Enduring Understandings

Students will understand the following:

Readers need to question the reliability of any narrator to discern the author’s true intent.

Writers use the bildungsroman or coming-of-age novel to trace the development of the protagonist, offering insight into the human experience.

The happy and sad events in our lives shape our perspective.

Throughout life, we will encounter people who succumb to peer pressure, who lack authenticity, and who “sell out” for personal gain.

Essential Questions

Why is a bildungsroman an effective structure for revealing character development?
