Enduring Understandings

1. Artists and designers experiment with forms, structures, materials, concepts, media, and art-making approaches, balancing experimentation and safety, freedom and responsibility while developing and creating artworks.
2. People create and interact with objects, places, and design that define, shape, enhance, and empower their lives, gaining insights into meanings of artworks by engaging in the process of art criticism.
3. Artists, curators, and others consider a variety of factors and methods, including evolving technologies, when preparing and refining artwork for display and/or when deciding if and how to preserve and protect it, which also contributes to developing ideas and understandings of society, culture, and history through their interactions with and analysis of art.

Essential Questions

1. How do artists and designers create works of art or design that effectively communicate, and how do life experiences influence one's relationship to art?
2. How does the presenting and sharing of objects, artifacts, and artworks influence and shape ideas, beliefs, and experiences?
3. How does art help us understand the lives of people of different times, places, and cultures?

Knowledge and Skills

Students will be able to:

- Identify, define and utilize the principles of design (balance, unity, contrast, emphasis, pattern, movement, and rhythm).
- Further develop and expand on skills in traditional methods of drawing utilizing a variety of traditional materials.
- Acquire problem solving skills and be able to identify the best method to resolve various aesthetic problems.
- Develop an understanding that art is not just a demonstration of technical skill and sensitivity, but also as an object whose content, composition, size, format, and media all contribute to its meaning.
- Students will acquire an appreciation for drawings made by artists throughout history as well as contemporary artists, and attain basic competency in creating drawings themselves.
- Continue forming connections to art within a contemporary and historical lens through examples presented in class.
- Learn and utilize important terminology to help discuss students' own work as well as their classmates through class critiques utilizing art specific vocabulary to respond to works of art.
- Create a series of studies and projects with a focus on developing drawing skills including:
 - Composition
 - Still Life
 - Negative space
 - Landscape
