Enduring Understandings

1. The elements of art & principles of design will be revisited from the foundation level Crafts prior area of study. The elements and principles will be reinforced throughout the semester as it pertains to each assignment.
2. Crafts give students an opportunity to experience the rich, diverse history of the many cultures within and around us. Intermediate Crafts will continue to provide insight as to how people created crafts as decorative and functional art forms. Intermediate Crafts will bridge the gap between past and present craft-making.
3. Crafts impact many facets of our world and are an integral part of our everyday lives.
4. The creative process gives students an opportunity to better understand the importance of thinking individually as well as globally.
5. Intermediate Crafts will continue to develop a well-rounded student who is open to other ways of thinking and working. This creates and promotes understanding aesthetics and different interpretations of art.

Essential Questions

1. Why is it important for artists to understand the elements of Art & principles of design?
2. Is there a difference between art & craft? Can craft be an art?
3. How does art reflect as well as shape culture?
4. How does the creative process apply and impact our thinking and choices in everyday life?
5. How did necessity drive early people to explore and create to survive? How does art impact your daily life?
