Enduring Understandings

Students will understand the following:

Society affects how we look at ourselves and other people.

Standards of beauty or so-called “natural beauty” are constructs created by people and have the capacity to be damaging to people’s self-worth, confidence, and well-being - especially people of color.

The idea that people are inherently bad or good devalues the influences and experiences in a person's life.

Dysfunction is the result of multiple influences from both individual people and society as a group.

Essential Questions

Where do we learn self-worth and self-loathing?

How has the concept of beauty changed over the course of human history?

Who gets to say what is beautiful?

How does violence and abuse affect communities and individuals?

Knowledge and Skills

Students will read The Bluest Eye and evaluate the multiple narrators' contributions to the story and the role point of view in the novel.

Students will explore Morrison's themes of beauty and insanity and how experience shapes a person.

Students will know basic information about Morrison's biography and the country and time period that influenced her work.

Additional Resources:

Core Text: The Bluest Eye - Toni Morrison

Core Poem: "Hebrew Mamita" - Vanessa Hidary

Transfer Goals

Students will independently be able to trace character development in The Bluest Eye and recognize unconscious beauty bias, lookism, in their own lives and how to use this understanding for growth and deep learning.

Students will independently be able to understand how societal institutions can influence how we view ourselves and other people and realize that it will be important for them to maintain their own healthy view of their bodies and minds.
