

Unit 2: Informative writing & reading

Content Area: ESL
Course(s): ESL
Time Period: Generic Time Period
Length: Weeks
Status: Published

Unit Overview

In this unit, the students will develop their understanding of informational reading and writing. Throughout the writing and reading process the students will work to achieve the goal of finding and citing evidence that is important to the central idea of the passages. Students will also write their own informational pieces which includes cited research.

Standards

Each WIDA sub-standard will be adapted to learner's proficiency level (entering, beginning, developing, expanding, bridging).

ELL.6-8.2	The Language of Language Arts
CCSS.ELA-Literacy.W.7.1.d	Establish and maintain a formal style.
CCSS.ELA-Literacy.W.7.2.a	Introduce a topic clearly, previewing what is to follow; organize ideas, concepts, and information, using strategies such as definition, classification, comparison/contrast, and cause/effect; include formatting (e.g., headings), graphics (e.g., charts, tables), and multimedia when useful to aiding comprehension.
CCSS.ELA-Literacy.W.7.9.b	Apply grade 7 Reading standards to literary nonfiction (e.g., "Trace and evaluate the argument and specific claims in a text, assessing whether the reasoning is sound and the evidence is relevant and sufficient to support the claims").
CCSS.ELA-Literacy.RI.7.1	Cite several pieces of textual evidence to support analysis of what the text says explicitly as well as inferences drawn from the text.
CCSS.ELA-Literacy.RI.7.2	Determine two or more central ideas in a text and analyze their development over the course of the text; provide an objective summary of the text.
CCSS.ELA-Literacy.RI.7.3	Analyze the interactions between individuals, events, and ideas in a text (e.g., how ideas influence individuals or events, or how individuals influence ideas or events).
CCSS.ELA-Literacy.RI.7.4	Determine the meaning of words and phrases as they are used in a text, including figurative, connotative, and technical meanings; analyze the impact of a specific word choice on meaning and tone.
CCSS.ELA-Literacy.RI.7.5	Analyze the structure an author uses to organize a text, including how the major sections contribute to the whole and to the development of the ideas.
CCSS.ELA-Literacy.RI.7.6	Determine an author's point of view or purpose in a text and analyze how the author distinguishes his or her position from that of others.
CCSS.ELA-Literacy.RI.7.9	Analyze how two or more authors writing about the same topic shape their presentations of key information by emphasizing different evidence or advancing different interpretations of facts.

Essential Questions

1. How should a reader approach material when reading for information?
2. How can research inform a writer, a reader, and a written product?

Application of Knowledge and Skills...

Knowledge: Students will know that...

- a formal style makes assertions and conclusions more authoritative.
- a sequence of components (introduction, body, and conclusion) along with relevant information and examples combine to ensure a clear product for readers.
- clear and coherent writing occurs when the development, organization, and style are appropriate to task, purpose, and audience.
- relevant information must come from multiple, credible print and digital sources, and writers must follow a standard format for citation, attributing all information and concepts to these sources
- writing an effective research paper requires the selection, organization, and analysis of relevant content.

Skills: Students will be able to . . .
