Activities to Differentiate Instruction

- For the vocabulary bee, in the early rounds the teacher will differentiate the vocabulary word choice based on previous student achievement
- For the Roman celebrations assignment the teacher will ask some general follow-up questions at the end of the assignment or the teacher will call on a student in the class to ask the presenter more challenging follow-up questions (challenge activity)
- For the evaluative questions assessment, the questions will be leveled according to the hierarchy of Bloom's taxonomy
- For the translation assessment, the teacher will use different paragraphs with varying degrees of vocabulary and grammar complexity to distinguish between different levels of learners

Integrated/Cross-Disciplinary Instruction

The vocabulary bee that students will participate in will require the students to study and prepare just as they would for a language arts vocabulary test. Student understanding of vowel sounds, consonant sounds, and general phonemic awareness will all be stressed and assessed. These language arts skills are invaluable to Latin.
