Unit Overview

Students will read and discuss two poems each day, analyzing literary devices at work, synthesizing ideas from topics covered, and evaluating the artistic value of the poems.

Prominent poets and noteworthy poems and passages receive particular emphasis. Such material will cover a variety of eras and include poets of diverse backgrounds, illustrating not only the traditional canon, but that canon's recent evolution toward a more inclusive spectrum of work.

Students will be required to demonstrate depth of analysis and critical evaluation of a poem's artistic merit. Students may not necessarily agree in their assessments; however, spoken and written commentary must have substance beyond what one would expect of work from a typical sixth grader.

Assessments

Objective Test

Summative: Written Test

Students recall factual information on quotes, poems, terms and forms.

Investigation of Poetic Forms, Tropes, and Terms

Formative: Other written assessments

In groups of four, students investigate specific forms, tropes (devices), and terms. Findings are placed on the board, and all students record findings into their own notes.

Poetry Portfolio

Summative: Student Portfolio

Students write original poems and submit as a portfolio at the end of the unit.

Poetry Project

Summative: Personal Project

Students may choose one of the following:

1. Choose ten forms, tropes, or terms relating to the poetry unit. Compile a display or presentation defining each and include examples from the poetry we have read.
2. Choose three of your own original poems, and construct a display or presentation illustrating at least five forms, tropes, or terms related to the poetry unit.
3. Write an essay summarizing and analyzing a poem. The essay will comment extensively on the form of the poem and its figurative devices. It must also provide an explanation of the poet and his or her background. All outside information must be attributed to sources.

Poetry Circles

Formative: Other oral assessments

Similar to Literature Circles, the Poetry Circle discussions allow students to discuss poetry in small groups. They share questions and comments, and they engage in analysis of form, figures of speech, and various levels of meaning.

The teacher assesses students based on their participation and contribution to discussions as well as on their note-taking and preparation for the discussion.

Poet Profile

Formative: Oral Report

In pairs, students select a poet, research his/her background, make connections between that background and the poetry he/she has composed, and comment on the poet's artistic contribution to the genre.

Students will make visual presentations to the class, and the students listening will assess and comment.

Integrated/Cross-Disciplinary Instruction

Poetry content covers a wide range of topics, and discussion will include commentary and questions across the curriculum. Teacher will respond to students' questions and comments from Poetry Circle follow-up discussions and include additional instruction and enrichment as necessary.
