

Grammar Blitz, Part I -- Parts of Speech

Content Area: English Language Arts
Course(s): English Language Arts, Generic District Course
Time Period: Generic Time Period
Length: Weeks
Status: Published

Unit Overview

Students will recognize parts of speech in a variety of contexts with an eye toward applying them to their writing. Students will also analyze various contexts to discover how a single word can act as varying parts of speech.

This is a heavily abridged version of corresponding units in the curricula for grades 6 and 7. The unit does, however, remain thorough enough for students who are new to the school and do not have the benefit of the previous year's more intensive coverage.

The Grammar Blitz units provide for an expedient review of the grammar topics most important to students' writing skills. This enables students to spend more of the year working on their various Writing Workshop projects.

Teachers may wish to employ a format in which instruction and activities are conceived and driven by students, in consultation with the teacher. For example for the four Grammar Blitz units, a class can be divided into four groups, each presenting instructions and activities for one unit. The teacher administers assessments, additional instruction, and follow-up assessments as needed.

CCSS.ELA-Literacy.SL.8.6	Adapt speech to a variety of contexts and tasks, demonstrating command of formal English when indicated or appropriate.

Essential Questions

How are the eight parts of speech distinct from each other, and how do they interrelate?

How does context determine the function of a word and thus its part of speech?

Why does varying a word's context sometimes alter its function?

Application of Knowledge and Skills...

Students will know that...

Students will know that:

- all words fall into at least one category of the eight parts of speech.
 - words have different functions that vary with context, their interrelations with other words, and in different modes of speaking and writing.
 - sentences can be manipulated in order to make a single word function as different parts of speech.
- -all words fall into at least one category of the eight parts of speech.
 - -sentences can be manipulated in order to make a single word function as different parts of speech.
 - -words have different functions that vary with context, their interrelations with other words, and in different modes of speaking and writing.

Students will be skilled at...

Students will be able to:

- identify the eight parts of speech and classify words into them.
 - identify the varying parts of speech of single words as they appear in different contexts.
 - analyze a word in various contexts and explain how it changes its part of speech.
 - manipulate sentences in order to make a single word function as different parts of speech.

Assessments

Parts of Speech Pretest
Diagnostic: Written Test

This initial assessment reveals what understanding, if any, the student already has with regard to parts of speech and the functions of words in context.

Unit Test
Summative: Written Test

This test requires students to recall the list of all eight parts of speech (knowledge); to identify the part of speech of words underlined in sentences (comprehension/analysis); and to know that words that are spelled the same are often placed in different contexts, giving them different grammatical functions. For example, the word "throw" in "I will throw the ball," is a verb; but it is a noun in "That was a good throw" (analysis).

Group Presentation (if teacher chooses)
Formative: Oral Report

Working in groups, students prepare a presentation for instruction and assessment on the topic of one of the eight parts of speech. The teacher provides parallel objective assessment in the form of quizzes in advance of an objective unit test.

This assessment could include three tiers: the student's assessment of his or her contribution to the group presentation; the class's assessment of each presentation; and the teacher's assessment of each presentation. Forms for all three of these appear as document links to this unit.

Test: Verbs, Verbals, Mood, and Voice
Summative: Written Test

Students demonstrate solid understanding of verbals (infinitives, participles, and gerunds), mood (indicative, subjunctive, and imperative), and voice (active and passive).
