

Unit 5: La rutina diaria

Content Area: World Languages
Course(s): Spanish
Time Period: Week 21
Length: 5 Weeks
Status: Published

Unit Overview

In this unit students will focus on health, fitness, hygiene and daily routine. Students will use reflexive verbs to speak about the things that they do in order to get themselves ready. The unit will continue to introduce students to the preterite form so that they may speak about their past actions. Students will be able to put events in the correct sequence and write descriptions of things they've done.

Essential Questions

- How do people describe their daily routine?
- What are some special customs from the Spanish-speaking world that are not customary for the people of the United States?
- What is a typical day like in the life of a Hispanic teenager?

Application of Knowledge and Skills...

---

Activities

---

- In whole group, students will view Youtube video:<http://www.youtube.com/watch?v=NSblebrx6ng>. Students will listen to a child describe his daily routine.
- Teacher presentation of common reflexive verbs. Students will be able to distinguish between reflexive and non reflexive actions.
- Students will view video Fotonovela- ¡Necesito arreglarme! They will respond orally to teacher prompts. Some activities may include questions such as reflexivo? No reflexivo?
- In small groups, students will compare/contrast weekday-weekend activities.
- Students will compare and contrast their routines with those in other parts of the world.
- In small groups, students will take turns miming actions involving daily routines. Students will use the small white boards to guess the action being done by their classmates.
- Have students write out three daily routine activities without showing them to their partner. The partner will ask questions that contain adverbs of time in order to guess the action. For example: Is it done before or after taking a shower?
- In small groups, have students write and act out a brief skit. Tell them to imagine that they are siblings who are trying to get ready for school at the same time, but only have one bathroom in the home. Have the rest of the class vote on the funniest or most original skit.
- Teacher will write cloze sentences on the board and have the students complete them with an indefinite or negative word.
- In partners, students will take turns giving one-word positive and negative word prompts and having the other respond in complete sentences.
- Teacher will write the names of four vacation spots on four slips of paper and post them in different corners of the room. Ask students to pick their vacation preference by going to one of the corners.

Then, have each group create a short paragraph describing the five reasons for their choice as well as one complaint about each of the other places. Students will use the target language for the entire activity.

Activities to Differentiate Instruction

- Have native speakers talk to their classmates about their daily routine in the target language.
- Allow students to use their vocabulary list while they guess the words their classmates are miming.
- Choice of working alone or in partners.
- Provide skeleton notes for presentations.
- Provide opportunities for students to work together in teacher designed groups.
- Provide tiered activities and homework.
- Assign Spanish "experts" to assist with each lesson.
