- Partner Throws: A practice drill in which pairs of students practice accuracy of throws.

Activities to Differentiate Instruction

---

Differentiation for special education:

- General modifications may include:
  - Modifications & accommodations as listed in the student's IEP
  - Assign a peer to help keep student on task
  - Modified or reduced assignments
  - Reduce length of assignment for different mode of delivery
  - Increase one-to-one time
  - Working contract between you and student at risk
  - Prioritize tasks
  - Think in concrete terms and provide hands-on-tasks
  - Position student near helping peer or have quick access to teacher
  - Anticipate where needs will be
  - Break tests down in smaller increments
- Content specific modifications may include:
  - Students who have difficulty using the proper form for throwing/rolling/catching will be given individual instruction by the teacher.
  - Students will be encouraged to move closer to their target and to attend to form to help improve their throws.

Differentiation for ELL's:

- General modifications may include:
  - Integrate activities into thematic units
  - tap the student's prior knowledge and experience, which may be different from other students in the class
  - teach learning strategies and scaffold complex texts
  - organize students into a variety of learning groups
  - Collaboration with ELL Teacher
- Content specific vocabulary important for ELL students to understand include: overhand, underhand, throw, catch, roll

Differentiation to extend learning for gifted students may include:

- Students who excel will be encouraged to throw or roll towards a moving target and/or to move farther away from the target.

Integrated/Cross-Disciplinary Instruction

- Mathematics connection - Counting targets and other objects.
