- f. Create a piece of crayon resist art.
- g. Achieve a silhouette by drawing a single, continuous line.

Assessments

- Landscape Silhouette Summative: Visual Arts Project Students will cut out a landscape silhouette they have created. They will place the silhouette on their "Cool Night Sky-Crayon Resist" artwork. They will color the silhouette appropriately to correspond with the overall feeling of the "Cool Night Sky-Crayon Resist" picture. 1.1.2.D.1 1.1.2.D.2 1.2.2.A.2 1.3.2.D.1 1.3.2.D.3 1.3.2.D.4 1.3.2.D.5 1.4.2.A.4
- Cool Night Sky Formative: Other visual assessments Students will draw a cool night sky that shows movement by including spirals and curves. The sky should include a moon and stars. 1.1.2.D.1 1.2.2.A.2 1.3.2.D.5 1.4.2.A.4
- Cool Night Sky-Crayon Resist Formative: Other visual assessments Students will use the cool night sky crayon drawing to follow the movements of the crayons and layer over the crayon drawing with watercolor paint. The repetition of lines and shapes with different media should create a feeling of movement. 1.1.2.D.1 1.2.2.A.2 1.3.2.D.4 1.3.2.D.5 1.4.2.A.4
- Falling Leaves Formative: Other visual assessments Students will draw falling leaves. They will first draw the veins and stem of the leaves as contour lines and then draw the outside edge of the leaf. 1.3.2.D.3 1.3.2.D.5

- Falling Leaves-Overlaid Hues Formative: Other visual assessments Students will color their falling leaves. The students will use only blended warm colors for the leaves. 1.1.2.D.1 1.1.2.D.2 1.3.2.D.3
- Falling Leaves-Overlaid Hues Part II Formative: Other visual assessments Students will color the blank space between their falling leaves. The students will use only blended cool colors to color the negative space. 1.1.2.D.1 1.1.2.D.2 1.3.2.D.3
- Self-Portrait Diagnostic: Other visual assessments Students will draw a self-portrait. After drawing a self-portrait, the students will use a piece of construction paper to frame their portrait. 1.1.2.D.1 1.1.2.D.2

Activities

- Review established art room procedures
- Read the book, Look, Look, Look; discuss colors, patterns, lines, and shapes while reading the book
- Discuss Georgia O'Keeffe's Leaves paintings
- Explain the concept of a contour line
- Discuss the concept of warm and cool colors
- Show examples of literal and expressive uses of warm colors
- Show examples of literal and expressive uses of cool colors
- Demonstrate how to blend colored pencils
- Have students demonstrate the terms: dart, zoom, skip, swing, sway, jump, hop, wiggle, spiral, and zig-zag
- Show Starry Night by van Gogh and discuss how the painting shows movement
- Watch a DVD about van Gogh and discuss what techniques he used to show movement in his paintings
- Demonstrate the crayon resist technique of combining crayons and watercolor paint
- Review scissor safety procedures with the students
- Discuss the term "silhouette" and where students have seen silhouettes
- Draw a landscape that includes trees and buildings by using only a single, continuous line; use the landscape as a silhouette

Activities to Differentiate Instruction

- Vary the number of leaves students will draw in "Falling Leaves"
- If students finish coloring their "Falling Leaves-Overlaid Hues", they will use blending technique to color a vase of flowers
- Review and repeat instructions
- Use proximity control
- Incorporate frequent modeling and prompting
- Use visuals, when possible, to accompany instructions
- Preferential seating

Integrated/Cross-Disciplinary Instruction

After students have completed their "Landscape Silhouette" artwork, they will bring the piece to their language arts class. In language arts class, the students will write a descriptive paragraph of the "Landscape Silhouette" to practice their use of adjectives.
