Evidence from multiple relevant historical sources and interpretations can be used to develop a reasoned argument about the past. |

Enduring Understandings

Throughout our nation's history, our Constitution has been clarified through policy creation and case law to protect the liberties and rights of all citizens.

Minority groups, opinions, and thoughts have played a significant role in determining government decisions.

- Students will determine, through media literacy skills and lateral, close reading strategies when evaluating primary and secondary resources the following: 1. context of the text; 2. reason for the text; 3. type of source the text is; 4. the point of view of the author of the text 5. the intended audience for the text 6. evaluate the stance of the text
- Students will use Historical Thinking Skills to evaluate sources and ideas. Comparison, Contextualization, Continuity and Change over Time, Periodization, Synthesis, Claims, Point of View, Intended Audience, and Purpose.
- Students will observe, note, and draw conclusions with the understanding that there are multiple perspectives. Multiple perspectives is the foundation to understanding the why and how of history. Documents, primary sources, historical readings will be evaluated.
