

Unit 1: Grammar - Parts of Speech

Content Area: English Language Arts
Course(s): English Language Arts
Time Period: Marking Period 1
Length: 3 Weeks
Status: Published

Unit Overview

Students will recognize parts of speech in a variety of contexts with an eye toward applying them to their writing. Students will also analyze various contexts to discover how a single word can act as varying parts of speech.

This unit serves as a review and practice of skills from corresponding units in the grades 6 and 7 curricula. It also ensures that students new to the school in grade 8 have adequate understanding of these concepts as they will apply to an intensive writing curriculum for the year.

The instruction and activities in this unit would appear to apply to only two standards in the Common Core, and only indirectly. However, this grammar unit and three others like it serve as an essential basis early in the school year for the Writing Workshop and ongoing writing experiences. As the students learn the skills and vocabulary related to the mechanics of writing, their facility with more abstract nuances will benefit incalculably.

Standards

Essential Questions

How are the eight parts of speech distinct from each other, and how do they interrelate?

How does context determine the function of a word and thus its part of speech?

Why does varying a word's context sometimes alter its function?

Application of Knowledge and Skills...

Students will know that...

---

- -all words fall into at least one category of the eight parts of speech.
- -varying a word's context can alter its function.
- -verbs can form verbals (gerunds, participles, and infinitives) and function as other parts of speech.
- -verbs have mood (indicative, subjunctive, imperative) and voice (active, passive).
- -words have different functions that vary with context and their interrelations with other words.

Students will be able to...

- -analyze a word in various contexts and explain how it changes its part of speech.
- -identify the eight parts of speech and classify words into them.
- -identify the varying functions of single words as they appear in different contexts.
- -identify verbals and explain their functions.
- -identify verbals and explain their functions.

Assessments

Parts of Speech Pretest

Diagnostic: Written Test

This initial assessment reveals what understanding, if any, the student already has with regard to parts of speech and the functions of words in context.

Daily Warm-Up Exercises
Formative: Sample Assessment Item

Students complete these exercises in their notes and on the SmartBoard. The class discusses different approaches to various concepts in the unit.

Quiz and Test Reviews
Formative: Self Assessment

After taking a practice quiz or a practice test, students pair up to identify strengths and weaknesses in their understanding of topics. They then share their self-assessments with the class.

Formative Quizzes
Formative: Written Test

At the discretion of the teacher, formative quizzes will assess students' progress in the unit.

NOTE: The Core Standard for Language (L 8.1) has specific requirements for mastery of verbs and verbals.

Unit Test
Summative: Written Test

This test requires students to recall the list of all eight parts of speech (knowledge).

They must also identify the part of speech of words underlined in sentences (comprehension/analysis).

Words that are spelled the same are often placed in different contexts, giving them different grammatical functions. For example, the word "throw" in "I will throw the ball," is a verb; but it is a noun in "That was a good throw" (analysis).
