Knowledge and Skills

The Italian Renaissance

The reasons the Renaissance began in Italy.

How humanism influenced the intellectual changes that permeated Europe during the 15th and 16th centuries.

The Reformation

How technology, humanism, new scientific discoveries and corruption led to a decline in the power and influence of the Catholic Church in Europe.

Martin Luther's intentions and how Martin Luther's Reformation influenced other religious reform movements in Europe.

The similarities and differences between each of the new Protestant religions and the reformed Catholic Religion.

Transfer Goals

In the long run, students will be able to independently solve the disparity of multiple perspectives in history from diverse formats and media (i.e. journals, texts, artworks, music, etc.) based on challenges to the status quo during the golden age in Europe.

Students will determine the factors that can lead to changes in power and the impact it has on the citizens.
