasks and the low-ropes challenge course.

Begin with basic activities to develop trust in one another.

Discuss the importance of trust and the importance of not giving up when things are not going one's way.

Students will work in groups and move around stations to work through the tasks. Small group instruction allows for more opportunities at each station.

Activities to Differentiate Instruction

Differentiation for special education:

- General modifications may include:
 - Modifications & accommodations as listed in the student's IEP
 - Assign a peer to help keep student on task
 - Modified or reduced assignments
 - Reduce length of assignment for different mode of delivery
 - Increase one-to-one time
 - Working contract between you and student at risk
 - Prioritize tasks
 - Think in concrete terms and provide hands-on-tasks
 - Position student near helping peer or have quick access to teacher
 - Anticipate where needs will be
 - Break tests down in smaller increments
- Content specific modifications may include:
 - Students will have many opportunities to achieve success with each element.

Differentiation for ELL's:

- General modifications may include:
 - Integrate activities into thematic units
 - tap the student's prior knowledge and experience, which may be different from other students in

- the class
 - teach learning strategies and scaffold complex texts
 - organize students into a variety of learning groups
 - Collaboration with ELL Teacher
- Content specific vocabulary important for ELL students to understand include: upper-body strength, hand-eye coordination

Differentiation to extend learning for gifted students may include:

- Project Adventure is designed to allow all students to be challenged in different ways.

Integrated/Cross-Disciplinary Instruction

Health- safety and warm-up/cool down exercises to help prevent injuries

21st Century Skills

CRP.K-12.CRP2.1	Career-ready individuals readily access and use the knowledge and skills acquired through experience and education to be more productive. They make connections between abstract concepts with real-world applications, and they make correct insights about when it is appropriate to apply the use of an academic skill in a workplace situation.
CRP.K-12.CRP3.1	Career-ready individuals understand the relationship between personal health, workplace performance and personal well-being; they act on that understanding to regularly practice healthy diet, exercise and mental health activities. Career-ready individuals also take regular action to contribute to their personal financial well-being, understanding that personal financial security provides the peace of mind required to contribute more fully to their own career success.
CRP.K-12.CRP4.1	Career-ready individuals communicate thoughts, ideas, and action plans with clarity, whether using written, verbal, and/or visual methods. They communicate in the workplace with clarity and purpose to make maximum use of their own and others' time. They are excellent writers; they master conventions, word choice, and organization, and use effective tone and presentation skills to articulate ideas. They are skilled at interacting with others; they are active listeners and speak clearly and with purpose. Career-ready individuals think about the audience for their communication and prepare accordingly to ensure the desired outcome.
