Enduring Understanding

Some accounts will be uncollectible.

Accountants have to estimate and record adjustments to allow for uncollectible accounts.

Notes Receivable are negotiable instruments that can be sold and discounted.

Essential Questions

Why do I have to anticipate that some of my accounts will be uncollectible?

Why would a company have notes receivable in addition to accounts receivable?

How do we use the acid test ratio, accounts receivable turnover ratio, and days' in sales in receivables to evaluate performance?

Knowledge and Skills

- Define and explain common types of receivables and journalize sales on credit, credit card sales, and debit card sales
- Apply the direct write off method for uncollectibles
- Apply the allowance method for uncollectibles and estimate bad debts expense based on the percent of sales, percent of receivables, and aging receivables method.
- Account for notes receivable including computing interest and recording honored and dishonored notes.
- Use the acid test ratio, accounts receivable turnover ratio, and days' in sales receivables to evaluate business performance

Transfer Goals

Data can get lost in the system and that leads to collecting more debts than needed.

Attention to detail avoids mistakes.
